Note.—Of these churches, some existed under Royal Charter, or otherwise, prior to the first Convention of the Diocese in 1785. This class is denoted by the letter A, placed after the date of admission into union.

A few others seem to have been admitted by the Conventions in which they respectively appeared for the first time by their delegates, although mention of the admission seems to have been omitted in the Journal. Such are designated by the letter B.

The few incorporated under the law of April 13, 1854, are marked by the letter C.

The Secretary read the Calendar of Business that had been filed with him before the opening of Convention, as follows:

CALENDAR.

1. Resolved, That fulfilling the condition imposed by the proviso to Article VII of the Constitution of this Church, the Diocese of New York hereby consents to be included in the Second Province, consisting of the Dioceses within the States of New York and New Jersey and the Missionary District of Porto Rico, pursuant to the Canon of the General Convention adopted in October, 1913.

Resolved, That in the Primary Synod and in every subsequent Synod of the Second Province, the Diocese of New York shall be represented by four clerical deputies and four lay deputies, to be chosen by the Diocesan Convention, or in case of vacancy by the ecclesiastical authority of the Diocese. Unless otherwise ordered by the Diocesan Convention the surviving and continuing deputies to the Missionary Council, for and according to the periods of their election thereto, shall serve as deputies to the Primary Synod and the Synod for and during the periods for which they have been elected to the Missionary Council. Any vacancy existing or arising during or between sessions of the Diocesan Convention and not filled by action of the Convention shall be filled by appointment by the ecclesiastical authority of the Diocese, the term of office under any such appointment to expire at the close of the succeeding Diocesan Convention.

Resolved, That the following Canon be adopted, to be numbered XIII, to follow the present Canon XII, and the subsequent Canons be renumbered accordingly.

CANON XIII.

Of Deputies to the Provincial Synod.

Section 1. The Convention at each annual meeting shall elect by ballot one clergyman and one layman to act as Deputies from this Diocese to the Provincial Synod of the Second Province. It shall elect also by ballot two clergymen and two laymen as Provisional Deputies to serve as provided by Canon in case of absence or inability, either temporary or permanent, of any Deputy. Such Deputies and Provisional Deputies shall hold their respective positions for the period of four years and until their several successors are elected, and shall be Deputies or Provisional Deputies for any Provincial Synod which may be held during their continuance in office, provided that the surviving and continuing deputies to the Missionary Council during the periods for which they were severally appointed shall continue to be Deputies to the Provisional Synod.

Sec. 2. Any and all vacancies existing or occurring in the office of Deputy to the Provincial Synod shall be filled in the same manner, by like authority and for the like periods, as in these Canons prescribed for filling vacancies in the office of Deputy to the General Convention.

Resolved, That Canon XI, entitled "Concerning Elections," be and the same hereby is amended by striking out the words "Deputies to the Missionary Council of the Second Department" wherever they occur and by substituting therefor the words "Deputies and Provisional Deputies to the Provincial Synod of the Second Province."

Resolved, That Rule of Order, V. 7, be and hereby the same is amended by striking out the words "to the Missionary Council of the Second Department" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "and Provisional Deputies to the Provincial Synod of the Second Province"; and by striking out the words "to the General Convention" in the line next to the last of said subsection 7.

2. Resolved, That the Committee on Canons be instructed to correct, revise and harmonize the Canons of this Diocese and report to the Convention of 1914.

Which was referred to the Committee of Canons.

3. Resolved, That Canon XV, Section 2, be amended by striking out the words "three persons to be appointed annually by the Bishop" and changing the number of elected clergymen to nine.

Which was referred to the Committee of Canons.

4. To provide by proper canonical change that when one-third or more of the salary of any Rector shall be paid by the Diocese, such parish shall become for the time being a mission chapel, and its minister shall be appointed by the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society, and be subject to the supervision of the respective Archdeacon.

Which was referred to the Committee of Canons.

5. To limit the right of Missionaries and Curates or Assistant Ministers to vote in Convention to those who receive a salary sufficient for their support from the Parish or Missionary Society of the Diocese.

Which was referred to the Committee of Canons.

6. Recommending to the Second Missionary Department that they employ a Secretary for Social Service.

Which was referred to the Committee on Miscellaneous Business.

7. Resolved, That in all matters of the appropriation, apportionment or assessment of money for or upon the parishes or congregations the privileges of voting shall be limited to the parishes or congregations, the minister or ministers in charge of each congregation casting one vote for the congregation and the lay delegates voting as at present.

Which was referred to the Committee on Canons.

8. Resolved, That with the approval of the Finance Committee the Convention appropriate the sum of $4,500 for Social Service within the Diocese.

Which was referred to the Committee on Finance.

9. Resolved, That no clergyman who is not an American citizen be permitted to accept a Rectorship in this Diocese.

Which was referred to the Committee on Miscellaneous Business.

10. Proposed substitute for Canon XXII of the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society:

Section 1. All members of the Church in this Diocese shall be considered as constituting the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society.

Section 2. (1) The Missionary and Church Extension work of the Diocese shall be conducted by the Diocesan Board of Missions and Church Extension.

(2) The Convention shall be the Diocesan Board of Missions and Church Extension, and as such shall sit as often as the business of the Board may require.

(3) The Bishop of the Diocese shall be ex-officio President of the Board.

(4) The Treasurer of the Diocese shall be ex-officio the Treasurer of the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to receive all funds for the Missionary and Church Extension work of the Diocese and to disburse the same under the direction of the Board of Managers.

SECTION 3. (1) a. There shall be a Board of Managers of the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society, which Board shall be also the Missionary Committee of the Diocese of New York, consisting of the Bishop (who shall be Chairman ex-officio), the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be such, the Suffragan Bishop, the Archdeacons, the Treasurer of the Diocese, three Presbyters and three Laymen to be elected annually by the Diocesan Convention as members at large (of whom at least two Presbyters and two Laymen shall be residents in the County of New York), and one Presbyter and one Layman from each of the nine other counties of the Diocese, to be elected as hereinafter provided.

b. No member of the Board of Managers elected as a representative from one of the counties shall be eligible for re-election for one year from the expiration of his term. Members elected by the Diocesan Convention shall be eligible for re-election.

c. If there be any failure to elect the above representatives, or if from any other cause a vacancy shall occur, the power to fill this vacancy shall reside in the Board of Managers.

(2) It shall be duty of the Board of Managers:

a. To maintain and strengthen the Mission and Church Extension work of the Diocese;

b. To hold missionary councils and to issue missionary literature;

c. To plant the Church in new communities and among people of foreign tongues, subject to the provisions of the Canon "Of the Establishment and Boundaries of Parishes and Mission Districts";

d. To create and carry out an efficient Church extension policy in all parts of the Diocese;

e. To preserve all reports received from the Archdeacons and Missionaries;

f. To make grants to poor parishes under such regulations as the Board may prescribe for the increase of inadequate clerical salaries, to the end that in this diocese each unmarried clergyman in charge of a parish in union with the Convention of the Diocese may receive a salary of not less than $1,200 a year or $1,000 a year and a residence, and each married clergyman in charge of such a parish not less than $1,200 and a residence;

g. To meet monthly except in March, July, August and September, and at other times upon the call of the Chairman;

h. At its October meeting to audit the accounts of the Treasurer and to adopt and deliver to the Board of Missions and Church Extension an annual report containing the following items.

1. A statement of the Missionary work done since last report.
2. The names of the Missionaries and stations.
3. An account of receipts and expenditures.

4. A list of the parishes contributing and of the sums contributed by each parish to Diocesan Missions.

5. An estimate of the amount of funds needed for the Missionary and Church Extension work of the Diocese for the ensuing year.

6. Such other matters as may be deemed necessary.

i. To exercise during the recess of the Diocesan Board of Missions and Church Extension all the powers of the Board.

(3) Seven members of the Board of Managers, one of whom shall be the Bishop, the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be such, or the Suffragan Bishop, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. In the absence of the Bishop and the Bishop Coadjutor, the Suffragan Bishop shall preside.

SECTION 4. (1) There may be two Archdeacons of the Diocese of New York, whose separate fields for their official terms shall be assigned them by the Bishop.

(2) Said Archdeacons shall be nominated by the Bishop, and with the advice and consent of the Convention of the Diocese appointed by him for a period of five years, and shall be eligible for reappointment. No Archdeacon, while acting as such, shall be Rector or settled Minister of any Church or Congregation.

(3) It shall be the duty of each Archdeacon:

a. To search out the religious needs of his territory and to conduct Missionary and Church Extension work within its limits.

b. To collect and preserve careful statistics of population, of the condition of communities, and of Missionary work.

c. To make full and regular reports to the Bishop and Board of Managers.

d. In consultation with the Bishop, to divide his field into such Archdeaconries as may be most convenient for the conduct of business and the awakening of local interest.

e. To provide for one or more meetings annually in each Archdeaconry, at which reports shall be made of mission work undertaken in the same and plans for further development presented and discussed.

f. In the absence of the Bishop, the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be such, and the Suffragan Bishop, to preside at all meetings of the Archdeaconries in his territory.

SECTION 5. (1) Each Archdeaconry shall organize in accordance with its own by-laws, and shall elect its own Treasurer and such other officers as it may deem necessary.

(2) At its first meeting after the Diocesan Convention at which this Canon shall become operative, each Archdeaconry shall elect one Presbyter and one Layman from each of the counties of which it consists to serve as its representatives in the Board of Managers of the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society, until the annual meeting in the year following. Thereafter at its annual meeting to be held prior to the Diocesan Convention, it shall elect one Presbyter and one Layman from each of the counties of which it consists as its representatives in the Board of Managers of the above-named Society, who shall each serve for a term of two years.

(3) Each Clergyman or Layman receiving a stipend or other regular assistance from the Missionary funds of the Diocese shall, semi-annually, on blanks to be provided by the Board of Managers, make a report of his work to the Archdeacon, who shall submit the same to the Archdeaconry at its next regular meeting. Monthly reports may also be required.

(4) It shall be the duty of each clergyman unless prevented by grave and reasonable cause, to attend each meeting of his Archdeaconry.

SECTION 6. (1) The appointment and removal of all missionaries shall be vested in the Bishop and their stipends determined by the Board of Managers.

(2) a. Every application to the Bishop for the establishment of Mission Districts under the provisions of the Canon "of the Establishment and Boundaries of Parishes and Mission Districts" shall be accompanied by the approval of the Board of Managers.

b. Any Mission Station designated by the Board of Managers may be organized by the Bishop, upon the application of residents in its neighborhood, and under the conditions laid down by the Canon "of the Establishment and Boundaries of Parishes and Mission Districts."

c. The Form of application shall be as follows:

To the Right Reverend.....
Bishop of New York.

We, the subscribers, baptized persons, residents in the Town of ....., in the County of ....., New York, respectfully request that we be duly received as a mission, under the authority and direction of the Diocese of New York, to be known as ..... Mission, in the Town of.....

And we do hereby promise conformity to the authority of the Diocese, and to the Constitution and Canons, and the Doctrine, Discipline and Worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States and in the Diocese of New York, and we further pledge the sum of $..... to the support of the Minister for the first year.

(3) a. Any parish seeking aid from the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society shall make written application therefor, stating the number of contributors and the amount pledged or secured in the parish or station for the support of the Minister and all other facts necessary for a full understanding of the case.

b. Any Minister receiving assistance from the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society may be required by the same to perform compensating duty.

Which was referred to the Committee on Canons.

11. Resolved, That the Secretary of Convention be authorized to add to the JOURNAL as an Appendix a list of the Parishes and Mission Chapels that have been established in the Diocese since its organization, with the dates of their respective establishment, incorporation, consolidation with other parishes, or their disestablishment; and that the Secretary be further authorized to expend from the Diocesan Fund such an amount for clerical assistance in making the research necessary for the preparation of such a table as the Bishop may deem wise.

Which was referred to the Committee on Miscellaneous Business.

12. Resolved, That the Standing Committees on the Diocesan Fund and on the Treasurer's Report be discontinued, their duties having been transferred to the Committee on Diocesan Finance, and that it be referred to the Committee on Canons to make such changes in the Canons and Rules of Order as may be necessary to make this action effective.

Which was referred to the Committee on Canons.

13. To appoint a committee to report as to the conditions under which endowments of parishes and institutions connected with this Diocese are held.

Which was referred to the Committee on Miscellaneous Business.

14. To amend Canon XIII. by requiring reports from the Standing Committee.

Which was referred to the Committee on Canons.

15. To amend Article III. of the Constitution by providing a penalty for failure of parishes to make annual reports pursuant to Canons IX. and XVIII.

Which was referred to the Committee on Canons.

16. To amend Article III. of the Constitution by limiting the clerical vote on matters of finance to clergymen who are settled in some church in union with the Convention or in the Cathedral.

Which was referred to the Committee on Canons.

17. To instruct the Committee on Diocesan Finances to consider and report whether a more equitable system of assessment can be devised.

Which was referred to the Committee on Finance.

18. Resolved, That the Bishop appoint a Committee of Three, of whom two are to be members of the legal profession, to ascertain and report to the next Convention whatever action may be necessary in order to secure the proper amendment of Paragraph 6, Section 43, Article III. of Chapter LI. of the consolidated Laws of the State of New York (printed on page 443 of the Convention JOURNAL of 1912), to the end that all members belonging to a parish, of full age, who have been regular attendants at its worship and contributors to its support for at least twelve months, shall be considered properly qualified voters at any parish election or special meeting.

Which was referred to a Special Committee.

19. Resolved, That this Convention appropriate $3,000 to the work of the General and Provincial Boards of Religious Education, to be apportioned in the same manner as the apportionment to the Board of Missions.

Which was referred to the Committee on Finance.

20. Resolved, That this Convention appropriate $2,000 to the work of the Diocesan Board of Religious Education, to be apportioned in the same manner as the apportionment to the Board of Missions.

Which was referred to the Committee on Finance.

21. Resolved, That the Convention appropriate $48,000 for Diocesan Missions, to be raised by an assessment on the parishes and missions.

Which was referred to the Committee on Finance.

22. Resolved, That the Committee on Nominations be discontinued and that all nominations be made in accordance with the Canons.

Which was referred to the Committee on Miscellaneous Business.

The Rev. George H. Toop offered the following resolution:

23. Resolved, That the Archdeacons of the Diocese be required to furnish for printing a detailed statement of their receipts and disbursements.

Which was referred to the Committee on Miscellaneous Business.

Mr. Eugene M. Camp offered the following resolution:

24. Resolved, That a committee of ten clergy and ten laymen, not of necessity delegates to this Convention, be appointed to prepare and recommend to the Committee of Arrangements for this Convention a program for meetings and exhibits during the Convention of this Diocese in 1914, and upon approval of plans by the Arrangement Committee this Committee of Twenty invite all organizations of the Diocese, unofficial as well as official, to send their printed reports and make exhibits of their work, and as far as may be practicable, to give addresses setting forth achievement, plans and aims.

Resolved, That this Committee of Twenty be instructed to place the burden of the work involved upon the lay members of the Committee, and that the clerical members of the Committee and this Convention hold these laymen responsible for the work.

Resolved, That the Committee have authority to invite, in the name of this Convention, friends of all of these lines of work, and the general public to read these reports, to inspect the exhibits, and to hear the addresses.

Which was referred to the Committee on Miscellaneous Business.

The Committee on Nominations made the following report:

Mr. Stephen Baker presented the following report:

REPORT

OF THE COMMITTEE ON DIOCESAN FINANCES.

The Committee has held three meetings during the year.

Under its direction the Treasurer of the Diocese has prepared the schedules of assessments for Diocesan purposes and of apportionments for Domestic and Foreign Missions and the Social Service Commission.

With the Archdeacons of the Diocese it has met as the Board of Adjustment and considered requests from thirty-seven Parishes, Missions, and Congregations for the correction or modification of their assessments or apportionments, and made such adjustments as seemed necessary.

The Committee has consulted with the various agencies receiving appropriations from the Convention and is prepared to submit an annual budget of Diocesan expenditures.

The Treasurer of the Diocese has, in accordance with the Canon, reported to the Secretary of the Convention the names of all Parishes, Missions, or Congregations that for two successive years have failed to pay the Diocesan assessments.

While the assessments for Diocesan purposes have been fully met by a large number of Parishes, Missions, and Congregations, there are twenty-seven that have paid but part of the assessments, seven that have paid nothing, and five that for two successive years have ignored the assessments entirely. $4,400 still remains uncollected at this date, as compared with $2,000 for the corresponding date of last year. As these assessments are a direct charge against the income of the Parishes, Missions, and Congregations by Canon, all arrears should be promptly paid.

We emphasize very strongly that the canonical dates for the payment of assessments are February 1st and August 1st. A strict adherence to these dates is necessary if all Diocesan obligations are to be met promptly.

We call attention to the fact that the annual report of each Parish, Mission, or Congregation should be presented on the first day of the Convention; "otherwise current expenses may be estimated by the Treasurer." Failure to do this made it necessary to estimate the current expenses of one hundred Parishes last year, causing confusion and dissatisfaction.

The reports from the Board of Missions show that on the apportionment of $266,650 made to the Diocese of New York by the Board of Missions, the receipts to date amount to $191,188.77. The Treasurer of the Diocese has received $2,398.92 on account of the apportionment of $3,400 for the Social Service Commission.

The Committee is of the opinion that as a basis of assessment Canon XVIII. should not include the repairs and maintenance of buildings used for Church purposes and supplies. The Committee, therefore, recommends the adoption of the following resolution.

Resolved, That Canon XVIII., Section 2, Paragraph 1, be amended to read as follows:

"The assessment for the objects named in Section 1, Paragraph 4, shall be based upon current expenses of each Parish, Mission, or Congregation, as shown by its annual report.

"For the purpose of defining the basis of assessment, current expenses are hereby defined to include all expenses for the following objects named:

"Salaries of Rectors and all Clergy connected with the parish, and salaries or wages of lay readers, sextons, janitors and assistants.

"Maintenance of music.

"Light, heat and power used in the churches."

The notification to each Parish, Mission, or Congregation of its annual assessment shall indicate the amount assigned to it for each of the objects for which the assessment is laid.

The Treasurer shall classify the Parishes, Missions, and Congregations according to the amount of the current expenses of each of them and shall make assessments based on such classification.

The appointed members of the Committee desire again to express their appreciation of the conscientious work done by the Treasurer during the past year.

Respectfully submitted,

STEPHEN BAKER,
SETH LOW,
R. H. WILLIAMS,
FRANCIS S. BANGS,
GEO. R. VAN DE WATER,
GEO. A. STRONG,
R. M. POTT,
Committee.

New York. November 7. 1913

The proposed amendment to Canon XVIII. was referred to the Committee on Canons.

The Committee on Diocesan Finance begs to submit the following budget of Diocesan expenditures for the Convention year 1913-14.

FIRST. THE EPISCOPAL FUND.

The amount of the appropriation for last year was Seventeen thousand dollars ($17,000), and the Board of Trustees has made application for an appropriation of a similar amount for the coming year.

The Committee therefore begs to offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Committee on Diocesan Finances recommends the appropriation by the Convention of the sum of Seventeen thousand dollars ($17,000) for the Episcopal Fund for the Convention year 1913-14.

SECOND. THE DIOCESAN FUND.

The amount of the appropriation for the Convention year 1912-13 was Five thousand dollars ($5,000). The Treasurer of the Diocesan Fund has made application for an appropriation of Six thousand dollars ($6,000) for the coming year.

The Committee therefore begs to offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Committee on Diocesan Finances recommends the appropriation by the Convention of the sum of Six thousand dollars ($6,000) for the Diocesan Fund for the Convention year 1913-14.

THIRD. THE DIOCESAN MISSIONARY COMMITTEE.

The amount of the appropriation for the Convention year 1912-13 was Two hundred and fifty dollars ($250), and the Committee has made application for an appropriation of Three hundred and eighty dollars ($380) for the coming year.

The Committee therefore begs to offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Committee on Diocesan Finances recommends the appropriation by the Convention of the sum of Three hundred and eighty dollars ($380) for the work of the Diocesan Missionary Committee, to be paid out of the Diocesan Fund.

FOURTH. DIOCESAN MISSIONARY AND CHURCH EXTENSION SOCIETY.

The amount of the appropriation for last year was Thirty-eight thousand dollars ($38,000). Your Committee regrets that they have received no application for an appropriation from the Society, and, are therefore unable to recommend any appropriation for the coming year.

For the Committee,

STEPHEN BAKER, Chairman.

New York, November 7, 1913.

The resolutions contained in the report were adopted.

Mr. Henry Lewis Morris presented the following report:

St. Stephen's Church in the City of New York. Endowment Fund amounting to Eighty-seven Thousand Five Hundred Dollars, the income to be paid to St. Stephen's Church, and in case that corporation shall cease to exist, then the Fund is to revert to Trinity Church Corporation.

Endowment Fund of Eight Thousand Dollars, the income to be paid to the Trustees of Christ Church, Red Hook, for the maintenance of services in All Saints Chapel, Upper Red Hook, New York.

An Endowment Fund of Three Thousand Five Hundred Dollars has been received from the Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen of St. Stephen's Church, North Castle, Westchester County, New York, the income thereon to be paid annually to the Treasurer of said Vestry

The Trustees have also received notice of the probate of the Will of J. Pierpont Morgan, which provides for two legacies, one of Five Hundred Thousand Dollars, and one of One Hundred Thousand Dollars, to be held under the terms of Article Ten of Mr. Morgan's Will, as follows:

> Article X. I give and bequeath to "The Trustees of the Estate and Property of the Diocesan Convention of New York," incorporated in pursuance of the act of the Legislature of the State of New York, passed April 11, 1876, two separate sums, one of Five Hundred Thousand Dollars and one of One Hundred Thousand Dollars, upon the following trusts, that is to say, upon the trust as to said sum of Five Hundred Thousand Dollars, to invest and reinvest the same, to collect and receive the income thereof, and to pay over such income to St. George's Protestant Episcopal Church in the City of New York, for the support of the ministry of such Church, upon the written receipt for the same of the Treasurer of such Church, or other proper officer appointed for the purpose by the Vestry thereof.
> And upon the further trust as to said One Hundred Thousand Dollars, to invest and reinvest the same, to collect and receive the income thereof and to pay over and apply such income from time to time for the establishment and support of such missionary stations of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Diocese of New York within the counties of the State of New York now composing such Diocese, preference being given to stations within the Archdeaconry of Orange as now composed, as may be annually selected and indicated in writing for the purpose by and with the joint written approval of the Bishop (or if there be no Bishop, of the Standing Committee of such Diocese), and of the Rector for the time being of said St. George's Church.
> I authorize the Trustees in this Article named in their discretion to hold as investments of the trust funds any securities or property which may be received by them from my executors and trustees, although the same may not be of the character or class recognized by law as proper investments for trust funds, and I authorize said Trustees in their discretion to vary and change all investments of said trust funds, whether original or subsequent.

Mr. Morgan's Estate has paid to this corporation interest at the rate of five per cent. per annum on the two sums of Five Hundred Thousand Dollars and One Hundred Thousand Dollars, from the date of his death, March 31, 1913, and this interest has been dispensed to the beneficiaries of the trusts.

The term of office of one of the Trustees, Mr. Franklin D. Roosevelt, has expired October 1, 1913, and one person should be elected by the Convention for the term of four years to succeed him.

Another Trustee should be elected for the term ending October 1, 1914, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Rev. Cornelius B. Smith, D.D.

Another Trustee should be elected for the term ending October 1, 1915, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan.

Another Trustee should be elected for the term ending October 1, 1917, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. John T. Atterbury.

The Treasurer's Report, submitted herewith, shows in his charge securities and cash of the estimated value of $881,211.96.

Income collected and paid beneficiaries, $48,023.80.

The Treasurer's accounts have been examined and found correct by the Executive Committee, consisting of George A. Crocker, Jr., and Frank L. Polk.

Dated, New York, November 10, 1913.

HENRY LEWIS MORRIS,
Secretary.

Mr. William Jay presented the following report:

REPORT

OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE PAROCHIAL FUND OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN THE DIOCESE OF NEW YORK.

The Trustees of the Parochial Fund respectfully report that during the year 1912-1913 they have held three meetings. The receipts from investments at their disposal have enabled them to give assistance to five faithful clergymen of the Diocese, all of whom are in receipt of parochial salaries under $600 per annum. Without this assistance the stipends received would be below the standard of decent maintenance.

The Board has dispensed the income from the several trusts committed to its care, but regrets to state that for some ten years past the Fund has received no addition to its principal.

A Discretionary Fund of $500 was appropriated to the Bishop of New York for the assistance of such Clergymen as would otherwise be deprived of needed recuperation.

In addition to the annual appropriation made by the Board of Trustees of the Parochial Fund to its own beneficiaries, at the request of the Board of Managers of the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society, $1,200 was appropriated for the income of the Parochial Fund to meet that Board's requirements for adequate clerical support.

The annual report of the Treasurer is herewith appended.

The term of office of Mr. William Jay and Mr. Blair S. Williams expired on October 1st. The Trustees suggest that the Secretary of the Convention be requested to cast a ballot for the retiring Trustees to succeed themselves.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM JAY,
President.

WALTER THOMPSON,
Secretary.

Dated New York, November 10, 1913.

October 31, 1913.

Trustees of the Parochial Fund of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of New York, New York City.

DEAR SIRS:

In accordance with the request of your Treasurer, Mr. George A. Crocker, Jr., I have audited his accounts for the year ended October 1, 1913, and submit herewith my certificate, together with four Exhibits and one Schedule as follows:

Exhibit "A." Balance sheet, October 1, 1913.
Schedule No. 1. Securities.

Exhibit "B." Income Account.
Exhibit "C." Investment Account.
Exhibit "D." Cash Account.

During the year, some few changes were made in the Trust Funds. On January 7th, the N. P. A. Cons. Co. Mortgage of $3,500 (4½%) belonging to the Graham Fund, fell due; it was extended for three years at 5 per cent. On February 12th, the Small Realty Co. Mortgage of $7,000 (4½%) belonging to the same fund, fell due; this was also extended for three years at 5 per cent. Four instalments, amounting to $225 were received on the mortgage on St. Paul's Church, at Spring Valley, N. Y., leaving a balance of $225 still due. The final instalment of $50 on the mortgage on the Society of the Free Church of St. James, Callicoon, N. Y., was received and the mortgage cancelled. These receipts, amounting to $275 reduce the principal invested in the Rectory Aid Fund; the total amount belonging to this fund not invested, is now $476.81, and represents the only principal money on hand uninvested.

All information and explanations necessary for me to do the work of auditing have been supplied.

Respectfully,

THOS. B. DEAN.

Certificate.

I have audited the books and records of the Treasurer of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of New York for the year ended October 1, 1913, and have verified the cash and securities on hand.

I hereby certify that the four accompanying Exhibits entitled Balance Sheet, Income Account, Investment Account, and Cash Account, are correct and that the book records are in accordance therewith.

On behalf of the Trustees Col. Jay nominated Mr. William Jay, and Mr. Blair S. Williams to succeed themselves for a period of three years from October 1, 1913, and moved that the Secretary be directed to cast one ballot for their election.

Which was adopted.

The Secretary cast the ballot, and the Chair declared them to be duly elected.

Mr. George Macculloch Miller presented the following report:

REPORT

OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE EPISCOPAL FUND.

The Trustees of the Episcopal Fund of the Diocese of New York report that the capital of the General Fund in their hands is two hundred and fourteen thousand four hundred and eighty-four dollars and eleven cents ($214,484.11).

As no addition has been made to the capital of the Fund during the year, the receipts from investments will be insufficient to meet the deficiency in the income of the Fund for the salary of the Bishops.

The Trustees, therefore, recommend to the Convention the adoption of the following resolution:

"Resolved, That the Treasurer of the Diocese, acting under the direction of the Committee on Diocesan Finance, shall make an assessment on the Parishes, Missions and Congregations of the Diocese, of the amount necessary to be expended for the salary of the Bishops of the Diocese, beyond the income of the Fund to pay the following amounts:

For the Salary of the Bishop of the Diocese	$15,000 00
For the Salary of the Suffragan Bishop of the Diocese	7,500 00
For the Salary of the Secretary of the Bishop	2,000 00
For Rent of Episcopal Residence	2,500 00
	$27,000 00

such assessments to be in lieu of the collection provided for by Canon for the capital of the Episcopal Fund."

The statement of the investment and income of the Fund in the hands of the Trustees is as follows:

The Trustees further report that they have proceeded with the erection of the Bishop's House upon the plans prepared by Messrs. Cram, Goodhue & Ferguson, after consultation with the Bishop. These plans were approved by the Trustees of the Cathedral, and by formal agreement between them and the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund, a plot of ground was set apart on which the building should be erected.

The Trustees have received at the hands of the Bishop, from special gifts made through him, the sum of $115,375, and they also have subscriptions available of $20,000.

There has been paid on the building to October 31, 1913, the sum of $141,436.02; there remains to be paid on existing contracts the sum of $47,000, for which there is cash on hand $29,315.20, and available subscriptions amounting to $20,000.

The existing contracts do not, however, include all that is required for the completion of the House, and it is the hope of the Trustees that the further sum needed for the purpose may be obtained in time to enable the Bishop to occupy the House in the early spring.

The Trustees further report a vacancy in their Board, caused by the death of Mr. John Pierpont Morgan, and respectfully nominate to succeed his father in the Board, Mr. John Pierpont Morgan, his son.

John McL. Nash,
George S. Bowdoin,
William Jay.

November 12, 1913.

The resolution contained in the report was referred to the Committee on Diocesan Finances.

Mr. Miller nominated Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan to fill the vacancy caused by the death of his father, Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan, and moved that the Secretary be directed to cast one ballot for his election. Which was adopted.

The Secretary cast the ballot, and the chair declared Mr. Morgan to be duly elected.

The Treasurer of the Diocese presented the following reports:

REPORT

OF THE TREASURER OF THE DIOCESE.

Acting under the direction of the Committee on Diocesan Finances the Treasurer of the Diocese notified, before December 1, 1912, the corporate authorities of all the Parishes, Missions and Congregations in the Diocese of the assessments for the Diocesan Fund, the Episcopal Fund and Diocesan Missions, and also the amounts apportioned for the Social Service Commission and for General Missions.

On February 1, 1913, a complete table of assessments and apportionments as finally determined by the Board of Adjustment was distributed to the corporate authorities. The amount thus finally determined for the assesments was $61,175.54; for the apportionment for the Social Service Commission, $3,609.83, and for the apportionment for General Missions, $263,314.00.

The Treasurer of the Diocese, therefore, submits the following financial report:

The Rev. C. P. Tinker presented the following report:

REPORT

THE EIGHTY-SECOND ANNUAL REPORT OF THE NEW YORK PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CITY MISSION SOCIETY.

The work of this Society is the chief and continuous answer which our church in New York has made to the challenge of eighty-two years ago, that we were a church of one class, and that the privileged class, and that it did not love the congregation of the poor beyond its walls.

The Society is an agency, but it is more than a venerable machine, although its managers and contributors for eighty-two years constituted the flower of all the city cures, and many of its patrons are now numbered with the saints in light, yet it is a means and not an end in itself. And it stands today, pointing not to its own great bulk, nor its own human quality, however excellent, but to the forsaken and neglected of their fellowmen—the poor, the lame, the halt, the blind; to those who are sick and in prison; and to the stranger and foreigner at the city's gate.

So far as figures can stand for progress, the following table is eloquent of what our workers, clerical and lay, accomplish in a year. The staff numbers are practically unchanged, eighteen clergy, four lay-readers and deaconesses, and forty teachers, visitors, and other lay workers.

November 1, 1912, to November 1, 1913.

Number of places where services are held	34
Number of services	3,449
Holy Communion (public 1,098; private, 2,600)	3,698

Communions made	14,469
Communicants registered	1,120
Baptisms (infants, 1,390; adults, 320)	1,710
Confirmed	70
Marriages	97
Burials	5,361
Sunday-school teachers	33
Sunday-school pupils	770
Industrial School teachers	22
Industrial School pupils	430
Visits made by the staff	341,512

The year now closing has looked out upon a widening field, and beheld a work more extensive and intensive. The superior work done in past administrations was of such nature that no radical change of policy has been found needful. The following are a few evidences of growth during the year:

1. The follow-up work has been put upon a systematic basis in connection with all of our public institutions, involving the addition of four highly trained social workers to our out-door staff, persons not requiring salaries, though giving all the time we ask; moreover, two physicians are volunteering all necessary service to the poor. Thus equipped it is possible for us to respond promptly to all emergency and telephone calls connected with street accidents, prostrations, lost persons, unprotected travelers, sudden deaths, transference to hospitals, conveying women and children from arriving steamers, supplying a Bureau of Information to those ignorant of the ways of a great city filled with possibilities of good and evil.

2. A trained woman has been added to supplement our chaplaincy at Randall's Island, for the purpose of improving the more intelligent and resourceful girls sent there because of epilepsy or skin diseases, and young girls committed by the courts whom the city has snatched from the Great White Way, before it is too late. At other times this same skilled missionary and teacher conducts the Bible work of God's Providence House.

3. The Female Bible Society has assigned an efficient church woman to affiliate with us in connecting convalescents from the hospitals with the city churches.

4. Radical improvement has been made at the City Home for the Aged and Infirm, on Blackwell's Island. The commissioner has opened a new door of progress, formerly closed by the babel of religions and no religions, which in other days carried passes as Protestant Missionaries. To day the Charities Department allows no missionary visitors, except upon the call and nomination of the Protestant, Roman Catholic, or Jewish chaplains. This has made Sunday a Day of Rest for the inmates, and religion on the island feels a new thrill of life and advancement. The system is a simple and responsible one, unlike that of former days when no responsibility could be enforced. That, together with the growing influence of our chaplain and of his competent assistants has doubled the attendance at our chapel services, especially among the women.

5. Provision has been completed for supporting a resident chaplain at the new Seaview Hospital and the Farm Colony on Staten Island, and a popular course of entertainments begun for the old people.

6. On Ward's Island, through the admirable devotion of the City Mission Altar Guild, a comely chapel seating 400 is being erected, and a resident chaplain is now giving all of his time to those insane patients of the hospital capable of improvement.

7. The summer Fresh Air Work has been strengthened by adding a Y. M. C. A. director of physical training of great ability and consecration to take charge of our Boys' Camp. Here six tents have been added to our equipment. A Vacation Cottage for church workers and other working girls has been opened for three summer months on a self-supporting basis. Our faithful friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hull Browning, have, for the twentieth summer, welcomed our smaller children to the lovely Fresh Air House at Tenafly, N. J., while a new house, through the generosity of Mr. and Mrs. W. Hull Browning, was opened to happy little guests at Rye, in parties of fifteen at a time. Most gratefully do we appreciate these two beautiful pieces of work.

8. At St. Barnabas' House a department for young babies, whose mothers may be in hospital or otherwise incapacitated for their care temporarily, has been opened, proving a wonderful success and marking the 50th year of the blessed usefulness of that House.

9. At St. Cyrian's Chapel for colored people a new pipe organ has been installed and certain dignified chancel furniture donated by the Chucrh of the Holy Communion. A printing plant has been introduced, and the Parish House renovated throughout.

10. At the Metropolitan Hospital an assistant chaplain is now regularly at work, giving full time to the patients suffering from tuberculosis and heart disease.

At all centres the authorities give unqualified approval of the work done by our missionaries. The Superintendent wishes to thank heartily all who have aided in this work, and prays that the spirit of brotherhood may be poured upon us all, in which strength we go forth to comfort the sorrowful, stop the careless from ill doing, help the tempted, and win souls for truth and goodness.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES PERLEY TINKER,
Superintendent.

New York, November 12, 1913.

Mr. Edmund L. Baylies presented the following report:

REPORT

OF THE BOARD OF MANAGERS OF THE SEAMEN'S CHURCH INSTITUTE OF NEW YORK.

The Sixty-ninth Annual Report of the Seamen's Church Institute of New York records the most important event in the history of the Society.

On September 15, 1913, the New Institute at No. 25 South Street was opened for the use of the seamen and boatmen of this port. Already it is being largely availed of. Without any attempt to attract men by advertising, the hotel part of the Institute is now taking care of over 300 logders per night, and it is felt that within the course of the next few months the limit of the building in this respect will undoubtedly be reached.

During the past year considerable progress was made towards the increase of the building fund, but there still remains about $180,000 to be raised. The Board of Managers have felt that it was unwise to open the kitchen, dining-room and lunch counter until the building was fully paid for. The building, however, is entirely completed and furnished, and is all in use except the parts above named.

The "Breakwater" in Brooklyn was closed on the day that the new Institute was opened. The rooms occupied by the Society at No. 1 State Street were closed in the latter part of May, 1913, since which time the offices of the superintendent and his assistants have been at No. 25 South Street.

The new building has proved a complete success and justifies the great care and thought that was given to its planning and completion. It has stood admirably the test of use and thus far no mistakes in planning have been discovered. It is admirably suited to take care of the Savings Department and the Baggage Department for the men that frequent the building.

The British Consular Shipping Office has been established in a portion of the basement on South Street, and all crews for British vessels which are engaged or discharged in this port must come to this office in our new building. This alone, apart from other advantages, will tend to make this building a great resort for seafaring men.

During the past year, from November 1, 1912, to November 1, 1913, $134,346.16 have been received by our Savings Department, the largest amount in our history, and of the amount so received $46,249.64 was transmitted to seamen's families and relatives.

On October 12th the new Chapel of Our Saviour, on the Coenties Slip side of the building, was opened and blessed. The Bishop of New York officiating and the sermon being preached by Bishop Nichols of California. The Rev. William T. Manning, of Trinity, read the Lesson, and several others of the clergy were present.

The "Lookout," under the able editorship of Mrs. I. K. Lane, has been increasingly popular and has been most useful in making known the work of the Society and its needs.

The "Sentinel," the boat through which the Harbor work of the Society is carried on, having reached its age limit, an appeal was made a short time ago for a new boat and thanks to the generosity of Mr. Louis Gordon Hamersley a new boat to be named the "J. Hooker Hamersley" in memory of the donor's father, will soon be launched.

On November 1st the Time Ball on the "Titanic" memorial tower was put in operation. The ball falls daily by means of an electric signal given direct from the Naval Observatory in Washington, which releases the ball without the assistance of an intermediary operator. So far as is known, this is the only time ball in this part of the country that is so operated.

On April 15, 1913, the anniversary of the loss of the "Titanic," the lighthouse tower was dedicated with appropriate religious services and an address in the auditorium of the new Institute.

On May 28th, the first public view of the building was given, at which time the colors to be flown on the flagstaff on the building were given to the Institute by Lafayette Post, G. A. R., with an appropriate ceremony.

At the North River Station no Chaplain has yet been appointed, the religious work there having been under the charge of Mr. Mansfield and his assistants and certain lay workers. Two services have been held every Sunday in the Church and certain weekday services.

An effort has been made lately to interest people outside of the City of New York in the work of this Society which is so far reaching in its influence and interest, and we are glad to report that such efforts have been very successful.

Respectfully submitted,

EDMUND L. BAYLIES,
Chairman of the Executive Committee.

The Rev. Dr. Rodgers presented and read the following report:

REPORT

OF THE PRESIDENT OF ST. STEPHEN'S COLLEGE TO THE CONVENTION OF THE DIOCESE OF NEW YORK.

The College opened on Sept. 17th, with a registration of 68 men, of whom 16 are new. Of this number, 32 are financially helped by the Society for the Promotion of Religion and Learning in the State of New York. Three hold College Scholarships. Seven are assisted from the President's Student Aid Fund, and twenty-six are self-supporting. These 68 men come from over 20 Dioceses, and at least 60 are preparing for the Ministry. This student-body is composed of an unusually fine set of men, healthy, robust and earnest. There is a splendid college spirit.

There are two new members of the Faculty, the Reverend A. D. Phœnix, M.A., who comes from Oxford, and is acting as Chaplain and Assistant-Professor of Chemistry. Mr. E. S. Whitten, comes from Amherst and Harvard and is Professor of German and Director of Athletics.

Ludlow and Willinck Hall, formerly the residence of the President, is now occupied by a married Professor and his family, three unmarried Professors and three students. The rooms on the ground floor are used for recitation rooms. A new heating plant is installed and electric lighting.

The President and his family are now occupying the new house built last year, which is very comfortable and convenient.

The College Chapel is now heated by hot water. The interior has been thoroughly cleaned, the walls redecorated, and the seats in the body of the Chapel rearranged so as to accommodate a larger number of students. The Chancel has been refurnished and beautified, the tiling and steps reset, and the Altar enlarged, the result being increased space and greater dignity. The organ has been thoroughly overhauled, enlarged and decorated. These much needed improvements have been made possible to a large extent by the generosity of a churchwoman of this Diocese.

The general equipment and appearance of the buildings and Campus have been greatly improved, but Aspinwall Hall, the first of all the dormitory buildings to be erected, nearly fifty years ago, is getting to be in a very dilapidated condition. We ought not to try to use it as a residence for the students after this year. I am hoping that we may find some friends who will be generous enough to provide for its reconstruction and so make it habitable and capable of housing a larger number of students.

The additional Endowment Fund, started at the time of the Jubilee of the College, four years ago, now amounts to between $6,000 and $7,000. We propose to commence a serious campaign to bring this up to $100,000, which, with our present Endowment of rather less than $100,000, would, indeed, be little enough. We are all hoping that as a result of the splendid emphasis laid at the General Convention on the necessity of religious education and the development of the Church's own Schools and Colleges, St. Stephen's may at length reap the reward of her patience and perseverance and get that recognition and financial support that all who have personal knowledge and experience of what the Institution is doing, believe that she deserves.

The usual Sunday services, a daily celebration of the Holy Communion, daily morning and evening prayer, are maintained in the Chapel. The life of the College may be said to revolve quite naturally and unconsciously around the Chapel Altar and Services. It is to this that we feel we may attribute the manly and earnest character of the men that St. Stephen's is sending out for their work in the Church and Nation.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM CUNNINGHAM RODGERS,
President.

The Rev. Dr. Nichols presented the following report:

REPORT

OF THE DIOCESAN BOARD OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION.

The Board of Religious Education of the Diocese of New York elected at the last Annual Convention hereby renders the report required by Canon.

The Board was duly organized at a meeting held March 12, 1913, by the election of Rev. H. P. Nichols, D.D., as President; Rev. Wm. Walter Smith, M.D., Secretary; Mr. H. H. Pike, Treasurer. By-laws to govern the procedure of the Board were adopted.

In accordance with the recommendation of the General Board and in harmony with its methods, Standing Committees were appointed on Finance, on Sunday School Organization, on Curriculum and Lesson Courses, on Teacher Training and Summer Schools, on Missions and Social Service, on Worship, Music and Art, on Primary and Secondary Schools, on Publicity, on Parents and Home Department. A very valuable report has been rendered by the Committee on Parents and Home Department, three members of the committee, Dr. Currier, Rev. Wm. H. Owen and Mr. Stoughton contributing papers to the report. We hope this report may be printed for wider service.

The relation of the Sunday School Commission to the Board has been carefully considered and they have been declared independent of one another. The Sunday School Commission is appointed publishing agent of the Board. The Board alone is authorized to appeal to the Church in the Diocese for finances. The Board has charge of Teachers' Training Schools. The Commission therefore stands now only for a supply department for religious education. Such a supply department, having in stock all that is desirable for use in religious education, as well as preparing and publishing further material, is an absolutely necessary adjunct not alone to our Diocesan work but to the work of the General Board. In initiating and carrying on such a department the New York Sunday School Commission has an honorable history.

Training School classes are being held in the Diocesan House Fridays during the year, with competent instructors and good attendance. The work this season covers the second year course in training. Extension courses are also being arranged at scattered points throughout the Diocese under the auspices of Archdeacon Hulse. Commencement exercises of the Training School are held in June.

The Board made all the local arrangements for meetings held in connection with the General Convention, and co-operated in every way possible for their success. There were mass meetings, sectional meetings, dinners and luncheons, as well as the entertainment of delegates all carefully prepared for. Through the courtesy of the Rev. Dr. Nelson a contribution of $250.00 was made for the necessary expenses from the funds raised for the General Convention.

This Diocesan Board is auxiliary to the General and Provincial Boards of Religious Education. It must secure money as well for its own work as for the quota looked for from this Diocese toward the work at large. This financial responsibility has not taken the definite shape it deserves, and as found in other great dioceses. Your Board also shares the newly expressed and larger vision of the General Board and desires to co-operate therein in your name.

By the Canon the term of office of the following members expires at this time: The Rev. Dr. Gates, the Rev. Dr. Stires, Mr. Wells and Mr. Walker. The Board suggests as competent and interested men to take the place of these gentlemen, who are not eligible to re-election: Archdeacon Pott, Rev. Theodore Sedgwick, Dean Russell, Mr. Richard Wegener.

The Rev. Dr. Cummins presented the following report:

REPORT

OF THE SOCIAL SERVICE COMMISSION.

The Social Service Commission reports a year of varied activities, the result of which can hardly be tabulated in definite form. There has been distinct progress in the organization of its work. There has been a very apparent awakening on the part of parishes and individuals throughout the Diocese to a keener sense of social obligation. While this may be due in part to the new spirit of social interest which is sweeping over all departments of life, we feel that a certain measure of credit for this, so far as it affects the Church in the Diocese, is due to the efforts of your Commission.

Too much can hardly be said in acknowledgment of the co-operation which we have received from parishes here and there throughout the Diocese. We only regret that this co-operation has not been more general. It is to be deplored that some parishes have failed to encourage our efforts in any way, or to interest themselves in the work committed to us by the Convention.

Specific Activities.

By way of specific activities your Commission would report the establishment of a Speakers' Bureau. A representative list of competent speakers has been compiled and issued in pamphlet form to the clergy and their various organizations. This Bureau has provided parochial organizations with appropriate speakers on thirty-two occasions.

The Lending Library has met a definite need in furnishing the clergy and interested laity with books selected from a carefully prepared and representative list of titles; but we are reluctant to believe that the interest of the clergy and laity in the problems of our modern social order can be fairly measured by the small number of books borrowed from this Library. About fifty applications have been received during the year. In addition to these a large amount of pamphlet literature has been sent to the clergy in response to requests for material for special sermons and addresses.

A Monthly Bulletin has been issued containing appropriate information and helpful suggestions designed to be of practical value to parish workers. This Bulletin has been sent to about five hundred addresses each month, including the clergy, the members of parochial committees on Social Service and other interested leaders.

A large amount of Literature has been distributed. Including a number of pamphlets issued by the Commission and those provided by the Joint Commission and various secular welfare agencies, more than 10,000 pieces of printed matter have been sent out in the past year. Applications for literature are constantly received from all parts of the country. In co-operation with the Church Mission of Help, a series of five pamphlets has been prepared dealing with various important phases of the sex problem. These pamphlets have been received with much appreciation.

Various Form Letters have been sent out from time to time, bringing to the attention of the clergy and parish workers several matters of current importance. These letters have served to stimulate a wide range of interest, in matters of city and state legislation, and in the efforts of various welfare agencies; and have led to a large amount of more personal correspondence.

We have been able on numerous occasions to enter into helpful co-operation with various secular agencies concerned with social welfare. We have co-operated with the Tuberculosis Committee of the Charity Organization Society in promoting interest in the Red Cross Christmas Seal. The Commission, through its secretary, has also been able to co-operate with various neighborhood associations in the city, including the associations in the Gramercy, Chelsea and Kip's Bay districts. The question of motion-picture regulation, the preservation of the match ordinance, recreation and the development of social centres are among the matters which have actively engaged the attention of the Commission. We have kept in close contact with the joint Commission on Social Service, with the Church Mission of Help, and the Church Association for the Advancement of the Interests of Labor, endeavoring to co-ordinate our efforts with theirs in every way that might make for efficiency of organization and the elimination of useless duplication of effort.

In response to our appeal to the clergy for the observance of the Sunday before Labor Day as Labor Sunday, seventy-seven replies were received. Thirty-one parishes within the city and thirty-seven outside observed the day in some appropriate manner, the Cathedral and many important parishes being included in this number. In view of the fact that Labor Sunday came at a time when parochial actvities were, for the most part, suspended for the summer, this is a most gratifying showing, Legislation.

Your Commission has been actively concerned during the past year with several legislative measures of large social importance. Vigorous support was given to the enactment of the several factory laws introduced by the Factory Investigating Commission of the State Legislature, to the bill providing for "One Day of Rest in Seven," to the "Arson" bills urged by the New York Fire Commission, and to the "Child Labor" bills—all of which were favorably acted upon. We also joined in the opposition to the recommendations urged by the Governor's Investigating Committee which called for serious reductions in the appropriations for the splendid work at Bedford, Letchworth Village, and the State Farm for Vagrants.

The Executive Secretary, in co-operation with the secretaries of the Committee of Fourteen, the Laity League of the New York Federation of Churches and the East Side Neighborhood Association, met weekly during the legislative session to examine and consult about various legislative measures as they were introduced. Competent information was sought as to the merit of these measures; and where the occasion justified, this information was communicated to the various parochial committees and the clergy.

The Executive Secretary and members of the Commission have attended several hearings in the legislative and executive chambers at Albany, and before the Board of Aldermen and the Mayor of New York.

Social Service in the Second Department.

Following upon the efforts of the Executive Secretary, co-operating with the secretary of the Newark Commission, a Social Service Conference was held in connection with the Annual Council of the Second Missionary Department at Buffalo. The Council formally voted to petition the Joint Commission to memorialize General Convention for the incorporation of Social Service as a regular feature of the departmental Councils. In the arrangement authorized by the Buffalo Council for a Departmental Summer Conference, Social Service was given an equal place with Missions and Religious Education. This Summer Conference, which was held last July at the Cathedral Close, was an unqualified success, a representative delegation of more than two hundred being enrolled. Social Service had an important place in the programme. The Conference will probably be made a regular feature of the work of the Department.

The Equipment of Young People for Marriage.

The Church's admonition that matrimony is not to be entered into "unadvisedly or lightly, but reverently, discreetly, advisedly, soberly and in the fear of God," involves for the Church an obligation which has not received the measure of attention which modern condtions seem to require. It was in view of this fact that a communication dealing with this subject from Mr. R. Fulton Cutting was issued in pamphlet form and placed in the hands of the clergy, the heads of schools and the parochial committees, with a request for an expression of opinion under six suggested heads. It was late in the season when this pamphlet was distributed and the number of replies was probably smaller than it might otherwise have been. A very representative number of the clergy and lay workers responded, however, affording, we believe, a composite judgment of very considerable weight.

The questions upon which an expression of opinion was requested were as follows:

1. What can the parish do to encourage its young people to look forward to marriage with greater reverence and desire?

A wide variety of answers were received. Appropriate sermons and addresses, instructions to parents and to segregated groups of boys and girls, special lectures to the higher grades in the Sunday-schools, talks to Confirmation classes, the Girls' Friendly and Boys' Clubs were some of the recommendations submitted.

2. What can the parish do to equip young people for the responsibilities and duties of married life?

It seemed to be the very general opinion that where the public schools made no adequate provision, the parish should devise some means of imparting instruction in domestic economy. There seemed to be a consensus of opinion that a larger measure of instruction was needed in matters pertaining to social purity—at the hands of parents where possible, by the Church in cases for which no other provision could be made.

3. What can the parish do to kindle in boys a proper chivalry toward women?

Nearly all those making reply agreed that such organizations as the Knights of King Arthur, the Boy Scouts and similar institutions which lay emphasis upon the development of manly qualities, afford the most practical means for the encouragement of chivalry. A great many felt that the fundamental need was for some means whereby young womanhood might be made more worthy of chivalry.

4. Can the parish safely undertake to bring young people together with a view of encouraging matrimony? If so, how?

Judgment seemed to be divided on this question, although an overwhelming majority held that it was safe and competent for the parish to bring young people together under conditions favorable to the encouragement of marriage, provided its efforts were confined to the promotion, under proper supervision, of wholesome social intercourse. Parish dances, dramatics and debating societies were regarded by many as of special value in this connection.

5. Could specially prepared literature, with a proper religious tone, be of advantage in dealing with this matter if used with discrimination? If so, what particular points should this literature seek to cover?

Here again judgment was divided, with by far the greater number of the opinion that proper literature would be useful. This literature should set forth Christian ideals of marriage, sex instruction, material which would be useful to parents in the instruction of their children, the purity of love and the responsibilities of parenthood.

6. What in general is your feeling about Mr. Cutting's recommendations?

There was almost unanimous agreement in the opinion that Mr. Cutting's recommendations were wise and urgent and constituted an obligation which the Church could ill afford to ignore.

Perhaps the most significant expressions of mind were those received from the heads of schools, many such manifesting deep interest in the communication. One writes:

> "We make special effort to meet these problems, first, by dealing with the individual pupil, talking frankly in regard to sex matters as opportunity or occasions in their own lives and experience arise; and secondly, by maintaining in all public instructions and admonitions an uncompromising attitude in relation to the question of the stability of the marriage tie. I have heard it said, and our experience confirms the fact, that the children of divorced parents are more likely than others to regard divorce as a normal part of the scheme of life. A generation has already grown up amongst whom divorce and remarriage has been a fairly common practice ever since they can remember anything. Church people and Church educators have before them the problem of creating a new conscience in this matter in the rising generation."

An executive official of the American Federation for Sex Hygiene adds:

> "It seems to me that the religious, moral and ethical training of the child is partial and incomplete unless it sets up for the child a pure and noble ideal of sex and sex relations. I do not advocate sex instruction as such for classes of young boys and girls. I do, however, feel that the churches should see to it that their children individually do receive such instruction. If we can persuade and train the parents to give it wisely, we need go no farther; but where this cannot be done, is it not fair for the Church to expect its workers, either lay or from among the clergy, to undertake the task?"

The rector of an important city parish suggests that a conference of the clergy be held where these problems could be thoroughly discussed, and the various expressions of opinion recorded and compiled. The Commission believes that such a conference would be of great value, and hopes that it may be able to arrange such a conference during the coming year.

Excise Conditions.

Two years ago the Convention adopted a resolution denouncing the evils of the saloon and referred that resolution to the Commission "to report ways and means effectively to fight against these social evils."

Last year your Commissioner reported, among other things, the failure of the State Excise Commissioner adequately to enforce the police provisions of the Liquor Tax Law. The gist of its report was that whereas the Liquor Tax Law of this State (a so-called High License system) is by the decision of the highest court of this state primarily a police law, to regulate and control a dangerous traffic, and whereas this law and the taxes levied under the same, under the form of licenses, were declared by the court to be constitutional only as a police measure to control and regulate this dangerous traffic, nevertheless that law is actually administered by the State Commissioner of Excise primarily as a revenue measure. In fact, a revenue of some $18,000,000 is derived annually from the sale of licenses to sell liquor, the terms of which licenses are persistently violated because the State makes no proper effort to enforce the police provision of the law.

As a result of this report, a resolution was adopted by the last Convention requesting the Social Service Commission "to bring to the attention of the Commissioner of Excise and the Governor of the State of New York the strictures and recommendations contained in its report with regard to the State Liquor Tax Law and its inefficient administration, with a view to necessary amendments being presented to the Legislature or other action taken to compel a proper enforcement of the law."

Your Commission communicated with the Governor and the State Excise Commissioner as directed, co-operating with other societies and agencies in the attempt to secure an efficient and honest administration of the law by the State authorities. The Commissioner of Excise in part tried to escape from his responsibility to enforce the law by complaining that local police authorities did not fulfill their obligations; in part, he excused his failure to enforce it on the ground of lack of sufficient agents, he having only sixty inspectors to police the whole state. The Commission, in conjunction with the other societies and agencies already referred to, urged the Commissioner to report his needs and urge upon the Legislature the passage of a bill to increase his inspectors to such a number as his expreience proved would be necessary properly to police the traffic in the State. Your Committee also joined with others in urging the Governor to approve such legislation, pointing out that at the present moment that department of the State government now collects almost half a million dollars annually, which should properly and by the analogy of other departments be used in administrative expenses, but which are now, in fact, turned in as part of the ordinary revenue of the department, increasing that amount to about $18,500,000. By the use of a part of this the expenses of the necessary increase of inspectors, and also of a material strengthening of the legal equipment of the department to render it more effective, could be met without in reality involving the State in any increased expense. Unfortunately, the Governor and his advisers were at that time concerning themselves more with economies than with moral questions or methods of efficiency, and the Commission's urgency fell on deaf ears. The attitude of the Governor naturally discouraged the Commissioner of Excise. He did, indeed, cause a law to be introduced in the Legislature to increase the number of his agents or inspectors from 60 to 120; but some of the provisions of the proposed law seemed objectionable to those who had urged the reforms and alienated their support; the Commissioner of Excise made no effort to secure its passage and nothing was accomplished.

To-day the Liquor Tax Law is violated openly and persistently throughout the State. The State sells licenses to dispense liquor, deriving an enormous revenue from the same, but takes no effective steps to compel the licensees to observe the terms on which their licenses are issued, and for violation of which their licenses are revocable on application to a Judge of the Supreme Court by the Commissioner of Excise.

The condition is a shameful one, the State raising revenue by peddling licenses to sell liquor, nominally under very stringent conditions to prevent abuse of that privilege, which conditions, however, are not enforced by the constituted State authorities, so that in reality the State sells the liquor dealers permission to dispense liquor at all hours on all days, and in other ways to violate the nominal provisions of the law. It is primarily the State authorities and not the local police with whom the responsibility for the conditions of graft and lawlessness connected with the sale of liquor rests. Therefore be it

Resolved, That by order of this Convention a copy of this report be sent to the Governor of the State and the Commissioner of Excise.

That this Convention do demand of the Commissioner of Excise obedience to the law and a sincere and honest attempt to enforce the provisions of the Liquor Tax Law as a police measure; and that the Commissioner do use due diligence to cause places licensed to sell liquor to be properly inspected by his agents, that the licenses of those violating the terms of their licenses may be revoked.

That this Convention call upon the Governor of this State to use his authority to cause the Commissioner of Excise to enforce the law intelligently and honestly; and in case of his failure to do so to take steps to remove him from office.

That this Convention urge upon the Legislature of the State of New York to enact proper legislation to provide the Commissioner of Excise with a sufficient force of inspectors and sufficient legal assistance to enforce the Liquor Tax Law effectively and honestly as a police measure, according to the interpretation of the intent and validity of that law by the highest court of this State, the expense of which provision for the enforcement of the law should, in the judgment of this Convention, properly be a first lien upon the moneys now derived under this law from fines and penalties, these being at the present certainly more than sufficient to provide for the entire administration of the Excise Department.

Health Certificate for Marriage.

At the last session of the legislature a bill was introduced by Senator Duhamel amending the Domestic Relations Law so as to provide that no license to marry shall be issued unless each party to the contract shall present a certificate, signed by a reputable physician, showing that the applicants are not afflicted with any venereal disease. The Commission felt that, while the bill was crude and unsatisfactory, it dealt with a matter which was of direct concern to the Church. Copies of the bill were sent to the clergy and parochial committees with a request for an expression of opinion as to its merits. A large percentage of replies were received showing that a majority believed that the matter was one requiring some legislative regulation. A great many felt that the provisions of the Duhamel bill were practical and desirable. Many modifications, however, were suggested. In answer to our request for suggestions as to methods of dealing with the conditions which the Duhamel bill sought to regulate, many of the clergy urged more adequate provision for the education of the young in matters of sex. Many of the representative leaders of the diocese urged the adoption at our own Cathedral of the marriage regulations now in force at the Chicago Cathedral.

In recognition of these many requests, the Commission by formal resolution appealed to the Cathedral authorities for the establishment at the Cathedral of some such regulations requiring a health certificate for marriage as are now in force at the Chicago Cathedral. While individual members of the Cathedral staff have expressed sympathy with this proposition, no official action has yet been taken upon our request.

Parochial Committees.

Nothing which the Commission has attempted is of more importance to the work which it has undertaken than the formation within the individual parishes of local Committees on Social Service. Nominally seventy-six parishes already have such committees. Not all of them are as active as they ought to be. The number includes, however, committees in some of the most representative and influential parishes of the Diocese, where valuable results have been achieved in bringing the parochial interest and strength to bear upon community problems, and in arousing the parochial constituency to a more adequate and intelligent sense of social responsibility.

The parochial committee, in the judgment of your Commission, offers the most practical and effective instrument through which to work out its task. The efforts of the Commission would be greatly facilitated if the Convention would commend to the heads of parishes the appointment of such committees.

The nature and composition of these committees can best be determined by local conditions and community needs. Under ordinary conditions a committee of six or eight, comprising both men and women, will be found most practical and effective. In some cases, it may be wiser to provide for the designation of a committee from the membership of the Men's organizations of the parish, which shall serve as a standing committee on social service, instructed to report at regular intervals to the main organization. This would serve to bring the larger parish group into direct contact with the work and yet delegate responsibility to the more accountable few. In some parishes it may be found desirable to constitute the heads of the various parochial organizations as the Social Service Committee. Thus the superintendent of the Sunday-school, the president of the Boys' Club and of the Men's Club, the head of the Girls' Friendly and of the Women's Guild can be related to a common task which would serve both to correlate the activities of their respective organizations and relate those activities to some general and constructive programme for community betterment.

It would be the function of this committee to represent the parish in all matters pertaining to the social improvement of the community. It should acquaint itself with neighborhood conditions, housing, schools, streets, recreations, saloons and dance halls, sanitation, etc., reporting back to the parish whenever specific needs are disclosed, and speaking for the parish when the influence of the parish should be exerted for improvement or in commendation and support of the efforts of public officials. This committee would also stand as a most effective point of contact with the Diocesan Commission, and with other parishes. It is with the co-operation of such committees that the Commission could work most effectively to acquaint the people of the churches with those important legislative measures which should claim the interest and support of Christian people. Any programme of education or agitation would be most effectively carried out through the instrumentality of such representative local groups.

The Commission desires, and is equipped, to organize and utilize such committees. Our year's experience convinces us that the most responsible people of the parishes are ready to give of their service. The great need is that the clergy should appreciate the possibilties of constructive service which these local committees represent, and give their sanction and support. We beg to urge upon the clergy that this does not mean the creation of "another organization" or the multiplication of parochial institutions. Rather must it be regarded as a means whereby existing organizations and institutions may be more effectively related to the great common task of Christianity.

Executive Secretary's Engagements.

During the year the Executive Secretary has delivered ninety-eight sermons and addresses dealing with various phases of the Commission's work. This includes addresses at seven mass meetings, eleven public dinners and four hearings. Visits have been made and addresses delivered at Sing Sing Prison, the New York Workhouse, the Almshouse and the City Hospital on Blackwell's Island. In addition, the Secretary has attended numerous committee meetings of various kinds, and has been recognized as a representative of the Church by membership upon numerous committees and organizations occupied with social work.

A Resolution.

WHEREAS the Social Service Commission of the Diocese appeals to the Convention to urge upon the rectors of parishes the appointment of parochial committees on social service; be it

Resolved, That the Convention commends to the earnest consideration of the rectors of parishes that part of the Commission's report which deals with the subject of such local committes, and urges that wherever possible such committees be appointed, and instructed to co-operate with the Diocesan Commission; and that such local committees seek to promote those interests which have to do with the social betterment of their respective communities.

The Rev. Mr. Kimber presented and read the following report:

REPORT

COMMITTEE ON THE GENERAL THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

The Committee on the General Theological Seminary begs leave to report that the plan of reorganization of the Board of Trustees of the General Theological Seminary, heretofore presented to this Convention by the Committee, has been adopted by concurrent action of the Board of Trustees of the Seminary and the General Convention of the Church, and, therefore, the Board will, after January 1, 1914, be made up of the Presiding Bishop of the Church, the Bishop of the Diocese in which the Seminary is located, the Dean of the Seminary, ten Bishops chosen by the House of Bishops, ten presbyters and ten laymen chosen by the House of Deputies of the General Convention, and three bishops, three presbyters and three laymen chosen by the Alumni of the Seminary.

This arrangement, it will readily be seen, relieves this Convention of the duty of electing Trustees of the General Theological Seminary, and, furthermore, takes away from your Committee its chief reason for existence. Your Committee, therefore, presents the following resolutions:

Resolved. That this Diocesan Convention, in behalf of the Diocese of New York, accepts and acquiesces in the amendments to the Constitution of the General Theological Seminary adopted by the concurrent vote of the Board of Trustees in May, 1913, and of the General Convention in October, 1913, and, accordingly, it surrenders all right to appoint Trustees of the Seminary.

Resolved, That, as the reorganization of the Board of Trustees of the General Theological Seminary does away with the chief reason for the appointment by this Convention of a Committee on the General Theological Seminary, this Committee be discontinued, and that, to effect this end, the Rules of Order be changed by rescinding Rule V, Section 3 (d), and renumbering the succeeding sub-sections of this Rule in accordance with this change.

Respectfully submitted,

William F. Lewis,
Francis Lynde Stetson,
Robert B. Kimber,
William R. Peters,
Lawrence T. Cole,
Charles F. Hoffman,
William T. Crocker,
Edmund L. Baylies,
Committee.

Mr. Kimber moved the resolutions appended to the report and they were adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Gates presented the following report:

REPORT

OF THE NEW YORK TRAINING SCHOOL FOR DEACONESSES.

There comes first to our mind, in writing a report of the school this autumn, the death of Deaconess Elizabeth M. Deane, the first graduate of this school to become a missionary. Miss Deane graduated in 1897 and was set apart in the Church Missions House in the early summer of the same year. A few days after the service she started for Alaska, where she served the Church faithfully in Circle City, in Valdez and later in Chena. In 1911 she resigned her work in Alaska, feeling the infirmities of approaching old age, and undertook work in South Carolina. This she resigned last spring and in July, after a brief illness she died. Her name will always stand, in the annals of the school, as that of our pioneer missionary, and we, who rejoice in the strong missionary zeal of the household, shall always be grateful to her for having set the example.

The school opened on Wednesday the first of October and was well under way when the Convention opened the following week. The present household consists of three graduates who have returned for special work, of Deaconess Lovell, who has returned to complete the work for her diploma, interrupted by illness, of five seniors, fifteen juniors and five special students.

The department in the School, which provides studies and practical work in preparation for Social Service has been augmented by the appointment to the faculty of the Rev. Prof. Boynton of the General Theological Seminary, the Rev. Charles K. Gilbert of the Social Service Commission, and Mrs. John M. Glenn of the Central Committee of the Charity Organization Society. Prof. Boynton gives a course in Psychology and Sunday School Pedagogy; Mr. Gilbert and Mrs. Glenn will give lectures and arrange courses on sociological subjects and help in the direction of the practical work of the students. A minimum of eight hours a week is devoted to sociological and kindred work.

Mr. Stephen Baker, on behalf of the Committee on Diocesan Finances, offered the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the Committee on Diocesan Finances recommends the appropriation by the Convention of the sum of seventeen thousand dollars ($17,000) for the Episcopal Fund for the Convention year 1913-14.

Which was adopted.

Resolved, That the Committee on Diocesan Finances recommends the appropriation by the Convention of the sum of six thousand dollars ($6,000) for the Diocesan Fund for the Convention year 1913-14.

Which was adopted.

Resolved, That the Committee on Diocesan Finances recommends the appropriation by the Convention of the sum of three hundred and eighty ($380) for the work of the Diocesan Missionary Committee to be paid out of the Diocesan Fund.

Which was adopted.

And the Chair declared that Mr. Alexander M. Hadden having received a concurrent majority of both orders was duly elected a member of the Diocesan Board of Religious Education.

The Chair declared a recess until two o'clock.

The Convention reassembled at two o'clock.

The Bishop of the Diocese read his annual address.

The Rev. Mr. Taylor offerred the following resolution:

Resolved, That a committee be appointed by the Bishop, thoroughly to review what is being done and what may be done with regard to carrying the message of our Lord Jesus Christ to the foreign born peoples in this City and Diocese, and to report to the next Convention.

Which was made the order of the day after the reading of the minutes on Thursday.

The Rev. Mr. Gilbert offered the following resolution:

Whereas, The Social Service Commission of the Diocese appeals to the Convention to urge upon the rectors of parishes the appointment of parochial committees on social service; be it

Resolved, That the Convention commends to the earnest consideration of the rectors of parishes that part of the Commission's report which deals with the subject of such local committees, and urges that wherever possible such committees be appointed, and instructed to co-operate with the Diocesan Commission; and that such local committees seek to promote those interests which have to do with the social betterment of their respective communities.

Which was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Peters offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That by order of this Convention a copy of this report be sent to the Governor of the State and the Commissioner of Excise.

That this Convention do demand of the Commissioner of Excise obedience to the law and a sincere and honest attempt to enforce the provisions of the Liquor Tax Law as a police measure; and that the Commissioner do use due diligence to cause places licensed to sell liquor to be properly inspected by his agents, that the licenses of those violating the terms of their licenses may be revoked.

That this Convention call upon the Governor of this State to use his authority to cause the Commissioner of Excise to enforce the law intelligently and honestly; and in case of his failure to do so to take steps to remove him from office.

That this Convention urge upon the Legislature of the State of New York to enact proper legislation to provide the Commissioner of Excise with a sufficient force of inspectors and sufficient legal assistance to enforce the Liquor Tax Law effectively and honestly as a police measure, according to the interpretation of the intent and validity of that law by the highest court of this State, the expense of which provision for the enforcement of the law should, in the judgment of this Convention, properly be a first lien upon the moneys now derived under this law from fines and penalties, these being at the present certainly more than sufficient to provide for the entire administration of the Excise Department.

Which was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Cummins nominated the Rev. Ernest M. Stires, D.D. and Mr. Ogden Livingston Mills, Jr., as members of the Social Service Commission to serve until November, 1917.

The Rev. Mr. Smithers nominated the Rev. I. St. George Tucker.

The Rev. Dr. Cummins moved that the Secretary be directed to cast one ballot for Mr. Mills; which was adopted.

The Secretary cast the ballot and the Chair declared Mr. Ogden Livingston Mills, Jr., to be duly elected.

A ballot was taken to fill the Clerical vacancy with the following result:

Mr. Francis Lynde Stetson, in behalf of the Committee on Canons, presented and read the following report:

The Committee recommends the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That fulfilling the condition imposed by the proviso to Article VII of the Constitution of this Church, the Diocese of New York hereby consents to be included in the Second Province, consisting of the Diocese within the States of New York and New Jersey and the Missionary District of Porto Rico, pursuant to the canon of the General Convention adopted in October, 1913.

Which was adopted.

Resolved, That in the Primary Synod and in every subsequent Synod of the Second Province, the Diocese of New York shall be represented by four clerical deputies and four lay deputies, to be chosen by the Diocesan Convention, or in case of vacancy by the ecclesiastical authority of the Diocese. Unless otherwise ordered by the Diocesan Convention the surviving and continuing deputies to the Missionary Council, for and according to the periods of their election thereto, shall serve as deputies to the Primary Synod and the Synod for and during the periods for which they have been elected to the Missionary Council. Any vacancy existing or arising during or between sessions of the Diocesan Convention and not filled by action of the Convention shall be filled by appointment by the ecclesiastical authority of the Dioecse, the term of office under any such appointment to expire at the close of the succeeding Diocesan Convention.

Which was adopted.

Resolved, That the following Canon be adopted, to be numbered XIII, to follow the present Canon XII, and that the subsequent Canons be renumbered according:

CANON XIII.

Of Deputies to the Provincial Synod.

SEC. 1. The Convention at each annual meeting shall elect by ballot one clergyman and one layman to act as Deputies from this Diocese to the Provincial Synod of the Second Province. It shall elect also by ballot two clergymen and two laymen as Provisional Deputies to serve as provided by Canon in case of absence or inability, either temporary or permanent, of any Deputy. Such Deputies and Provisional Deputies shall hold their respective positions for the period of four years and until their several successors are elected and shall be Deputies or Provisional Deputies for any Provincial Synod which may be held during their continuance in office, provided that the surviving and continuing deputies to the Missionary Council during the periods for which they were severally appointed shall continue to be deputies to the Provincial Synod.

SEC. 2. Any and all vacancies existing or occurring in the office of Deputy to the Provincial Synod shall be filled in the same manner, by like authority and for the like periods as in these Canons prescribed for filling vacancies in the office of Deputy to the General Convention.

Which was adopted.

Resolved, That Canon XI, entitled "Concerning Elections," be and the same hereby is amended by striking out the words "Deputies to the Missionary Council of the Second Department" wherever they occur and by substituting therefor the words "Deputies and Provisional Deputies to the Provincial Synod of the Second Province."

Which was adopted.

Resolved, That Rule of Order V. 7, be and hereby the same is amended by striking out the words "to the Missionary Council of the Second Department" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "and Provisional Deputies to the Provincial Synod of the Second Province"; and by striking out the words " to the General Convention" in the line next to the last of said subsection 7.

Which was adopted.

Mr. John K. Sague offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That a Committee of twenty-five be appointed by the Bishop to present the resolutions of the Social Service Commission regarding the enforcement of the Excise Law to the Governor of this State and the State Commissioner of Excise.

Which was adopted.

Mr. George Zabriskie, in behalf of the Committee on Canons, presented and read the following report:

The Committee on Canons respectfully report, in relation to certain proposed amendments of the Canons which were referred to them by the Convention of 1912, as follows:

First. Amendment proposed by the Rev. Dr. Cummins that Canon XVI [now XVIII, being the Canon entitled "Committee on Diocesan Finances"] Section 2 (1) be amended to read: "The assessment for the objects named in Section 1 (paragraph 4) shall be based upon the current income of each parish, mission or congregation, as shown by its annual report."

The objects named in Section 1 (paragraph 4) are the Episcopal Fund, the Diocesan Fund, and Diocesan Missions; and the proposed amendment would substitute "current income" for "current expenses," as the basis of the assessment.

The Committee reported to the Convention of 1912 that, in their opinion, it was inexpedient to amend the Canon in the manner proposed, and moved that they be discharged from further consideration of the question. The Rev. Dr. Gates moved as a substitute that the proposed amendment be referred back to the Committee for further consideration and report at the next Convention.

The Canon at present provides that the assessment for the objects mentioned shall be based upon current expenses as categorically defined in the Canon. It is proposed to substitute current income for current expenses, as so defined, as the basis of assessment. This subject has heretofore been very carefully considered and debated in the Convention, and the opinion of the Convention has been that current expenses as defined by the Canon provide a much juster and fairer basis of assessment for all the parishes than current income would; and the Committee are in accord with that view. An important reason for taking the expenses rather than the income as the basis of assessment was thought to lie in the fact that a large part of the income of some parishes in one year or another consists of gifts for special objects; and such gifts do not represent any increased power to contribute toward the maintenance of the Diocese.

The Committee are still of the opinion that it is inexpedient to amend the Canon in the manner proposed.

The Rev. Dr. Gates moved that the Committee be discharged from further consideration of the subject, which was adopted.

Second. The Committee on Diocesan Finances recommended that the Canons of the Diocese be amended so as to provide that whenever the Convention shall vote on matters of financial appropriation or apportionment the unit rule shall be applied to the Clergy as well as to the laity, and that this matter be referred to the Committee on Canons to report to the next Convention; which was done.

The "unit rule" probably refers to the Article VII of the Constitution, which is to the effect that when votes are taken by orders the lay delegates of each church shall be entitled to one vote (excepting the case of Trinity parish). The same Article requires that in any case a vote by orders may be required by five members. Unless so required the concurrence of a majority of the clerical and lay members voting shall constitute a vote. The proposal of the Committee on Diocesan Finances involves an amendment of the Constitution. Such an amendment would be superfluous under our present Canons, as regards apportionment, because the Convention has nothing to do with that subject; which is committed entirely to the Treasurer of the Diocese acting under the direction of the Committee on Diocesan Finances [Canon XVIII, Sec. 1 (4) and (5)]. No opportunity could be found for such a vote as is proposed without reconstructing the last-mentioned Canon. With respect to appropriations, the proposal could not be carried out literally, because the unit rule applies only to lay representatives, while the clergy are not, strictly speaking, representatives of parishes in any case. They are members of the Convention and vote because they are canonically resident in the Diocese and hold one or more of the titles enumerated in Article III of the Constitution; and such an arrangement would disfranchise a large part of the clergy. At least sixty-five of the clergy whose names are printed in the list of Parochial Clergy and Lay Delegates in the Journal of 1912 would have no independent personal votes. If the principle were extended to the clergy connected with the Cathedral, the General Seminary, St. Stephen's College, the City Mission Society, and to some others, the number would be much larger. One result would be that all the clergy of Grace, or St. George's, or St. Bartholomew's, respectively, would have no larger influence as voters than the single missionary in charge of a mission station; and the three (or possibly four) votes of Trinity's twenty-two clergy would be balanced by the same number (three or four) of the smallest parishes in the Diocese. The chaplain of the Home for Aged and Indigent Females would have the same voting power as the six clergy of St. Bartholomew's. The fact is, as before stated, that the clergy vote because they are clergymen, and not because they are representatives of parishes.

The Committee therefore are of the opinion that the proposed amendment should not be approved; and they ask that they may be discharged from further consideration of the question.

Which was adopted.

Third. The following resolution was offered by Dr. Otis:

"Resolved, That in all elections the unit rule be adopted for the Clergy, each parish casting one clerical vote; that the nominee or nominees receiving a plurality of votes cast be declared elected;" and was referred to the Committee on Canons to report at the next convention.

For the reasons already stated in the report of this Committee upon the recommendation of the Committee on Diocesan Finances, the Committee are of the opinion that the resolution proposed by Dr. Otis should not be adopted; and they ask that they may be discharged from further consideration of the question.

Which was adopted.

Fourth. Amendment of Canon IX (now XI), proposed by the Rev. Dr. Douglas, as follows:

"One month previous to the annual Convention of this Diocese the Secretary shall send to all persons and parishes entitled to vote in this convention, a list of all offices to be filled by election at the ensuing convention, and the Secretary shall request nominations for such offices."

Under Canon I the list of ministers canonically resident in the Diocese and their cures or other employment is to be made within one week before the meeting of the Convention. The same list must necessarily serve as the basis for the list of clergymen entitled to seats in the Convention, which is to be prepared by the Bishop under Canon II, sec. 1. The list of lay delegates is to be made up by the Secretary from their certificates of election (Canon II, sec. 10); but whether they are entitled to sit and vote depends upon the validity of their certificates [ibid. sec. 7 (IV.)] and this is not determined until the Committee on Credentials report to the Convention (ibid. sec. 14).

However, the Committee believe that the purposes of the Rev. Dr. Douglas' proposed amendment can be accomplished by a change in its wording which will avoid the difficulties above mentioned; and the Committee therefore recommend the adoption of the proposed amendment in the following form:

"Within one week before the meeting of the annual Convention of this Diocese, the Secretary shall send to all the clergy entitled to vote in such convention, for their information and for the information of the lay delegates, a list of all offices to be filled by election at such convention, and the Secretary shall request nominations for such offices; and that it be inserted in Canon XI as a new section, to be numbered 2; and that the present sections 2 and 3 be renumbered accordingly."

Which was adopted.

Fifth. The Convention of 1911 referred to the Committee on Canons an amendment of Canon XII (now XIII), proposed by the Rev. Dr. Peters, as follows:

"The Standing Committee shall make to the Diocesan Convention annually a report of its acts."

The Committee presented to the Convention of 1912 its report upon the proposed amendment. The Convention voted that the report of the Committee be printed and distributed among the members and made subject of special consideration at the next Convention.

Subsequently, at the Convention of 1912, the following amendment of Canon XII (now XIII), proposed by Mr. John Brooks Leavitt, was referred to the Committee on Canons, viz.:

"Resolved, That Canon XII be amended by adding a new section as follows:

"Sec. 6. The Standing Committee shall annually report to the Convention such of its proceedings as do not pertain to the exercise of its functions as a council of advice to the Bishop."

The recommend that the form of this proposed amendment be changed so that it shall read as follows, and that as so changed it be adopted, viz.:

"Sec. 6. The Standing Committee shall annually report to the Convention for its information such of its completed official acts as do not pertain to the exercise of its functions as a council of advice to the Bishop."

Which was adopted.

The Committee recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That all motions and resolutions for reference to Committees be introduced in completed form for adoption and that the names of the movers be appended thereto.

Which was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Manning offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That with each resolution or motion placed upon the Calendar, the Secretary shall print the name of the person offering such resolution or motion.

Which was adopted.

Mr. George Zabriskie, in behalf of the special Committee on the Incorporation of the Diocese, presented and read the following report:

To the Convention of the Diocese of New York:

At the Convention held in 1912 a resolution was proposed in these terms: "That the Diocese of New York be incorporated." It was referred to the undersigned as a Special Committee for consideration and report.

Your committee, having considered the subject, respectfully report:

The object of incorporation is to enable the associated members to perform as one legal person certain civil acts which otherwise they could not thus do. These, in the main, are:

a. To have perpetual succession; that is, changes in membership do not affect the continuous corporate personality;

b. To enter, as such legal person, into contracts;

c. To hold, as well as to take and to transfer, real and personal property;

d. To sue and be sued for enforcement of rights or for the redress of wrongs.

The subject proposed to be incorporated, the Diocese of New York, is the aggregate of all the natural persons in communion with the Bishop of New York and subject to his spiritual authority as their chief pastor. This body of persons, united for spiritual purposes, do not appear to need the attributes of a body corporate.

For spiritual purposes the continuity of the Diocese is not dependent upon civil sanction. Each person who comes into the requisite relations with the Bishop becomes ipso facto a member of the Diocese.

The aggregation of persons who make up the Diocese neither do, nor have occasion to, make contracts, nor take, hold, or transfer property.

They have no need to resort to litigation.

The civil business incident to the spiritual work of the Church, involving contracts and property, has been carried on hitherto with manifest convenience, by the trustees of various funds and by certain incorporated societies, and by the parochial corporations who hold most of the Church property within the Diocesan area. The trustees of Diocesan funds and the incorporated Diocesan Societies are subject to the control of the Diocesan Convention, which is not less effective because it is largely moral than it would be if legally coercive. They are all animated by a desire not only to do the best for the work of the Church, but also to carry out the wishes of Convention whenever expressed. The Convention has plainly shown its purpose to exercise the slightest possible compulsion upon such trustees and societies, as well as upon its committees, by electing their members for terms of office lasting for several years and by so classifying their membership that only a small proportion of their members are elected annually. At meetings of the Convention the secular business involved in the reports of such trustees or societies or committees is despatched with all possible rapidity. In so far as they relate to matters of contract or of property they are commonly accepted without actual reading. By these and other indications the Convention clearly shows itself impatient of temporal business and preoccupied with the spiritual concerns that properly belong to it.

If, however, the Diocese were incorporated, either the incorporation would be put to no use, or else the corporate business would devolve upon the Diocesan Convention.

If no use were made of it there would be no motive for incorporating.

If, on the other hand, the Diocese, as a corporation, undertook to manage the business now carried on for its benefit by trustees or incorporated societies, it could not manage it by general meetings of the members of the Diocese; such meetings are obviously impossible. The Convention would have to act for the Diocese as a board of directors acts for any other corporation. To such a plan there are at least three objections. In the first place, as already intimated, the Convention is not disposed to do it. In the second place, the Convention could not, if it would, do it efficiently: to manage the various properties held at present by the trustees and societies whose reports appear in the Convention Journal would require frequent meetings, constant attention, and a wholly unreasonable encroachment upon the time of its members, with the result that, after all, the business would not be done well by so large a body. In the third place, it is not to be expected that the societies already incorporated would be disposed to consent to their own dissolution.

The only practical method by which the Convention could transact the secular business of the corporation would be the employment of committees and of executive officers in whom the corporate powers should be vested. It is not perceived that such a method offers any advantages over the present system.

The Diocesan Convention is not adapted to be either the board of directors of an incorporated diocese, or itself a corporation for the transaction of secular business. It is composed of the Bishop, who presides in it because he is the chief pastor and the head of the spiritual work of the Church within the Diocesan area; of his Coadjutor or Suffragan, and his other clergy, because they are ex officio the laborers in the spiritual field; of representatives of the several parochial groups into which the laity are divided. The objects for which it meets are spiritual, or ecclesiastical. It is concerned with the advancement of the Kingdom of God. As incidental to the support of the Church's work it must indeed pay some heed to the funds and to the various agencies which have been provided for that purpose, and it must take measures to persuade the members of the Diocese to supply the income needed to defray the expenses of their common spiritual work; but its meetings are held rarely and they are brief, and it could not spend its time in attending to secular business without neglecting the more pressing spiritual business.

Incorporation is not requisite to give efficacy to the acts of the Convention.

The acts of an unincorporated Convention are operative, on principles of contract, no less than on moral grounds, upon the clergy and the laity of the Diocese, who in contemplation of law have agreed to be bound by them. The law of the land recognizes and enforces any civil rights which result from them. It is not desirable that the law should, and it does not, enforce the spiritual obligations which they impose.

The State does not assume to control or regulate the acts of an unincorporated religious assembly; but it is conceivable that if such an assembly obtained from the State the franchise of being a corporation the State might prescribe what it should or should not do, or in what manner it should act. To accept such a franchise would be to invite the State, if such a disposition should ever be manifested, to exercise its powers for the purpose of limiting, restraining, extending or regulating their proceedings. At present this Convention is controlled by the Diocesan Constitution and Canons, which at any time it can itself amend. If it, or the Diocese, should be incorporated, it must thereafter find its powers within the specific grant of powers from the State; and if, in the exercise of such State-granted powers, it should find them inadequate, it would be compelled to go again, and perhaps from time to time, to the legislature and ask for their amendment or extension. The Church in this Diocese might thus easily be placed in a most unsuitable and unsatisfactory position, and find that without any compensating advantage, it had lost the independence which it now possesses and which it is of vital importance that it always should possess. If no adequate grounds now exist for putting the Church in this Diocese in such a position, the obvious course of prudence is to avoid it.

It is not apparent to this Committee that such grounds do exist; and they unanimously recommend that the proposed resolution be not accepted.

November 5, 1913.

George Zabriskie,
Chas. H. Russell,
J. Mayhew Wainwright.

Mr. Zabriskie moved that the Committee be discharged from further consideration of the subject, which was adopted.

The Rev. Mr. Reiland, in behalf of the Committee on Miscellaneous Business, made the following report:

The Committee have carefully considered the various matters referred to them, and recommend as follows:

1. Resolved, That the Committee be discharged from further consideration of No. 6 on the Calendar "Recommending to the Second Missionary Department that they employ a Secretary for Social Service."

Which was adopted.

2. The Committee disapprove of Resolution No. 9 on the Calendar, "Resolved, That no clergyman who is not an American Citizen be permitted to accept a rectorship in this Diocese," and recommend that it be not adopted.

Which was adopted.

3. The Committee recommend the adoption of Resolution No. 11 on the Calendar, with the following change: Omit all after the words "their disestablishment," and substitute these words, "and that the Historiographer be authorized to prepare such a list for the use of the Secretary."

Which was adopted.

4. The Committee have changed Resolution No. 13 on the calendar to read: "Resolved, That a Committee of three be appointed by the Bishop to report as to the conditions under which property of parishes and institutions connected with this diocese is held," and they report this resolution without recommendation.

The question being put on the resolution, it was not adopted.

5. The Committee recommend the adoption of No. 23 on the Calendar.

Resolved, That the Archdeacons be required to furnish, for printing in the Journal, a detailed statement of their receipts and disbursements.

Which was adopted.

6. The Committee recommend that Resolution No. 18 on the Calendar, on the rights of women to vote at Parish Elections, be referred to a special Committee to report at the next Convention.

Mr. Stetson offered as a substitute:

Resolved, That in the judgment of the Convention, women should be admitted and permitted to vote at parish meetings, and that it be referred to a Committee of three to be appointed by the Bishop with power to take such action as may be necessary to bring about that result.

The Rev. Mr. Oldham moved to lay the matter on the Table, which was not adopted, and on motion, the resolution was made the second order for the day on Thursday.

The Rev. Mr. Hulse offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Committee on Nominations be discontinued, and that all nominations be made in accordance with the Canon.

Which was adopted.

Mr. Stephen Baker moved that the Convention proceed to the elections, which was adopted.

The Chair declared a recess during the balloting.

The Chair declared the polls closed.

The Convention then adjourned until Thursday at 10 A. M.

SECOND DAY.

Thursday, November 13, 1913.

Morning Prayer was said in the Cathedral by the Rev. Edward P. Newton.

The Bishop of the Diocese took the Chair, and the minutes of the preceding day were read and approved.

And the Chair declared that no one having received a concurrent majority of both orders, there had been no election.

The order of the day was called for.

Resolved, That a Committee be appointed by the Bishop thoroughly to review what is being done and what may be done with regard to carrying the message of our Lord Jesus Christ to the foreign born peoples in this City and Diocese, and to report to the next Convention.

The Rev. Dr. Cummins, in behalf of the Committee on Despatch of Business, moved, that the debate on the subject should be limited to half an hour, and individual speakers to five minutes each.

Which was adopted.

Dean Grosvenor offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Report of the Diocesan Mission and Church Extension Society be read for information before the debate,

Which was adopted.

The Rev. H. R. Hulse in behalf of the Diocesan Mission and Church Extension Society presented and read its annual report.

REPORT

OF THE BOARD OF MANAGERS OF THE DIOCESAN MISSIONARY AND CHURCH EXTENSION SOCIETY.

The Board of Managers of the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society presents the following report for the year ending October 31st, 1913:

During the year 86 missions have been under the care of the Society, while assistance has been given to 15 parishes through grants to supplement inadequate salaries. Seventy-one missionaries have been supported either in whole or part by the Society.

During the year 441 have been baptized and 273 confirmed in the missions under the care of the society. There are 3,508 children in the Sunday schools and 6,148 communicants in these various missions and parishes.

We have received for the support of the work from the assessment on the parishes, $38,000. The missions have raised themselves the sum of $54,287.14.

The missionary work of the diocese is in two distinct fields, rural and city.

In the country part of the diocese we face a stationary or diminishing population; with few exceptions, however, the church not only holds its own but shows a slight increase, due to the faithful and devoted work of our country missionaries.

There is little opportunity to start new missions in the country, but we are trying to get in touch with the scattered communicants living in isolated hamlets. To some extent the Archdeacons have done this, but experience has shown that this can best be done from local centers; giving a missionary responsibility for certain territory not too extended, furnishing him with a horse and wagon and requiring him to spend two or three days each week exploring his territory. This plan is now being worked in Dutchess and Sullivan Counties and in time we hope to extend it so that someone will be responsible for each individual soul in the diocese.

We have no desire to lead people away from churches of which they are now faithful members. But our own scattered communicants must be looked after and the many who are out of touch with religion or who have false ideas of Christianity reached and taught what the religion of Christ is as this church hath received the same.

The work in the City divides itself into two parts, the work among the immigrants, and the work in the rapidly growing sections on the outskirts of our great City.

The Board has taken a step in advance through the purchase of a site for the Mission of the Holy Spirit; a triangle containing 16 city lots, situated on the corner of Westchester Avenue and Beach Street. The Board assumed a debt of $85,000 to purchase this, but we have secured one of the best sites for a large church in the Bronx, close to several railroad stations, in a section which is growing rapidly. The Board has also helped in the erection of a new Parish House for St. Paul's Church, New Rochelle.

Many inviting opportunities beckon to us in this rapidly growing section on the outskirts of the great city. Weak Churches must be strengthened, struggling Churches tided over the period of slackness until the growth of the population enables them to assume the burden and responsibility of self support, sites must be purchased for future Churches and an intelligent effort made to forecast the growth of population and provide adequate Church facilities.

The strong churches of 1940 will be in what is now the suburban section. The down-town churches find it increasingly difficult to hold their constituency, their members come to them from longer distances each year. It will be still more difficult to hold the younger generation when their homes are from ten to fifteen miles distant. We must provide some church privileges for them or many of them will drift away. If we look after them now in a generation they will be the strength and support of the Church in the Diocese. Every dollar we spend now in the purchase of sites and in helping toward the erection of church buildings will be repaid ten fold in the future.

Down-town churches which are being weakened by the removal of their members may well consider the advisability of moving after them. It is a waste of money to support a church in a situation where it can only minister to a few people who come to it from a distance when in some other place it might build up a strong neighborhood congregation. A strong parish, ambitious to remain strong and useful, could make no better investment than the establishment and adequate support of a chapel in one of these growing neighborhoods: in twenty years the chapel might be stronger than the church.

The population of New York is 80 per cent foreign or one generation removed. Our native population is being submerged. The Church which makes no appeal to the foreigner will have a dwindling influence until finally it disappears. Many of these immigrants are already attached to some religious organization, but a large proportion are not and a majority of the second generation are breaking away from old religious ties; bound by no religious scruples, pleasure loving, ambitious, with the smatterings of an education, they are drifting about; having the primitive desire for justice but without clear moral distinctions they give a ready ear to any one who will make large promises. These constitute at once a danger and an opportunity, the danger that without moral balance they will be led into evil ways which will result in crime and corruption and political and industrial confusion. At the same time the opportunity comes of imprinting the truths of Christianity as we have received it upon the minds of this impressionable multitude. Love for the city and loyalty to the nation as well as devotion to the Church demands that we give them the steadying, restraining, liberating and elevating influence of religion.

Some of our parishes are doing much work of this kind, notably Grace Church, the Church of the Ascension, St. Batholomew's, Calvary, St. Augustine's, and others are starting it.

The Board is responsible for some Italian and some Swedish work. We ought to do a great deal more, to do the work properly requires an adequate equipment and that costs money; more money than we have at present to give.

The established missionary work is supplied by the assessment on the parishes, but unless we are to stand still we must do more than keep the work already started going. We want to advance into new fields and take up the work we see right before us. During the year we have received applications for help from 15 parishes or missions asking for assistance in the erection of buildings or purchase of sites. The Archdeacons have many other needy places on their list; congregations are worshipping in stores and stables, boathouses and small halls, practising self-denial that they may save up something for a building fund, hoping against hope for the time to come when they may have, not a luxurious and stately church, but a decent building fit for the worship of Almighty God. It is impossible to meet all these needs at once. We would be glad to take them up one by one; establish a few strong churches each year, equip them so that they could minister properly to their neighborhoods and become a source of future strength to the church, rather than a constant drain upon it.

To provide for these needs the Board has adopted under the leadership of the Bishop the plan of the "Bishop's Call." The parishes already have many burdens resting upon them, but there are individuals in each parish who might do more and would be glad to do more than they are doing, especially to help the work at our own doors. The "Bishop's Call" is an effort to enlist the co-operation of such persons. Those who subscribe are notified three times a year by the Bishop that their contributions are desired for some particular object, the purchase of a site, the payment of a debt, the building of a church or a rectory. The scheme was not presented to the people until after Easter, and at present the amount promised at each call comes to less than one thousand dollars. We hope that it will be taken up more generally during the Winter and that the people of the Diocese will respond so generously that we will be able to give material help to at least three places during the coming year.

CHARTER OF THE BOARD OF MANAGERS OF THE DIOCESAN MISSIONARY AND CHURCH EXTENSION SOCIETY OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN THE DIOCESE OF NEW YORK.

CHAP. 153.

An act to incorporate the Board of Managers of the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of New York.

Became a law April 4, 1912, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

SECTION I. David H. Greer and his successors in the office of Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of New York, Charles S. Burch, George F. Nelson, William H. Pott, Hiram R. Hulse, Richard M. Pott, George Alexander Strong, Stephen Baker, Pascal Harrower, William W. Niles, Frank F. German, Edward D. Harris, Frederick B. VanKleeck, John C. Otis, Francis S. Smithers, Junior; George Clarke, William R. Thomas, Ambrose Spencer Murray, Junior, and such other persons as hereafter shall constitute the Board of Managers of the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of New York, shall be, and hereby are created, by that name, a corporation; and as such shall have power to purchase, take by gift, grant, devise, or bequest, and hold real and personal property, to such an amount, and yielding such income, and subject to such other restrictions as from time to time shall be prescribed by law with regard to charitable corporations organized under the general laws of this State; and to sell, mortgage, lease, or otherwise dispose of the same at their will and pleasure; and to carry on Missionary and Church Extension work of the said Church in the said Diocese, under the authority thereof; and to apply their property and the avails thereof for the benefit and advantage of such work; and to take by grant, gift, devise or bequest, and to hold, real and personal property upon such trusts in furtherance of Missionary or Church Extension work of the said Church in the said diocese in general, or in particular localities, or with reference to special objects, as the donors or granters thereof may prescribe.

SECTION II. The members of the said Board of Managers other than the Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of New York, who shall always be a member and the President thereof, shall be appointed with reference to their holding such official positions in the said Diocese, or shall be chosen by such constituencies, and in such manner, as from time to time the Convention of the said Diocese shall prescribe.

SECTION III. The said Board of Managers shall have power to make, amend and repeal by-laws for the management of their affairs; but nothing herein contained shall affect the power of the Convention of the said Diocese to make such rules and regulations, or so to alter or amend the constitution of the said Board of Managers, as the said Convention shall deem necessary or proper in furtherance of the purpose for which they are incorporated as aforesaid.

SECTION IV. The said corporation shall possess such powers as now are or hereafter shall be conferred by the general corporation law upon corporations, so far as the same shall be consistent with this act; and shall be entitled to any exemptions from taxation or other benefit to which charitable corporations organized under the general law of this state are now or hereafter shall become entitled. It shall be subject to visitation by the Supreme Court for the like causes and under the like conditions as from time to time shall be prescribed by law with regard to charitable corporations organized under the said general laws. It shall deposit a copy of its annual printed report in the state library.

SECTION V. This act shall take effect immediately.

The second order of the day was called for.

The Rev. Mr. Henshaw offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the substitute resolution be referred to a Committee of Five to be appointed by the Bishop to report at the next Convention.

Which was adopted.

The Chair appointed as such committee:

The Rev. R. T. Henshaw. The Rev. W. W. Bellinger.
The Rev. F. F. German. Mr. Francis Lynde Stetson.
Mr. William H. Sage.

Mr. Stetson offered the following amendment to the Constitution:

Resolved, That Article VII of the Constitution be amended by inserting the following Proviso at the end of the sentence next preceding the final sentence of that Article:

"Provided that, except in case of the election of a Bishop, a Bishop Coadjutor, or a Suffragan Bishop, the concurrence of a plurality of the members of each order voting shall constitute a vote upon every balloting after a first ballot for any office for which a majority vote shall not have been cast on the first ballot."

Which was adopted.

Bishop Courtney of the Committee on Canons reported as follows:

The Committee beg leave to report in favor of the adoption of the second resolution on the Calendar, viz.:

1. Resolved, That the Committee on Canons be instructed to correct, revise and harmonize the Canons of this Diocese and report to the Convention of 1914.

That in their judgment it is inexpedient to adopt the third resolution on the Calendar, viz.:

2. Resolved, That Canon XV, sec. 2, be amended by striking out the words "three persons to be appointed annually by the Bishop" and changing the number of elected clergymen to nine.

and the fourth resolution on the Calendar, viz.:

3. To provide by proper canonical change that when one-third or more of the salary of any rector shall be paid by the Diocese, such parish shall become for the time being a mission chapel, and its minister shall be appointed by the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society, and be subject to the supervision of the respective archdeacon.

That Resolutions 5, 7, and 12 on the Calendar be referred back to the Committee with instructions to report to the next Convention.

That Resolution No. 10 on the Calendar be adopted as follows:

Substitute for Canon XXII of the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society.

SECTION 1. All members of the Church in this Diocese shall be considered as constituting the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society.

SECTION 2. (1) The Missionary and Church Extension work of the Diocese shall be conducted by the Diocesan Board of Missions and Church Extension.

(2) The Convention shall be the Diocesan Board of Missions and Church Extension, and as such shall sit as often as the business of the Board may require.

(3) The Bishop of the Diocese shall be ex-officio President of the Board.

(4) The Treasurer of the Diocese shall be ex-officio the Treasurer of the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to receive all funds for the Missionary and Church Extension work of the Diocese and to disburse the same under the direction of the Board of Managers.

SECTION 3. (1) a. There shall be a Board of Managers of the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society, which Board shall be also the Missionary Committee of the Diocese of New York, consisting of the Bishop (who shall be Chairman ex-officio), the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be such, the Suffragan Bishop, the Archdeacons, the Treasurer of the Diocese, three Presbyters and three Laymen to be elected annually by the Diocesan Convention as members at large (of whom at least two Presbyters and two Laymen shall be residents in the County of New York), and one Presbyter and one Layman from each of the nine other counties of the Diocese, to be elected as hereinafter provided.

b. No member of the Board of Managers elected as a representative from one of the counties shall be eligible for re-election for one year from the expiration of his term. Members elected by the Diocesan Convention shall be eligible for re-election.

c. If there be any failure to elect the above representatives, or if from any other cause a vacancy shall occur, the power to fill this vacancy shall reside in the Board of Managers.

(2) It shall be the duty of the Board of Managers:

a. To maintain and strengthen the Mission and Church Extension work of the Diocese;

b. To hold missionary councils and to issue missionary literature;

c. To plant the Church in new communities and among people of foreign tongues, subject to the provisions of the Canon "Of the Establishment and Boundaries of Parishes and Mission Districts";

d. To create and carry out an efficient Church extension policy in all parts of the Diocese;

e. To preserve all reports received from the Archdeacons and Missionaries;

f. To make grants to poor parishes under such regulations as the Board may prescribe for the increase of inadequate clerical salaries, to the end that in this diocese each unmarried clergyman in charge of a parish in union with the Convention of the Diocese may receive a salary of not less than $1,200 a year or $1,000 a year and a residence, and each married clergyman in charge of such a parish not less than $1,200 and a residence;

g. To meet monthly except in March, July, August and September, and at other times upon the call of the Chairman;

h. At its October meeting to audit the accounts of the treasurer and to adopt and deliver to the Board of Missions and Church Extension an annual report containing the following items:

1. A statement of the missionary work done since last report.
2. The names of the Missionaries and stations.
3. An account of receipts and expenditures.
4. A list of the parishes contributing and of the sums contributed by each parish to Diocesan Missions.
5. An estimate of the amount of funds needed for the Missionary and Church Extension work of the Diocese for the ensuing year.
6. Such other matters as may be deemed necessary.

i. To exercise during the recess of the Diocesan Board of Missions and Church Extension all the powers of the Board.

(3) Seven members of the Board of Managers, one of whom shall be the Bishop, the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be such, or the Suffragan Bishop, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. In the absence of the Bishop and the Bishop Coadjutor, the Suffragan Bishop shall preside.

Section 4. (1) There may be two Archdeacons of the Diocese of New York, whose separate fields for their official terms shall be assigned them by the Bishop.

(2) Said Archdeacons shall be nominated by the Bishop, and with the advice and consent of the Convention of the Diocese appointed by him for a period of five years, and shall be eligible for reappointment. No Archdeacon, while acting as such, shall be Rector or settled Minister of any Church or Congregation.

(3) It shall be the duty of each Archdeacon:

a. To search out the religious needs of his territory and to conduct Missionary and Church Extension work within its limits.

b. To collect and preserve careful statistics of population, of the condition of communities, and of Missionary work.

c. To make full and regular reports to the Bishop and Board of Managers.

d. In consultation with the Bishop, to divide his field into such Archdeaconries as may be most convenient for the conduct of business and the awakening of local interest.

e. To provide for one or more meetings annually in each Archdeaconry, at which reports shall be made of mission work undertaken in the same and plans for further development presented and discussed.

f. In the absence of the Bishop, the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be such, and the Suffragan Bishop, to preside at all meetings of the Archdeaconries in his territory.

Section 5. (1) Each Archdeaconry shall organize in accordance with its own by-laws, and shall elect its own Treasurer and such other officers as it may deem necessary.

(2) At its first meeting after the Diocesan Convention at which this Canon shall become operative, each Archdeaconry shall elect one Presbyter and one Layman from each of the Counties of which it consists to serve as its representatives in the Board of Managers of the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society, until the annual meeting in the year following: Thereafter at its annual meeting to be held prior to the Diocesan Convention, it shall elect one Presyter and one Layman from each of the Counties of which it consists as its representatives in the Board of Managers of the above named Society, who shall each serve for a term of two years.

(3) Each Clergyman or Layman receiving a stipend or other regular assistance from the Missionary funds of the Diocese shall semi-annually, on blanks to be provided by the Board of Managers, make a report of his work to the Archdeacon, who shall submit the same to the Archdeaconry at its next regular meeting. Monthly reports may also be required.

(4) It shall be the duty of each clergyman unless prevented by grave and reasonable cause to attend each meeting of his Archdeaconry.

Section 6. (1) The appointment and removal of all missionaries shall be vested in the Bishop and their stipends determined by the Board of Managers.

(2) a. Every application to the Bishop for the establishment of Mission Districts under the provisions of the Canon "of the establishment and Boundaries of Parishes and Mission Districts" shall be accompanied by the approval of the Board of Managers.

b. Any Mission Station designated by the Board of Managers may be organized by the Bishop, upon the application of residents in its neighborhood, and under the conditions laid down by the Canon "of the Establishment and Boundaries of Parishes and Mission Districts."

c. The form of application shall be as follows:

To the Right Reverend.....
Bishop of New York.

We, the subscribers, baptized persons, residents in the Town of....., in the County of....., New York, respectfully request that we be duly received as a mission, under the authority and direction of the Diocese of New York, to be known as..... Mission, in the Town of.....

And we do hereby promise conformity to the authority of the Diocese, and to the Constitution and Canons, and the Doctrine, Discipline, and Worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States and in the Diocese of New York, and we further pledge the sum of $..... to the support of the Minister for the first year.

(3) a. Any parish seeking aid from the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society shall make written application therefor, stating the number of contributors and the amount pledged or secured in the parish or station for the support of the Minister and all other facts necessary for a full understanding of the case.

b. Any Minister receiving assistance from the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society may be required by the same to perform compensating duty.

That with regard to the Resolution No. 15 on the Calendar to amend Article III of the Constitution by providing a penalty for failure of Parishes to make annual reports pursuant to Canons IX and XVIII, the Committee on Canons consider it within the power of the Convention to discipline failure to report to it, or to comply with other canonical obligations, and asks that the resolution be referred back to the Committee for further consideration, to report at the next Convention.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

F. Courtney, Chairman.

The first resolution was adopted.

The Committee was upon motion discharged from further consideration of resolutions two and three.

Resolutions five and twelve on the calendar were referred back to the Committee to report at the next Convention.

Upon motion the Committee was discharged from further consideration of resolution No. 7 on the calendar.

Resolution No. 10 (new Canon XXII) was adopted.

Resolution No. 15 on the calendar was on motion referred back to the Committee.

The Rev. Dr. Van De Water on behalf of the Committee on Diocesan Finances offered the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the Committee on Diocesan Finances recommends that the Treasurer of the Diocese be given authority under the direction of the Committee on Diocesan Finances to make an apportionment among the Parishes, Missions and Congregations of the Diocese of the sum of $3,500 for the work of the Social Service Commission on the same basis as the apportionment for Domestic and Foreign Missions and that any sums collected by the Treasurer of the Diocese under such apportionment shall be paid over to the Treasurer of the Social Service Commission.

Resolved, That the Committee on Diocesan Finances recommends that the Treasurer of the Diocese be given authority under direction of the Committee on Diocesan Finances to make an apportionment among the Parishes, Missions and Congregations of the Diocese of the sum of $3,500, $2,000 of which shall be used for the work of the General Board of Religious Education, and $1,500 shall be used for the work of the Diocesan Board of Religious Education, on the same bases as the apportionment for Domestic and Foreign Missions and that any sums collected by the Treasurer of the Diocese under such apportionment shall be paid over to the Treasurer of the Board of Religious Education.

Which were adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Manning moved that the Special Committee to investigate the misstatements in Public School Text Books be continued, which was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Cummins moved that an appropriation of $48,000 be made for the Missions of the Diocese, to be raised by assessment, which was adopted.

The Rev. Mr. Toop offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That there shall be appointed by the Bishop a layman, to be known as the Bishop's Aid for Boys; for work among young men and boys in the Diocese of New York, it being understood that this appointment shall entail no demand upon diocesan funds and that such expense as may be necessary therewith be met by voluntary contributions.

Which was adopted:

The Chair appointed Mr. Everett Jansen Wendell.

The Bishop nominated the Rev. Hiram R. Hulse and the Rev. William H. Pott, Ph.D., as Archdeacons of the Diocese of New York, and they were unanimously elected.

The Rev. Dr. Pott offered the following nominations for members at large on the Board of Managers of the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society:

Clerical.

Rev. M. H. Gates, D.D. Rev. E. M. Stires, D.D.
Rev. Karl Reiland.

Lay.

Mr. George A. Crocker, Jr. Mr. Charles A. Clark.
Mr. Stephen Baker.

And they were elected.

The Rev. Dr. Nelson presented the following report of the Special Committee on a Diocesan Seal:

The undersigned, appointed a Committee at the last Convention to submit to this Convention a design or designs for a Diocesan seal, respectfully report as follows:

Although we have given the subject our best attention, and have already caused two different designs to be made, we are not now prepared to do more than report progress, and to recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Committee appointed at the last Convention to submit a design or designs for a Diocesan seal be continued, with instructions to report to the next annual Convention, in order to have, meantime, further conference with experts; and that the Treasurer of the Diocesan Fund be authorized to pay the expenses incurred by the Committee in the preparation of tentative designs.

Geo. F. Nelson,
M. H. Gates,
Committee.

New York, November 13, 1913.

Which was adopted.

Bishop Burch presented the following report on behalf of the Special Committee on the Merging of the Diocesan Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund with the General Clergy Relief Fund.

The Committee appointed on merging the Diocesan Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund with the General Clergy Relief Fund, beg to report that in view of the report of the Joint Commission of the General Convention on Clergy Pensions, your Committee felt it should await the action of the General Convention on its Joint Committee's report before taking into consideration the matters submitted to it by this Convention.

In view of the action of the General Convention approving the main principles of its Joint Commission's report, your Committee asks that it be continued so that this Diocese may be prepared to work in co-operation with the Joint Commission on Clergy Pensions.

Which was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Gates offered the following:

Resolved, That a Committee of Five be appointed by the Bishop to draft a Canon for a Commission on Church building and to report to the next Convention.

Which was adopted.

The Chair appointed as such committee:

The Rev. M. H. Gates, D.D. Mr. George Gordon Battle.
The Rev. John Campbell, Ph.D. Mr. J. Van V. Olcott.
Mr. W. H. Mersereau.

The Special Committee on a Plan to Expedite Voting reported as follows:

The Committee "on plan to expedite voting" presents the following report and asks to be discharged:

The elections have interfered with the business of the Convention mainly because repeated ballots have been required. To lessen the necessity for this your Committee offers the following amendment to Canon XI concerning elections, to be inserted between the words "election and provided," on page 409 in Journal of 1912:

"Provided that each ballot shall have a space in which the voter may indicate his second choice for the position to be filled. If no candidate has a majority of those who indicate him as first choice, the ballots for second choice shall be added to those for first choice, and if any person has a majority of the combined ballot he shall be declared elected."

H. R. Hulse,
John K. Sague.

Upon motion the Committee was discharged and the amendment proposed was referred to the Committee on Canons to report to the next Convention.

The Rev. Mr. Tucker offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That this Convention hereby creates a Commission for the Homeless and Unemployed composed of three Presbyters and two Laymen to make a study of conditions existing among homeless and unemployed persons, and to devise and put into operation such remedies for their relief as they may find possible.

Which was referred to the Social Service Commission.

The Rev. Mr. Baldwin offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the attention of vestries be called to the subject of adequate fire insurance, particularly as the subject is affected by the greatly increased cost of building at the present time, and by the operation of the 80 per cent. clause.

Resolved, Further, that a place be provided in the Parochial Report blanks for a statement of the amount of fire insurance carried on church property.

Which was referred to the Committee on Miscellaneous Business:

The Rev. Mr. Chorley offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That a Committee of three clergymen and three laymen be appointed by the Bishop to consider the advisability and feasibility of establishing a Diocesan magazine, and to report to the next Convention.

Which was referred to the Committee on Miscellaneous Business:

Mr. Sague offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Convention of the Diocese of the Protestant Episcopal Church in New York, extend to the Federal Council of Protestant Churches in the United States of America its fraternal greetings, and its earnest co-operation in the purposes thereof, and further

Resolved, That a committee of seven be appointed to consider and report to the next convention what steps can be properly taken by this Diocese to put itself into closer touch with the Federal Council.

Which was referred to the Committee on Miscellaneous Business.

The Secretary read the following message of greeting from the Diocesan Convention of Michigan City:

Gary, Ind., Nov. 12th, 1913.

The Right Rev. David Hummel Greer, D.D., Bishop of New York, Synod Hall, New York:

The Diocese of Michigan City, in council assembled, sends greetings to the Convention of the Diocese of New York, with sincere appreciation for its generous hospitality and the inspiration which was given to the Church at large by the churchmen of New York during the General Convention.

M. M. Day, Secretary.

The Secretary was instructed to send an appropriate answer.

The Chair declared a recess until two o'clock.

The Convention reassembled at two o'clock.

The Rev. Mr. Chorley presented the following report:

REPORT

OF THE HISTORIOGRAPHER TO THE DIOCESAN CONVENTION OF 1913.

Early in the Conventional year an appeal was made in the pages of The Great Commission for such material as might form the nucleus of a complete record of diocesan and parochial activities. It is hoped to collect parish histories, historical and biographical sermons and addresses, portraits of churches and deceased clergy, a complete set of Convention Journals, parochial Year Books and such other matter as is of permanent historical value.

The appeal met with some response, though not an adequate one. The following donations are gratefully acknowledged:

NECROLOGY.

Rev. John C. Eccleston, D.D., (Rutgers), born in Kent County, Maryland, May 6th, 1828, on his graduation from the General Theological Seminary was ordered Deacon by Bishop Alonzo Potter on August 20th, 1854, and ordained Priest in 1855. He became rector of St. John's, Clifton, Staten Island, in 1856, and remained for six years. From thence he removed to Trinity, Newark, N. J., 1863-66; St. Stephen's, Gt. Barrington, Mass., 1866. In 1867 he returned to the rectorship of St. John's and remained there until 1898 when he was elected rector emeritus. He died at New Brighton, S. I., on December 26th, 1912, aged 85 years.

Rev. Leigh Richmond Dickinson graduated from Columbia College in 1851 and took his M.A. degree three years later. After a course at the Virginia Theological Seminary he was ordered Deacon on March 6th, 1855, and Priest in 1856, by Bishop Clark. His parochial work was as follows: Assistant St. Paul's Brookline, Mass., 1855; Rector, Zion, Newport, R. I., 1856-58; Assistant, St. John's, Providence, R. I., 1858; Rector, Church of the Mediator, Kingsbridge, N. Y., 1859-66; Christ Church, Ridgewood, N. J., 1868-82; Grace, Gt. Bend, Pa., 1882-87; Ascension, West Park, N. Y., 1887-1907, and rector emeritus up to his death which took place at Mount Vernon, N. Y., on January 10th, 1913, at the age of 83.

Rev. George W. Dumbell, D.D., (Trinity College), had been rector of St. James', Milwaukee; St. Paul's, Chattanooga, Tenn.; St. Peter's, Sherbrooke, P. Q.; and in 1902 was elected rector of St. James', Goshen, N. Y. He served until 1911, when he was elected rector emeritus. He died at Goshen on March 1st, 1913, aged 81 years.

Rev. William Reed Thomas, D.D., (St. Stephen's College), graduated from St. Stephen's College in 1869, and from the General Theological Seminary three years later. He was ordered Deacon in the Church of the Transfiguration on June 30th, 1872, by Bishop H. Potter, and immediately took charge of the Church of the Holy Innocents, Highland Falls, N. Y., in which church he was advanced to the priesthood on November 9th of the same year. In 1887 Dr. Thomas became Archdeacon of Orange, which office he filled for nearly twenty-five years. His long rectorship of forty-one years was terminated by his death, which took place at St. Luke's Hospital, New York, on April 12th, 1913.

Rev. George Hill Bottome was the son of Rev. Francis and Margaret Bottome. He graduated from Yale in 1883 and from the General Theological Seminary three years later. He was ordered Deacon in St. Thomas' Church, New York, on June 8th, 1887, by Bishop H. C. Potter, and advanced to the priesthood in Zion Church on May 27th, 1888, by the same Bishop. The whole of his ministry was spent in Grace Parish. From 1887 to 1895 he served as assistant at the parish church, and in the latter year he became Vicar of Grace Chapel, East Fourteenth street. He died at Ossining on May 10th, 1913.

Rev. Charles Augustus Briggs, D.D. (Princeton, Williams, Edinborough, Glasgow), Litt.D. (Oxon), came into the Church from the Presbyterian ministry. He was ordered Deacon in Grace Church on May 27th, 1898, and priested in the pro-Cathedral on May 14th, 1899, by Bishop H. C. Potter. From 1874 to his death he was a professor in the Union Theological Seminary. He died on June 8th, 1913.

Rev. Cornelius Bishop Smith, D.D. (Trinity College), was a B.A., of Trinity (1854) and M.A. (1857). He was ordered Deacon in 1858 by Bishop Williams and Priest in 1859 by Bishop H. Potter. After serving as assistant in Holy Trinity, Brooklyn (1859-60), and the Church of the Ascension, New York (1860-63), he became rector of St. John's, Lowell, Mass. (1863-65). In 1867 he was called to St. James', New York, and remained there until 1895, when he became rector emeritus. For eleven years he served as chairman of the executive committee of the City Mission Society. He died in Maine on June 22nd, 1913, at the age of four score years.

Rev. Martin Albert, who died at Jersey City on September 8th, 1913, was for thirty-five years in charge of the German work at Trinity Church, New York. He was interred at Cragsmoor, N. Y.

Rev. Walter I. Stecher was ordered Deacon in 1891 and ordained Priest in 1895 by Bishop Littlejohn. He became rector of St. Timothy's Church, Brooklyn, where he remained for ten years. He was received into the diocese of New York on December 7th, 1905, on assuming the rectorship of St. John's, Monticello. He died on September 22d, 1913.

Rev. George Martin Christian, D.D. (Nashotah), graduated from the University of Pennsylvania in 1870 and four years later took his M.A. degree. Ordered Deacon in 1873 and ordained Priest in 1874. He spent the early years of his ministry in Philadelphia, serving as assistant at St. James' (1874-75); St. Peter's (1875-76), and St. Mark's (1876-80). From 1880 to 1889 he was rector of the Trinity Church, Newark, N. J., and in the latter year became the rector of the Church of St. Mary the Virgin, New York City. Owing to failure of health he became rector emeritus in 1908, and died at Philadelphia on October 5th, 1913, aged 65 years.

Rev. D. Brainerd Ray died at Huntington, Long Island, on October 30th, 1913. He was ordered Deacon by Bishop Stevens in 1863 and was received in the Diocese of New York on February 15th, 1868, as rector of Grace Church, Harlem. At the time of his death he was rector emeritus of Grace-Emmanuel Church.

Rev. John Henry Watson, a graduate of Harvard and the Berkeley Divinity School, was ordered Deacon in 1871 and ordained Priest in 1872 by Bishop Williams. He served as assistant at St. John's, Stamford, Ct., and St. Mark's, Philadelphia. His first rectorship was at Trinity, New Rochelle, N. Y., and from thence he went to the Church of the Resurrection, Richmond Hill, L. I.; the Church of the Good Shepherd, Hartford, Ct., and St. John's, Kingston, N. Y. After serving for some time as assistant in Trinity Chapel, New York City, he became Vicar of the Italian Church of San Salvatore and on resigning that position placed himself at the disposal of the City Mission Society for Sunday services. He died in New York on October 31st, 1913, and was interred in Kensico Cemetery.

Respectfully submitted,

E. Clowes Chorley,
Historiographer.

Mr. Chorley moved that the Report be ordered printed in the Journal, which was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Cummins, in behalf of the Social Service Commission, reported on the resolution of the Rev. Mr. Tucker.

Resolved, That this Convention hereby creates a Commission for the Homeless and Unemployed, composed of three Presbyters and two Laymen, to make a study of conditions existing among homeless and unemployed persons, and to devise and put into operation such remedies for their relief as they may find possible.

and asked that time be given for further consideration to report at the next Convention, which was adopted.

Mr. W. S. Hawk suggested that each man in the Convention make a subscription to the "Bishop's Call," which was adopted.

Bishop Courtney presented and read the following report on the Church Temperance Society:

The Church Temperance Society reports that during the past Convention year it has carried on its work of Temperance on the dual basis of inviting those who moderately use and those who totally abstain from the use of alcoholic liquors as beverages to the best of its power. Its ideal position is to be the Headquarters of Church Temperance work all over the United States, with branches in every individual Diocese, and lesser branches in every Parish and Mission. It is happy to have affiliated with it the Diocese of Massachusetts, whose General Secretary has been frequently present at the monthly meetings of the Board of Managers. While striving, it must be confessed, in a rather desultory fashion, for the realization of this ideal, it has been making efforts, from the beginning of its organization under the great experience of the late Robert Graham, its first General Secretary, whose most valuable work must never be forgotten or lost sight of, to fight the demon of intemperance and for the promotion of temperance, by the use of such means as have been placed at its disposal. The Squirrel Inn on the East Side and the Longshoremens' Rest on the West Side, are used by more than six hundred men daily; while the lunch wagons are very largely patronized by other hundreds who can there obtain wholesome food at a reasonable price; and the coffee van still goes of an evening to places of private entertainment to supply refreshments to men waiting for their employers to drive home. The funds for the carrying on of this really great and valuable work have been largely supplied by the Women's Branch of the Society, who also raised most of the $40,000 needed for the purchase of Squirrel Inn; but several things have changed in the last ten years, and the Society finds itself today face to face with a most serious condition of affairs. In consequence of the failure of many Churches, especially those in New York City, to take annual collections for the Society; the greatly increased cost of food, which has almost put an end to the profit hitherto derived from the work of the Lunch Wagons, and the vacancy of some portions of the rentable part of Squirrel Inn, the salary of the General Secretary is considerably in arrears, there is a large debt due to the publishers of the Society monthly paper "Temperance," one of the very best of such publications, and the rent of the office in the Church Mission House is also unpaid; and, as the income is so greatly depleted, the immediate future is extremely dark.

The Society organizes an appeal to the parochial Clergy of such Dioceses all over the land, whose Bishops are willing to sign such appeal, asking the Clergy to preach a sermon on the subject of Temperance in the Sunday school before Advent, and, if possible, to take a collection for the Society. It also held a public meeting in connection with the recent session of the General Convention, and prepared a very thorough and effective exhibit which was visited by many interested people. It also circulated posters calling the attention of their readers to sundry evils resulting from intemperance, in the hope that not a few will thereby be arrested, led to consider and reclaimed to sobriety. It would be no less than a disaster if this only Church Temperance Society is crippled in its work, and it may be even allowed to die, for lack of support, owing to the apathy of the people on this subject, one of the most tremendous which can engage their attention, whether regarded from the point of view of the capital involved in the business, the number of persons employed by it, and the far greater number of those who are slaves of intemperance, the inveteracy of the sinful habit, the ruin of souls, the other sins of which it is the parent, the diseases produced by it, the crime committed under its influence, the injury to the race by the action of the law of heredity in this regard, the misery, poverty and wretchedness which are its offspring; a burden and disgrace under which not only the Church, but the nation staggers, and is hindered in its progress toward that perfection, which would make it an eminent example to the other nations of the world. The Society would cry out to all that they should come "to the help of the Lord, to the help of the Lord against the mighty."

F. Courtney, President.

Resolved, That this Convention approves of the work being done by The Church Temperance Society, and commends it to the interest and advocacy of the members of the Church, exhorting them to pray for and support the Society to such an extent that its work may be carried on with increased efficiency, to the glory of God and the benefit of the community.

Resolved, That while the Convention gives its hearty approval to this work, it also expresses its appreciation of the invaluable efforts of the General Secretary of the Society, Miss H. N. Graham.

Bishop Courtney moved the resolutions and they were adopted.

The Rev. Mr. Reiland, in behalf of the Committee on Miscellaneous Business made the following report:

The Committee recommend that the resolution of the Rev. Mr. Baldwin,

"Resolved, That the attention of vestries be called to the subject of adequate fire insurance, particularly as that subject is affected by the greatly increased cost of building at the present time, and by the operation of the 80 per cent. clause.

Resolved further that a place be provided in the Parochial Report blank for a statement of the amount of insurance carried on Church property:" be not adopted.

That the resolution of the Rev. Mr. Chorley,

"Resolved, That a Committee of three Clergymen and three laymen be appointed by the Bishop to consider the advisability and feasibiliy of establishing a Diocesan Magazine and to report to the next Convention," be not adopted.

The motion being put these two resolutions were not adopted.

The Committee further report that the resolution of Mr. Sague,

Resolved, That the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of New York extends to the Federal Councils of the Churches in Christ in the United States of America its fraternal greetings, and tenders its earnest co-operation in the purposes thereof, and, further,

Resolved, That a Committee of seven be appointed to consider and report to the next Convention what steps can properly be taken by this Diocese to put itself in closer touch with the Federal Council, be adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Clendenin moved to amend by striking out the first resolution.

The Rev. Dr. Stires moved as an amendment to this that the words "and tenders its earnest co-operation in the purposes thereof" be omitted.

Which was adopted.

The motion as amended was then adopted.

The Chair appointed as such committee:

The Rev. E. M. Stires, D.D. The Rev. Henry Lubeck, LL.D.
The Rev. Frank M. Clendenin, D.D. Mr. Howard Townsend.
The Rev. Harry P. Nichols, D.D. Mr. Eugene H. Outerbridge.

The Chair declared that there was no Election.

Mr. Eugene Camp called for his resolution No. 24 on the calendar.

Resolved, That a committee of ten clergy and ten laymen, not of necessity delegates to this Convention, be appointed to prepare and recommend to the Committee of Arrangements for this Convention, a program for meetings and exhibits during the Convention of this Diocese in 1914, and upon approval of plans by the Arrangements Committee this committee of twenty invite all organizations of the Diocese, unofficial as well as official, to send their printed reports and make exhibits of their work, and as far as may be practicable, to give addresses setting forth achievement, plans and aims.

Resolved, That this committee of twenty be instructed to place the burden of the work involved upon the lay members of the committee, and that clerical members of the committee and this Convention hold these laymen responsible for the work.

Resolved, That the committee have authority to invite, in the name of this Convention, friends of all of these lines of work, and the general public to read these reports, to inspect the exhibits, and to hear the addresses.

Which was referred to the Committee on Arrangements for Convention with power.

Mr. Zabriskie offered the following which was referred to the Committee on Arrangements for Convention.

Resolved, That the Committee on Arrangements for the next Convention be requested, if upon consideration they deem it expedient, to place the speakers' platform in or near the middle alcove on one side of this hall, and to arrange the seats lengthwise of the hall facing on both sides towards the middle alley, leaving the President's chair and the Secretary's desk as they stand at present.

The Secretary cast the ballot, and the Chair declared that Mr. Oldham and Mr. Sedgwick had been duly elected.

Mr. John Brooks Leavitt offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That a Committee of seven be appointed to inquire as to the conditions on which the endowments of parishes and institutions connected with the Diocese are held, and to report to the next Convention whether in their opinion any change in the name of the Church would affect the same.

Which was referred to the Committee on Canons to report at the next Convention.

Mr. R. M. Pott presented the following report:

As instructed in Canon XVIII the Treasurer of the Convention reports the following amounts to be assessed upon the Parishes, Missions and Congregations for the Convention year 1913-1914:

The Diocesan Fund	$6,000 00
The Episcopal Fund	17,000 00
Diocesan Missions	48,000 00
	$71,000 00

The Treasurer has also been instructed to make an apportionment upon the Parishes, Missions and Congregations:

For the Social Service Commission	$3,500 00
For the Diocesan Board of Religious Education	3,500 00

The Secretary reported that the pledges of members of the Convention to the Bishop's Call amounted to $3,600.00 a year.

The Gloria in Excelsis was sung, and the Convention adjourned without day.

DAVID H. GREER, Bishop.

ATTEST:
ROBERT B. KIMBER,
Secretary of the Convention.

APPENDIX A

THE BISHOP'S ADDRESS

The General Convention has come and gone. We are so near to it that we need not recall it, and for the same reason we cannot fully and finally review it. In one sense it has made its record and the record stands. In another and truer sense, its record is yet to be made. For that, we shall have to wait until it has been pragmatically tested. It must be judged by its fruits, and the time of harvest is not yet. But this much at least we can at present say. It was a thoughtful convention, of high purpose, with strong men in it, having strong convictions; and while its discussions at times were animated and heated, with perhaps more heat than light, it was characterized on the whole by ability and fairness, with very little appeal to prejudice and passion. And to us in this diocese it ought to be, and is I am sure, a source of satisfaction that we have been the host of such a notable body, and that the provision made for its comfort, while not unworthy of it as our honored guest, was not perhaps unworthy of us as its privileged host. For this we are indebted to the various committees to whom was entrusted the task, and that not an easy one, of making all the needed preparations for it; and I desire here to acknowledge in unqualified terms my personal obligation to them for their invaluable assistance.

I also wish to express for you and myself our grateful appreciation of the thoughtful and liberal kindness of the two eminent laymen connected with this diocese in causing to be erected at their own expense this noble and beautiful building, where the House of Deputies met, and we are meeting now. For a quarter of a century they represented this diocese in General Convention, and it was their wish to signalize that fact by giving to the diocese which had thus honored them this beautiful Synod House, to be used first as a meeting place for the General Convention, and thereafter for our own diocesan use; not only to provide a fit and suitable building in which to hold from year to year our own diocesan councils, but also to help to make our great diocesan Church an energizing force in the common and secular life of the diocese and the city. It is a matter not only of great regret but of a real and great sorrow that we cannot thank them in person for their gracious and generous gift.

And now, having said this much about the General Convention in relation to the diocese, and leaving it for the future to pass a final judgment upon the value of its work, I pass on to speak of another but kindred subject, namely, the opportunity which this age presents to the Christian Church for spreading and advancing the Kingdom of Jesus Christ.

There are those who speak of the present age as an unreligious age or a non-religious age; and in one sense that is true. It is non-religious, as an age which does not have definite and positive religious faiths and convictions. And yet, while that is true, is it not also true that both the thought and conduct of the age are religously inclined, with a trend, not consciously, perhaps, but unconsciously, working in that direction? Is it not true that the best thought of the age, and its most distinctive and influential thought, is not now expressed as fifty years ago it was, or thirty years ago, in materialistic terms, but something rather very like spiritualistic terms? Is it not true that the materialistic hypotheses which were once, and not long ago, so confidently employed for the solution of all our problems, while solving many problems and clearing many mysteries and giving to us much in the way of ordered knowledge, are now seen and felt to be not absolute and final but simply experimental or empirical expedients, which have started more problems and more difficult than those which they have solved, explaining some mysteries by others which are greater which have not been explained and apparently cannot be? In an address delivered by the late Lord Kelvin upon a recent occasion, he is reported to have said: "One single word comprises the result of all that I have done towards the furthering of science during fifty-five years. This word is Failure. I know not one iota more today about electric or magnetic power; how ether, electricity, and weighable matter stand to one another, or what chemical affinity is, than I did when I delivered my first lecture." These are the words, as the writer says who quotes them, of an honest and truthful man, and who as we all know, was one of the foremost scientific thinkers of the age. Failure! What a confession it is, this modern agnosticism; not of the ignorance of the human mind in the glimmering dawn of its infancy, but in the strength and vigor and brilliance of its maturity, exploring the heights and the depths, and not banishing mystery and not diminishing mystery, but coming more and more into the awareness of it; deepening the mystery, and with a tendency towards either the pessimism which paralyses human life or the secularism which makes it desperate and reckless, and from both of which it can be saved, if it is to be saved at all, only by some self-revealing and quickening Word of God which God Himself shall speak. Not credulity, not superstition, not undisciplined emotionalism, but the most enlightened thought to-day is preparing the way for the coming of The Word, of God made Flesh; is preparing the way for the coming of the Incarnate Jesus Christ. For Jesus Christ comes to a people, a generation, or an age, as to an individual, only when the need of Him begins to be strongly felt.

And now let us look at the present age with reference to its conduct.

Matthew Arnold has somewhere said something like this: After a person has made himself fairly comfortable in life, and begins to ask, what he shall do next, he then begins to perceive that there are other satisfactions in life as great as, or greater than, those which meet and minister to his material needs and pleasures or his material ambitions. What is true of the individual is also true, and equally true, of society at large. Hence it is we find in this prosperous age a growing disposition towards, or a growing searching after, some other kind of life, larger, finer, better, more permanent and real than physical pursuit or physical gratification. I do not mean to say of course that this is universally true. It is not. We cannot generalize about modern society; but simply that it is one of its characteristic features. There are other features of it, or other tendencies in it, not so good and noble, especially in some of its plutocratic sections, whose emancipation from the necessity of physical toil has had the effect not to enlarge but to limit their horizon, and to give not a greater spiritual freedom to them but simply that greater and degrading license which is the travesty of freedom, and which in its abandonment and self-indulgent merriment is sometimes grotesque, and sometimes gross, and sometimes both gross and grotesque. These, however, are but moribund excrescences, the social instinct gone to a wanton waste or scum, on the surface of modern life, and which, if not altogether neglible quantities, are not at least in the truest sense representative of it.

There is another force energizing in the present age, which, as I have said, is working out towards some other kind of life more permanent and appealing, with more reality in it. It is what is commonly called a life of social service, the service of mankind, and which in many forms and methods of expression is so conspicuous in it, so characteristic of it. But here the question comes, What is this social service force in our modern life? What is the deeper meaning or implication of it? What is the force behind it, working in and through it, and what is it working towards? Or, to put it in simpler and plainer speech, why are people moved to-day, what is it that impels them to give their thought and time, their energy and strength, their sacrificial toil, to the service of mankind, the poor, the weak, the needy, the ignorant and the oppressed and the lot of the little child? What is it that impels them, that prompts and inspires them, men and women, young and old, the students in our colleges and the graduates from our colleges, to enter upon this work, this social service work? Is it simply the working or the welling up within them, vaguely, blindly, they know not how or why or whence, of some humanitarian and altruistic impulse, to minister to human happiness, human need and lack, and the lifting or the easing of heavy human burdens? Or is it simply the working of some new and strong economic impulse, to give, to aid, or to restore to our civilization for its economic enrichment some otherwise unimproved or wasted and neglected economic values? Doubtless it is all this. But is it not also something else and better? Does it not proceed from something like a growing subconscious conviction that the true and normal "human self lies elsewhere" than in itself? Does it not proceed from what someone has called a "spiritual imperative" working below the threshold, or some great and strong and some compelling force "on the road," to use Bergson's phrase, on the road to the life of the spirit, and all feeling more or less some tremendous push; not having reached it yet, but groping, stumbling, feeling its way, and on the road towards it? Is it not, in other words, this spirit of human service, so obvious and evident and so widespread in our modern life, is it not the spirit of Jesus Christ, stirring, moving, working, in the hearts and lives of the people, and on the road—not having found Him yet, but on the road to Christ? This, as I interpret it, and when I try to go beneath its surface signs and forms, is the drift and trend of the present time and age.

The task therefore of the Christian Church, or rather its opportunity, its hopeful opportunity, is to help it to find in Jesus Christ, first, its Spiritual Fulfilment. It does not yet recognize or call itself Christian, and in the highest sense of the term it is not Christian, because it is not associated with God, does not have the sense, does not have the power of fellowship with God. It is man's work for man, working by himself with his own unaided efforts and building up man's kingdom in the world, instead of the work of God for man, working in and through man, and building up God's Kingdom in the world. It sees God perhaps, or sees Him as a Perhaps, energizing in Nature, but not in human nature. It shuts Him out of human life as though it were a sphere of energy and action separated from Him. While the heavens declare His glory, and the firmament shows His handiwork, and the stars in their courses reflect and reveal Him and are obedient to Him, yet what is done in human life on this particular star, however great and good and serviceable it may be, does but show the glory and handiwork of man. What therefore is needed is to bring or to show God and man together, and so to give to the work of man among and for his fellowmen God's fulfilling touch. And what is that but to say that now is the accepted time for the Christian Church to teach, preach, and present to the people of this age, God manifest in the Flesh, the Incarnate Jesus Christ, who, though made originally in the form of God, thought it not a thing to be grasped at to be equal with God, but emptied Himself and took upon Him the form of a servant, and Who, in that spirit of service to mankind, humbled Himself even unto death—the spirit of human service finding in Jesus Christ its Spiritual Fulfilment, and—finding in Jesus Christ its Spiritual Perspective?

This disposition to serve and minister to human life is, as I have said, a characteristic feature of the present age. But its service is for the most part a material service, giving or imparting material relief in the midst of hard conditions, or giving release from them by changing those conditions, and trying thus to give in every possible way to all the people a chance, a better and freer chance. Yes, but a chance for what? Is it simply a chance to get some larger physical gain in life, some larger value in it, of profit or of pleasure? If so, then what reason have we for thinking that when the "Have-nots" shall have became the "Haves" they will be any better or live in any worthier way than some of the present "Haves"? How often, as a matter of fact, have we seen it work so; when some particular person, in some particular trade, calling, or vocation, starting from the bottom has worked his way to the top, or has somehow reached the top? Is he not often just as hard and selfish, inconsiderate and cruel, yes and more so, than those whom he had faulted and criticised and censured when he was himself working down at the bottom of some industrial scale?

Something like this upon a larger scale will be the practical working of much of the social service work of the present time and age, as long as it continues to work exclusively or chiefly upon material lines and with material aims, and what it needs to correct it, or rightly to direct it, is some more spiritual aim, some more spiritual vision, some spiritual perspective, in which to make men see more clearly and more truly what human values are and how and in what way they should be related and balanced and compared; in which to make them see and feel that a man's real life does not consist in the abundance of the things which he possesses, whether he actually have those things, or whether, at present without them, he is simply trying to get them. And what is this but to say again, that what it needs to supplement its present useful work and to help to carry it out on best and truest lines to its best results in society at large, is Jesus Christ. Finding in Jesus Christ its spiritual fulfilment, finding in Jesus Christ its spiritual perspective; and finding in Jesus Christ its spiritual victory note.

Great and good is the work which the social service of the present age is doing, the greatest difficulty in its way is not environment, but sin. I need not here be told, for of course I know as everybody knows, that environment is so often contributory to sin, or is so often a factor in the development of sin; and that when some twelve or twenty persons, men, women, and children, are living or huddled together in a few darkened rooms, as you and I have seen them, they cannot live pure and decent lives, and that the environment must be changed. Yes, we all know that; and yet our ultimate aim in this and every case should be to release and set them free not merely from the slavery of their environment but from the degrading curse and slavery of sin. But is it that, that the social service work of the present age is always aiming at? Is there not a disposition to look upon sin as simply or chiefly as a mistake, to be of course if possible avoided, and yet a more or less inevitable mistake? So it was regarded by the ancient Greeks, whose word for sin ἁμαρτία a recent critic has interpreted to mean simply "bad shots," "which were bound to happen, and when they happened were best soon forgotten, because it was useless to spend thought and remorse on simply bad shots." And the Greek moral standard in this respect at least seems to be coming back into modern life. Yet it is sin which more than anything else hinders and blocks the path of human growth and progress; and that social service is lacking, fundamentally lacking, which does not try to remove this hindrance to its work, which does not try to save and deliver men from sin, and in this manner give their true freedom to them.

And who can do this? Who has done it as Jesus Christ has done it? That is a question which I need not argue with you nor with anybody—whatever his theological belief, or whether without any theological belief—who will see and note and study with impartial mind for the past two thousand years what, as a matter of fact, Jesus Christ has done. "In the roll-call of Fame," says an English essayist, "there are names like Alexander, Caesar, Charlemange, Napoleon; there are names like Plato, Kant, Newton and Darwin, Dante and Goethe, and on the history and the mind of our race each of them has left great and enduring marks and their influence still abides. But which of them has done a work, has left an influence or a name, like the village Carpenter, unlettered and unarmed, who dreamed that God would redeem the world through Him, and died to make the dream come true!" Still quoting the essayist's words, let me recall the scene: "There stood a Prisoner before the High Priest's throne, wounded, buffeted. His cause discredited, friends disillusionized and dispersed, Himself awaiting death in ignominy and torture. 'Art Thou the Christ?' 'I am,' replied the Prisoner. 'Blasphemy,' pronounced the priest. And history has judged between them."

Yes, history has judged, and more and more through the centuries the dream has been coming true, and Jesus Christ, like no one else, has been redeeming the world and doing a social service work by saving men from sin.

The task, therefore, of the Christian Church to-day, nay more, its opportunity, its hopeful opportunity, is to help the best thought and conduct of the age to find in Jesus Christ its spiritual fulfilment, its spiritual perspective, and its spiritual victory note. Has the late General Convention furthered the performance of this task? In its legislative measures, in its various resolutions, in its canonical provisions, its enactments, and amendments—not perhaps very much. But in the earnest spirit and purpose which it showed, in the enthusiasm of its crowded meetings gathered and rallied from the ends of the earth, in which one could feel the beating and the throbbing of a common Christian heart, ready, desirous, and resolved as God should give it wisdom and help it to see the way, to gather into one all His scattered flock from the ends of the earth, and to give and devote itself to the service of Jesus Christ, it has accomplished more and in a more important and more effective way than what the bare outline of its record shows, or what at the present time we can say or see.

DETAILED ACCOUNT OF VISITATIONS AND ACTS.

1912-1913.

Bishop of New York.

The title to the Parish Property is vested in the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of St. Andrew's Church in the Village of Harlem, the Twelfth Ward of the City and County of New York.

A debt still remains upon this property, demanding an annual interest payment of four thousand dollars. Could this indebtedness be removed the support of the Parish could be provided and all canonical claims fully met.

Twenty-six years of Rectorship of St. Andrew's and work in this community justify the opinion that there is immediate necessity in this city for such a combination of Parish Equipment, saving in operating expenses and utilization of waste products as will enable the Parishes to be permanently established, sufficiently endowed, and amply ready for any changes or conditions that city problems may present.

We are granted the rent of our Annex, 839 Morris Park Avenue, $300 a year, by the Board of Managers of the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society. There we have part of our Sunday School, Men and Boys' Club-room, Boy Scouts, Branch of Public Library and Penny Provident Fund. We are trying also to arrange with the N. Y., N. H. & Hartford Railroad Company to operate a lunch room there for employees in a shop they have recently opened.

We need to build an immediate extension or Parish House, on the property adjoining our church building, having failed during the year to secure a new site.

The widening of Ayer Avenue this coming year, will interfere with the appearance of our Chapel, cutting into the stoop.

We are not able to give the value of the lands owned by the Parish, as all property about here is in a transition state. We are greatly burdened with assessments on every side, to meet which we have had to borrow over forty thousand dollars, with the probability of having to borrow many thousands more before the worst is over.

APPENDIX D

CLERICAL REPORTS.

The Bishop of the Diocese has also received reports, according to Canon, from the following Clergymen of the Diocese not having Parochial or Missionary charge.

The Rev. Sturges Allen, O.H.C.

"Reports that during the past year his residence has been at West Park, except for a visit of six weeks at St. Andrew's School, Sewanee, Tennessee. It has been his privilege to celebrate the Holy Eucharist daily with rare exceptions. Sermons and addresses have been delivered at various times."

The Rev. David A. Bonnar.

"Respectfully reports that since his report of last year he has continued to serve as Chaplain of St. Michael's Home, Mamaroneck, and during that time has as a rule, celebrated the Holy Communion daily and said evensong daily; also on Sundays and Holy Days saying Matins. He has preached on Sundays and usually on Wednesday afternoons. Holy Baptism has been administered to 13, and Holy Confirmation to 14, the Bishop Suffragan officiating. It may be worth while to note that on Whitsunday forty-five girls out of the sixty in residence made their Communion."

The Rev. George Houghton Butler.

"Respectfully reports that since his resignation from St. Mary's Chapel, Sherwood Park, in May, 1912, Yonkers, he has been doing the work of a priest, not only in this Diocese but in the Diocese of Central New York and Newark, as well as supply work in two New York City Hospitals. In the month of December he was assigned duty in the Metropolitan Hospital under Chaplain Kues."

The Rev. P. K. Cady, D.D.

"Respectfully reports that his priestly and pastoral work has been restricted to the Holy Eucharist on the Sundays of seven months, and to the spiritual instruction of some persons seeking his guidance."

The Rev. Herbert Morrison Clarke, Ph.D.

"Respectfully reports that during the past year he has filled the chair of modern languages at St. Stephen's College. He has officiated regularly in the college chapel and from time to time in neighboring churches, especially in the chapel at Upper Red Hook."

The Rev. Henry A. Dows.

"Respectfully reports that during the Conventional year he has officiated as Chaplain of the House of the Annunciation, in the City of New York."

The Rev. Arthur Wentworth H. Eaton, D.C.L.

"Respectfully reports that with Bishop Lawrence's kind permission, he has continued to officiate on Sundays in the Diocese of Massachusetts, during three-quarters of the past year. For a quarter of the year has was in Nova Scotia gathering material for new historical papers for the Transactions of the Royal Society of Canada, and for other use. Last spring he was admitted to fellowship in the Royal Society of Canada. In several not unimportant ways, during all the years he has been devoting himself chiefly to literary work, Dr. Eaton has been active in furthering the interests of the Church."

The Rev. Randall C. Hall, D.D.

"Respectfully reports that during the past year he has assisted in the Church of St. Mary the Virgin, and has served as Chaplain of the House of the Holy Comforter, New York City. In the latter Institution 7 were confirmed and there have been 9 funerals. The three months in vacation he has conducted services in the chapel on Money Island, Stony Creek, Conn."

The Rev. J. Gottfried Hammarskold, D.D.

"Respectfully reports that during the year ending October 1, 1913, he has conducted 200 services, taken part in 47, preached 59 sermons, baptized 23 children, solemnized 11 marriages, officiated at 29 funerals, prepared a class for confirmation, translated and published the Book of Common Prayer in the Swedish language, and attended to other duties connected with his office as General Missionary."

The Rev. A. N. Henshaw, Ph.D.

"Reports that during the year just ended he has officiated nearly every Sunday."

The Rev. William Huckel.

"Respectfully reports that by reason of the disability of age (85th year) he has been denied the blessed privilege of officiating in God's House the past year."

The Rev. Arthur P. Hunt.

"Respectfully reports that during the year he has been occupied with his duties as Professor of Ethics in the General Theological Seminary, officiating and preaching as opportunity offered."

The Rev. J. O. S. Huntington, O.H.C.

"Reports that he has celebrated the Holy Eucharist 250 times in the past year, and baptized 1 infant and 2 adults. As Chaplain of St. Faith's House, Tarrytown, he reports that there were there, baptisms: infants, 9; adults, 2; confirmations, 9; burials, 2; celebrations of the Holy Eucharist, 75."

The Rev. Ralph Wood Kenyon, D.D.

"Reports that during the year last past, he has officiated and assisted at services of the Church as opportunity has offered, and also that during the summer the privilege of conducting a series of special services was his."

The Rev. William G. W. Lewis.

"Reports that he has been unable to do any work during the last year, owing to physical disability. At the present date this continues to prevent him from even attending public services."

The Rev. J. H. Logie.

"Reports that he is doing temporary work from time to time as it is offered to him. At present he is in charge of the Church of Our Father, at Hull's Cove, Me., with its adjacent missions."

The Rev. E. F. H. J. Masse.

"Begs to report that during the Convention year he has officiated regularly, and, without intermission for the whole period, at the Church of the Advent, Boston, and since the first of May at Christ Church, New Haven. He has officiated each Sunday and each work day, all of which acts are recorded in the Registers of the parishes named."

The Rev. D. Parker Morgan, D.D.

Rector Emeritus of the Church of the Heavenly Rest, New York City.

"Respectfully reports that during the past year he has been in charge of Christ Church, Sharon, Conn. He has also officiated on several occasions in the Church of the Heavenly Rest, and elsewhere."

The Rev. G. L. Nicholas, M.D.

"Reports that in addition to his duties at St. Mary's Free Hospital for Children, he has, during the past year, enjoyed many opportunities for supply work, as at the Church of the Transfiguration, St. Luke's Chapel, and other parishes, and for the City Mission. This work has included the Divine Sacrifice, the Choir Offices, preaching, instructions, baptisms, confessions, solemnization of Holy Matrimony, parochial visiting, etc. In all of these ways he has officiated many times."

The Rev. J. Newton Perkins.

"Respectfully reports that from November, 1912, he has discharged his duties as Corresponding Secretary of the American Church Building Fund Commission. In addition to these duties he has officiated in different dioceses at the request of his clerical brethren. His clerical acts have been 2 baptisms and 2 funerals."

The Rev. Arthur H. Proffitt.

"Reports that he has conducted services on eight Sundays, celebrated the Holy Communion twice, and had one baptism."

The Rev. William C. Rodgers, D.D.

"Respectfully reports that he has regularly performed his clerical duties in the Chapel of St. Stephen's College, besides preaching in a number of churches on behalf of that Institution."

The Very Rev. Wilford L. Robbins, D.D.

"Reports that the past year he has performed many regular duties as Dean of the General Theological Seminary. On Sundays he has preached in New York, and in various dioceses as occasion offered."

The Rev. William J. Seabury, D.D.

"Reports that he continues in the discharge of his duties as Professor of Ecclesiastical Polity and Law in the General Theological Seminary; and that he has officiated in the services of the ministry as opportunity offered, having during the year ending April 30, 1913, celebrated the Holy Eucharist 22 times, performed daily services 31 times, administered baptism once, solemnized marriage once, officiating also at 2 funerals."

The Rev. Henry T. Scudder.

"Reports that he has officiated every Sunday, except six, during the past year. He has been able in thus officiating to help Dean Grosvenor at the Cathedral, the Rev. Dr. Sturges at St. Cornelius, the Rev. J. A. Wade at St. John Evangelist's, also helping others of the Clergy. He has celebrated the Holy Communion 40 times, Baptisms 4, Marriages 2, Burials 4."

The Rev. J. J. Rowan Spong.

"Has the honor to report that during the year ending October 31, 1913, he has assisted at the Holy Communion twice, and preached 44 times. The nature of his infirmity is such that he can preach but not officiate otherwise."

The Rev. J. Nevett Steele, M.D.

"Reports that during the past year he has exercised the office of his ministry as occasion demanded, both in the Diocese and outside of it."

The Rev. J. Frederick Talcott.

"Begs to report that for the past year he has continued his ministerial duties as heretofore, carrying on his mission work in this city and officiating as occasions afforded in this Diocese and elsewhere. From May to November he has regularly assisted in the services of St. George's Church, Rumsen, New Jersey."

The Rev. William H. Vibbert, S.T.D.

"Respectfully reports that during the past Convention year he has baptised 3 infants, married 3 couples, and attended 10 funerals; most of which official acts are included in the report of Trinity Chapel, New York."

The Rev. Isaac Yohannan.

"Reports that this is the third year that he has been engaged as instructor and Chaplain of the Kearney Military Academy, Kearney, Neb."

THE CONSTITUTION OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN THE DIOCESE OF NEW YORK

As Adopted October 11, 1796; and Amended October 17, 1827; October 2, 1834; October 4, 1839; September 29, 1843; September 26, 1850; September 28, 1860; September 28, 1882; September 26, 1889; September 14, 1902; September 28, 1905; November 15, 1906; November 14, 1907; November 12, 1908; November 8, 1911.

ARTICLE I.

There shall be a Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese in each year. It shall be held at the Cathedral on the second Wednesday in November, unless the Bishop, with the consent of the Standing Committee, or, in case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, unless the Standing Committee shall appoint another place or time.

ARTICLE II.

The Bishop shall have power to call Special Conventions, when he may judge it conducive to the good of the Church; and shall do so when applied to for that purpose by the Standing Committee; and in case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the Standing Committee shall have power to call a Special Convention.

ARTICLE III.

The Convention shall consist of the Bishop and the Bishop-Coadjutor (if there be one), and the Suffragan Bishops (if there be one or more) of the Diocese and of Clerical and Lay Members.

The Clerical Members shall be those Clergymen canonically resident within the Diocese not less than six months immediately preceding the meeting of the Convention, who shall be either Archdeacons of the Diocese, or settled in some Church in union with the Convention, or in the Cathedral, or employed as Missionaries under the direction of the Convention, or engaged within the Diocese as Professors or Instructors in any incorporated institution of learning, or as Superintendents or Chaplains in any incorporated charitable institution, or Clergymen who, having attained the age of sixty-five years, shall have retired from the active work of the Ministry after holding for not less than ten years one or more of the positions hereinbefore named.

The Lay Members shall be male Delegates from the several Churches in union with the Convention, not exceeding three from each Church, chosen by the Vestry or Congregation.

ARTICLE IV.

Every Convention shall be opened with such services as shall be approved by the Bishop, or in case of his absence or inability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, by the Standing Committee.

ARTICLE V.

The Bishop shall preside in the Convention; but in case of a vacancy, or necessary absence, the members shall elect a President from among the Clergy.

ARTICLE VI.

A Secretary shall be chosen, upon the assembling of the Annual Convention, from among the members thereof, who shall remain in office until the meeting of the next Convention. His duty shall be to take minutes of their proceedings, to preserve their journals and records, to attest the public acts of the body, and faithfully to deliver into the hands of his successor all books and papers, relative to the concerns of the Convention, which may be in his possession. It shall also be his duty to give due notice to each Minister and Vestry of the time and place appointed for the meeting of the succeeding Convention.

ARTICLE VII.

In all matters which shall come before the Convention, the Clergy and the Laity shall deliberate in one body. In voting each clerical member shall have one vote, the Bishop, the Bishop-Coadjutor and the Suffragan Bishops, having the right to vote with the clergy. When votes are taken by orders the lay delegates of each Church shall be entitled to one vote, except that when more than one Church or Chapel shall be united under one Vestry, and shall have been so united and recognized by the Convention prior to the last Wednesday in September in the year of our Lord 1859; the delegates of such Vestry only shall be entitled to one vote for each Church or Chapel.

Except in cases where a vote by orders is required, the concurrence of a majority of the Clerical and Lay Members voting shall constitute a vote; but in any case a vote by orders may be required by five members. When a vote by orders is taken the concurrence of a majority of the members of each order voting shall constitute a vote. In the election of a Bishop or Bishop Coadjutor, or Suffragan Bishop, the two orders shall always vote separately.

ARTICLE VIII.

Whenever in the Constitution or Canons of this Diocese provision is made for action by the Bishop, such action, in case of the absence or disability of the Bishop, shall devolve upon the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, but if there be none, or in case of the absence or disability of the Bishop Coadjutor, shall devolve upon the Suffragan Bishop, if there be one or if there be more than one, shall devolve upon the senior in point of consecration, or in case of his absence or disability, shall devolve upon the other Suffragan Bishops in the order of their consecration, and shall devolve upon the Standing Committee or other authority or person, in cases where provision is made for their action in the place of the Bishop, only in the event of the absence or disability of the Bishop, the Bishop Coadjutor and the Suffragan Bishop or Bishops, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate.

ARTICLE IX.

The mode of altering this Constitution shall be as follows: A proposition for an amendment shall be introduced in writing and considered in the Convention; and, if approved of, shall lie over to the next Convention, and, if again approved of in such next Convention, by a majority of the two orders voting thereon separately, the change shall take place, and the Constitution so altered shall be valid and obligatory.

CANONS.

Adopted October 2, 1834; and Amended October 4, 1839; October 1, 1841; September 30, 1842; September 29, 1843; September 27, 1844; September 26 and 30, 1845; September 29, 1848; September 26, 1851; October 1, 1852; September 29, 1859; September 28, 1860; October 2, 1863; September 27, 1866; November 15, 1867; September 29, 1870; September 28, 1872; September 25, 1873; September 28, 1877; September 26, 1884; October 1, 1885; September 30 and October 1, 1886; September 29, 1887; September 27, 1888; September 26, 1889; September 25, 1890; October 1, 1891; September 27 and 28, 1893; September 27, 1894; September 26, 1895; October 1, 1896; September 30, 1897; September 29, 1898; September 27, 1900; September 26, 1901; September 24 and 25, 1902; November 15, 1906; November 14, 1907; November 12, 1908; November 12, 1909; November 9 and 10, 1910; November 8 and 9, 1911; November 13 and 14, 1912; November 12 and 13, 1913.

CANON I.

A List to be made of Ministers in the Diocese.

Within one week before the meeting of every Convention of this Diocese, the Bishop, or in case there be no Bishop, or of his inability or disability to act, then the Standing Committee of the Diocese, shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, a list of all the Ministers of the Protestant Episcopal Church canonically resident in this Diocese, annexing the names of their respective Cures or Parishes, or Stations as Missionaries, or of the Colleges, Academies, or other Seminaries or incorporated Charitable Institutions in which they are engaged; or, in regard to those who are not engaged in Parishes, Missions, or Institutions of learning, as above, their places of residence only; but no Clergyman while suspended from the Ministry shall have a place on the said list. Such list shall be recorded by the Secretary of the Convention in a book to be kept for that purpose, and be prefixed to the Journal.

CANON II.

Of the Members of the Convention and the Evidence of their Rights to Seats.

Sec. 1. A list of the names of all Clergymen entitled to seats in the Convention, under Article III of the Constitution, shall be prepared by the Bishop, or in case there be no Bishop, or of his inability or disability to act, then by the Standing Committee. Said list shall be laid before the Convention on the first day of meeting, and shall be presumptive evidence of a right to a seat of all those whose names appear thereon.

SEC. 2. In case the right of any Clergyman of this Diocese to a seat in the Convention shall be disputed or claimed, it shall be determined according to the provision of the third Article of the Constitution by the Convention itself.

SEC. 3. The Secretary of the Convention shall record in a book, to be provided by him, and kept in accordance with the Canon of the General Convention, entitled "Of the Filling of Vacant Cures," all certificates that shall be transmitted to him in accordance with said Canon.

In case of a contested right to a seat in the Convention of any Clergyman who shall have been elected to any Church or Parish in this Diocese, after the passage of this Canon, the evidence of settlement shall consist in the said record; or in the production to the Convention of the certificate required by this Section, to be recorded as aforesaid, together with a certificate of the Bishop or of the Standing Committee, of his or their being satisfied that the person so chosen is a qualified Minister of this Church.

SEC. 4. Every Minister who may be received into this Diocese shall procure from the Bishop, or in case of his disability or inability to act, from a majority of the clerical members of the Standing Committee, duly convened, a certificate that he has been received into this Diocese in compliance with the Canon of the General Convention. And before he shall be entitled to a seat in the Convention, he shall transmit such certificate to the Secretary, to be recorded in the book mentioned in the preceding Section. And in case of the contested right to a seat in the Convention of any Minister who may be received into this Diocese, the production of such record, or of such certificate, or of the Secretary's written acknowledgment of his receipt of the same, shall be presumptive evidence of regular admission, and the certificate, if not previously recorded, shall thereupon be recorded by the Secretary in the said book.

SEC. 5. In case of a contested right to a seat in the Convention of a Clergyman claiming such right by virtue of his being employed as a Missionary under the direction of this Convention, the evidence of such employment shall consist in the written certificate of the Bishop; or, in case of a vacancy of the Episcopate, or of the inability or disability of the Bishop, in the written certificate of the Chairman of the Missionary Committee of the Diocese.

SEC. 6. In case of a contested right to a seat in the Convention of a Clergyman claiming such right by virtue of his being engaged as a Professor or Instructor of Youth in a College, Academy, or General Seminary of Learning, duly incorporated, the evidence of his connection with such College, Academy, or Seminary shall consist in the written certificate of the President or Secretary of such Corporation that he is so employed.

SEC. 7. (I.) Lay Delegates from Churches having Vestries shall be appointed by the Vestry, at a regular meeting, held according to law.

(II.) The evidence of the appointment of a Lay Delegate from a Church having a Vestry shall be a certificate signed by the Rector of the Church and by the Clerk of the Vestry. If there be no Rector, or if the appointment shall have been made at any legal Vestry meeting held in his absence, then such certificate shall state that fact, and shall be signed by the Warden who presides at the meeting at which such Delegate is appointed, and also by the Clerk of the Vestry. The certificate must show upon its face that the appointment has been made in accordance with all the requirements of the Canons, and shall certify that the Delegate is a Lay member, entitled to vote for Wardens and Vestrymen of the Church which he is appointed to represent.

(III.) The evidence of appointment of a Lay Delegate from a Church having no Vestry shall be a certificate signed by the Minister of such Church, or by the officer who presides at the meeting of the congregation by which he was appointed, and also by the Clerk or Secretary of such meeting. The certificate shall state the time and place of the election, and shall certify that the person appointed has been duly chosen by such Church or Con-gation as a Lay Delegate; that he is a Lay member of such Church or Congregation, and has been such member for at least twelve months next preceding the time of his appointment, and that the election was held in accordance with all the requirements of the Canons.

(IV.) No other certificate or evidence of appointment of any Lay Delegate than such as is above required shall be allowed or received.

SEC. 8. No Lay Delegate from a Church having a Vestry shall be entitled to a seat in the Convention unless he be entitled to vote for Wardens and Vestrymen of the Church which he is appointed to represent.

SEC. 9. A copy of the seventh and eighth sections of this Canon shall be transmitted annually by the Secretary of the Convention to every Church in this Diocese in union with the Convention, together with a blank printed form of certificate of appointment of Lay Delegates, and the notice which he is required by the Constitution to give of the time and place appointed for the meeting of the succeeding Convention.

SEC. 10. It shall be the duty of the Clerks of the Vestries of the Parishes which have been admitted into union with this Convention, immediately after the appointment of the Lay Delegates to the Diocesan Convention, to certify their election to the Secretary of the Convention in the form prescribed by Sections 7 and 8 of this Canon. From the certificates thus received the Secretary shall prepare a list of Lay Delegates for use in the organization of the Convention.

SEC. 11. The presence of at least fifty Clergymen entitled to vote in the Convention, and of Delegates from at least forty congregations, shall be necessary to the transaction of business—except that a smaller number may adjourn from day to day.

SEC. 12. If the President ex-officio of the Convention is not present at its opening, the Secretary of the Convention shall call to order the members present, when the senior presbyter present entitled to a seat in the Convention shall take the chair, and shall preside until a President be elected, as provided by Article V of the Constitution.

SEC. 13. The Secretary of the Convention, under the direction of the Bishop, or, in case of his absence or inability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, under the direction of the Standing Committee, shall call over the names of the Clergy entitled to seats.

SEC. 14. He shall call the names of the Lay Delegates whose election has been certified to him, in pursuance of Section 10 of this Canon. The President shall then appoint a committee of three persons, to whom shall be referred the credentials of the Lay Delegates, who shall report upon the correctness of the roll made by the Secretary.

SEC. 15. The calling of the names of the Clergy entitled to seats and of the Lay Delegates may be dispensed with by a unanimous vote of the members of the Convention present, provided that evidence satisfactory to the Convention of the presence of a canonical quorum of each order be laid before the Convention by the Secretary. In such case the Secretary shall take means to secure a correct list of the Clergy entitled to seats and of the Lay Delegates who are present at the Convention.

SEC. 16. A quorum, which shall consist of fifty Clergymen and Delegates from forty Congregations, being present, the President ex-officio, if present, shall declare the Convention duly organized. If he be absent, or unable to act, the temporary President shall direct that the members proceed to vote for a President, as provided in Article V of the Constitution, which election shall be by ballot, unless dispensed with by the unanimous vote of the members present. The President, being elected, shall declare the Convention organized for business.

SEC. 17. The Convention shall then proceed to the election of a Secretary and Treasurer of the Convention, by ballot, unless dispensed with by the unanimous vote of the members present. The Secretary shall appoint two assistants, and announce their names to the Convention.

SEC. 18. The existing Rules of Order, so far as they are applicable to the preliminary proceedings for the organization of the Convention, shall be deemed in force for that purpose; and the said Rules of Order, except such of them as prescribe the mode of altering the same, shall regulate the proceedings after the organization, until altered by the Convention.

CANON III.

Of the Call of the Convention.

Unless it be otherwise directed by the Convention, the mode of giving notice of the meeting of any Convention shall be by an advertisement of the time and place of such meeting, signed by the Secretary, and published in three of the public papers, or Church journals, printed in the Diocese of New York. Whenever, under the provisions of the Constitution, a Special Convention is called for any particular purpose, it shall be the duty of the Secretary, in the notice thereof, to specify such purpose.

CANON IV.

Of the Admission of a Church as a Parish into Union with the Church in this Diocese and Maintaining such Union.

SEC. 1. Every Church or Congregation desiring admission as a Parish into union with the Church in this Diocese shall present a written application therefor to the Convention, together with a copy of the Resolution of the Vestry or of the Congregation authorizing such application; in which resolution the said Church by its Vestry or Congregation, shall agree to abide by, and conform to and observe all the Canons of the Church, and all the rules, orders, and regulations of the Convention, and to pay its Rector, so long as it shall remain in union with the Convention, in regular monthly or quarterly installments, a salary of not less than $1,500 per annum, or a salary of not less than $1,200 per annum and to provide for him a suitable residence, or a reasonable allowance in lieu thereof; which copy shall be duly certified by the presiding officer of the Vestry, or of the meeting of the Congregation at which the resolution was adopted, and also by the Clerk of the Vestry or Secretary of the meeting; and shall be authenticated by the seal of the corporation.

The said application shall also be accompanied by the Certificate of Incorporation of the Church, duly recorded, or a copy thereof, certified by the officer whose duty it may be to record or to file the same; and also by a Certificate of the Bishop, or, in case of his absence, or of his inability or disability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, of the Standing Committee, that he or they approve of the Incorporation of said Church, and that such Church, in his or their judgment, is duly established; and also, by a certificate executed by the authority of the Vestry or of the meeting, authenticated by the seal of the corporation, to the effect that such Church or Congregation is willing and able among its own members to raise at least $1,500 per annum for the salary of its Rector, or to raise at least $1,200 for his salary and to provide for him a suitable residence or a reasonable allowance in lieu thereof.

Every Church or Congregation applying for admission shall produce satisfactory evidence that not less than twenty-five persons, members of such Church, have habitually, for at least one year preceding such application, attended divine service in such Church or Congregation.

The Certificate of Incorporation of every Church incorporated under any Act of the Legislature of the State of New York, save the General Act of April 5, 1813, and the Amendments thereto shall declare upon its face that the Church or Congregation is a Protestant Episcopal Church, and that it is forever to continue such, in communion with the Protestant Episcopal Church in the State of New York; and it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Convention to prepare and furnish blanks for the Certificate of Incorporation of Parishes, which shall embody the above provision.

Sec. 2. (I.) No application for the admission of a Parish into union with the Church in this Diocese shall be considered or acted upon at any meeting of the Convention, unless the same has been transmitted to the Secretary of the Convention at least forty days before the meeting of the Convention.

(II.) It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Convention, at least thirty days before the meeting of the Convention, to deliver to a Committee, to be annually appointed (to be called the Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Churches), all applications for admission into union which shall have been received by him, to be by such Committee examined, considered and reported upon to the Convention.

SEC. 3. Whenever any Parish in union with this Convention shall neglect for three years in succession to make a Parochial Report, no missionary report being made on its behalf, and shall not, during the same period, have employed a Clergyman as its Parish Minister, nor requested of the ecclesiastical authority to have the services of a Missionary, such Parish shall be regarded as having forfeited its connection with the Convention, and shall no longer have a right to send a Delegate or Delegates to the same.

The Bishop shall report such Parish to the Convention in his Annual Address.

Such Parish, however, may be re-admitted, upon application to the Convention, accompanied by a report of its condition, and on such terms as shall appear just; such re-admission to take effect from and after the rising of the Convention consenting to such admission.

CANON V.

Of the Secretary of the Convention.

SEC. 1. In addition to the constitutional provisions concerning the Secretary, it is hereby declared that this officer shall be chosen by ballot after viva voce nominations of the Candidates, and shall continue in office until a new election is made.

SEC. 2. He shall transmit annually to each of the Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, and to the Secretary of the last House of Clerical and Lay Deputies in the General Convention, and to the Secretary of every Diocesan Convention, a copy of the Journal of the Convention; and shall request the last to send copies of their respective Journals in exchange.

SEC. 3. He shall also transmit to every General Convention in addition to the documents mentioned in the Canons of the General Convention, a certificate, to be signed by himself, containing a list of the Clergymen in this Diocese, and the amount of funds paid or secured to be paid (distinguishing them) to the General Theological Seminary, together with the nomination of Trustees of that Seminary; and also a like certificate of the appointment of Clerical and Lay Deputies.

SEC. 4. Any expense incurred by a compliance with the third section of this Canon shall be paid out of the Diocesan Fund.

SEC. 5. Whenever there shall be a vacancy in the office of Secretary of the Convention, the duties thereof shall devolve upon one of the Assistant Secretaries in the order of their appointment, if there be one; if not, upon the Secretary of the Standing Committee.

CANON VI.

Of the Treasurer of the Convention.

SEC. 1. At every Annual Convention there shall be chosen by ballot a Treasurer of the Diocese, who shall remain in office until the next Annual Convention and until his successor is appointed and shall have qualified. The Treasurer shall perform such duties as from time to time shall be prescribed by Canon, and shall act as financial agent for the Diocese for the receipt and disbursement of moneys collected under the authority of the Convention, except contributions for Domestic and Foreign Missions. He shall safely keep an account of all moneys or funds that shall come into his hands and shall deposit the same in such banks or places of deposit as the Committee on Diocesan Finances may authorize. He shall keep accurate books of account, which shall be open to inspection of the Committee on Diocesan Finances and give such information upon the finances of the Diocese and the conduct of his office as may be required by the Committee. He shall submit annually to the Convention a report of the receipts and disbursements of the Diocese. He shall give the bond or security that from time to time may be required by the Committee on Diocesan Finances, and the expenses therefor shall be paid out of the fund for Diocesan Expenses.

SEC. 2. In case of a vacancy in the office of the Treasurer, it shall be supplied by an appointment to be made by the Standing Committee, and the person so appointed shall continue to act until an appointment shall be made by the Convention.

CANON VII.

Of the Registrar of the Diocese.

The Registrar of the Diocese shall hold his office under the appointment, and during the pleasure, of the Bishop.

It shall be his duty, under the direction of the Bishop, to aid the Bishop in keeping a record of his episcopal acts, in the preparation of official documents for his signature, and of lists of the clergy and of candidates and postulants for Holy Orders.

He shall have the custody of the Archives of the Convention and of its committees. He shall attend the Bishop, as and when required, at ordinations and other religious services; and shall perform such other acts in relation to the custody and use, the certification and transmission, of official records and documents as the Bishop may prescribe.

CANON VIII.

Of the Historiographer of the Diocese.

The Bishop, from time to time, may appoint a Diocesan Historiographer, who shall hold his office during the pleasure of the Bishop.

It shall be his duty to collect, preserve, arrange, and edit historical and biographical matter pertaining to the Diocese, its parishes, institutions and activities; and to submit to the Conventions an annual report.

CANON IX.

Of Parish Registers and Parochial Reports.

Sec. 1. Every Minister in charge of a Parish in this Diocese shall keep a Register of Baptisms, Confirmations, Communicants, Marriages, and Funerals within his Cure.

Sec. 2. The record shall specify the name and time of birth of each child baptized, with the names of the parents and sponsors; the name of each adult baptized; the name of each person confirmed; the names of the parties married, with the names of the witness or witnesses required by the civil law; the name of each person buried; and also the time when each rite was performed. These Registers shall be kept by the Minister in a book to be provided for that purpose, belonging to the Vestry of each Church; which book shall be the Parish Register, and shall be preserved by the Vestry as a part of the records of the Church.

The list of communicants shall embrace all within his Cure as nearly as can be ascertained, and he shall also keep a list of the families and adult persons in his Cure, as far as practicable.

SEC. 3. Every Minister of this Church shall present, or cause to be delivered, on or before the first day of every annual Convention, to the Bishop of the Diocese, or, when there is no Bishop, to the President of the Convention, a statement of the number of Baptisms, Confirmations, Marriages, and Funerals; and of the number of Communicants in his Parish or Church, and of all other matters that may throw light on the state of the same.

SEC. 4. In every case where a Parish is without a Minister, the Register contemplated by this Canon shall be kept by some person appointed by the Vestry for that purpose; and the annual Parochial Reports shall be presented or forwarded to the Bishop by the Wardens of the Parish.

SEC. 5. The Register contemplated by this Canon shall at all times be subject to inspection by the Bishop or by such persons as he may appoint.

SEC. 6. Upon the dissolution of a Parish the Register, provided for by this Canon, shall immediately become the property of the Diocese, and the Trustees of the Estate and Property of the Diocesan Convention shall cause the said Register to be deposited with the Bishop, to be under his care for the legitimate purposes thereof.

CANON X.

Of Preparing a Report on the State of the Church.

A Committee of the Convention of this Diocese shall be appointed at the stated meeting of the same next before every stated meeting of the General Convention, in accordance with the Canon* thereof, to assist the Bishop in preparing a report of the state of the Church in this Diocese, and a list of the Clergy, to be presented to the General Convention

* Canon 47, § 2.

CANON XI.

Concerning Elections.

SEC. 1. Elections by ballot, when required by these Canons, may be dispensed with by a unanimous vote of the Convention. And when an election is by ballot, a majority of the votes in each order shall be necessary to a valid election: provided that if any election a greater number of persons than the number of offices to be filled shall receive a canonical majority of the votes cast, those who up to the number of offices to be filled receive the largest canonical majorities in both orders shall be declared elected.

SEC. 2. Within one week before the meeting of the annual Convention of this Diocese, the Secretary shall send to all the clergy entitled to vote in such convention, for their information and for the information of the lay delegates, a list of all offices to be filled by election at such convention, and the Secretary shall request nominations for such offices.

SEC. 3. The mode of conducting the nominations and elections of the Standing Committee, the Deputies and Provisional Deputies to the General Convention, and Deputies and Provisional Deputies to the Provincial Synod of the Second Province, shall be as follows:

Any member of the Convention may place in the hands of the Secretary, in writing, on or before the Monday preceding the first day of the meeting thereof, nominations signed by himself, for the Standing Committee, for Clerical and Lay Deputies and Provisional Deputies to the General Convention, and Deputies and Provisional Deputies to the Provincial Synod of the Second Province. All names so sent in shall be reported to the Convention by the Secretary, at the beginning of the first day's session, in the form of a ballot, on which the names shall be arranged in alphabetical order. After each list of nominations as many blank spaces shall be left as there are vacancies to be filled. These blanks may be filled by any voter. The voter shall mark an X at the right of the name of each person for whom he votes. On the first ballot these ballots only shall be used, and also in all subsequent ballots, except when otherwise ordered by the Convention. No ballot shall be counted on which more names are marked than there are vacancies to be filled, and the number of vacancies to be filled shall be printed on each ballot.

The Secretary shall provide a board, to be hung up in a conspicuous place, near the entrance to the Convention, on which shall be posted the nominations so received, and also the names of the present members of the Standing Committee, Deputies and Provisional Deputies to General Convention and Deputies and Provisional Deputies to the Provisional Synod of the Second Province; and these names shall also be printed on the back of the ballot provided by the Secretary.

SEC. 4. In the election of a Bishop or Bishop Coadjutor the two orders shall always vote separately.

CANON XII.

Of Deputies to the General Convention.

SEC. 1. The Convention shall, at the regular annual meeting next preceding a stated meeting of the General Convention, elect by ballot four Clergymen and four Laymen to act as Deputies from this Diocese to the General Convention. It shall also elect by ballot four Clergymen and four Laymen, as Provisional Deputies, to act in the case hereinafter mentioned; which Deputies and Provisional Deputies shall hold their respective stations until successors are appointed, and shall be Deputies, or Provisional Deputies, for any General Convention which may be held during their continuance in office.

SEC. 2. Should a vacancy occur by resignation, removal from the Diocese, death, or otherwise, among the Deputies or Provisional Deputies, between the stated times of election, the vacancy shall be supplied by any Convention, during or prior to which such vacancy shall occur.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the Deputies elect to signify to the Bishop, at least two days before the meeting of the General Convention, their acceptance of the appointment and their intention to perform its duties; in default of which the Bishop shall designate, from the list of Provisional Deputies, so many as may be necessary to insure, as far as practicable, a full representation of the Diocese. The Bishop, also, from time to time shall designate one of the Provisional Deputies to supply, either temporarily or permanently, any vacancy caused by the death, absence or inability of any Deputy. During such period as shall be stated in the certificate issued to him by the Bishop, the Provisional Deputy so designated shall possess, and shall be entitled to exercise, the power and authority of the Deputy in place of whom he shall have been designated.

SEC. 4. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or the inability of the Bishop to act, the power conferred upon the Bishop by this Canon shall be exercised by the Standing Committee.

CANON XIII.

Of Deputies to the Provincial Synod.

SEC. 1. The Convention at each annual meeting shall elect by ballot one clergyman and one layman to act as Deputies from this Diocese to the Provincial Synod of the Second Province. It shall elect also by ballot two clergymen and two laymen as Provisional Deputies to serve as provided by Canon in case of absence of inability, either temporary or permanent, of any Deputy. Such Deputies and Provisional Deputies shall hold their respective positions for the period of four years and until their several successors are elected and shall be Deputies or Provisional Deputies for any Provincial Synod which may be held during their continuance in office, provided that the surviving and continuing deputies to the Missionary Council during the periods for which they were severally appointed shall continue to be deputies to the Provincial Synod.

SEC. 2. Any and all vacancies existing or occurring in the office of Deputy to the Provincial Synod shall be filled in the same manner, by like authority and for the like periods as in these Canons prescribed for filling vacancies in the office of Deputy to the General Convention.

CANON XIV.

Of the Standing Committee.

SEC. 1. The Standing Committee shall consist of four clergymen and four laymen, to be elected by ballot. Within thirty days after the adjournment of the Convention of 1911 the members of the Standing Committee who shall be elected by that Convention shall divide themselves by lot into four classes, one clergyman and one layman in each class, to hold office for terms of one, two, three and four years respectively, and until the election of their successors, and shall notify the Secretary of the Convention in writing of the result of such division. If after the expiration of forty days after the adjournment of the Convention the members of the Committee shall have failed so to notify the Secretary, he shall at once proceed by lot to divide the members of the Committee into classes as aforesaid, and they shall respectively hold their offices accordingly. At each succeeding stated Convention one clergyman and one layman shall be elected to hold their offices for four years. Vacancies occurring by death or otherwise shall be supplied by the concurrent vote of the clerical and lay members of the Committee until the next stated Convention. Except in the case of members chosen to fill vacancies no member of the Committee shall be eligible for membership for one year after the expiration of his term of office.

Sec. 2. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or the inability or disability of the Bishop, the powers and duties to be performed by the Bishop in matters of discipline shall be performed by the Standing Committee, except in those cases where such powers and duties are or may be specially delegated to, or enjoined upon, the Clerical members of said Committee; in which cases such powers and duties shall be exercised by said Clerical members alone; provided, that no sentence shall be pronounced on a Clergyman but by a Bishop.

Sec. 3. The record of all proceedings upon a presentment of a Clergyman shall be preserved by the Standing Committee, and for that purpose shall, after a final decision, be delivered to their Secretary.

Sec. 4. Should a stated Convention, from any cause, not be held at the appointed time, or if such Convention should be held, but no election be made, pursuant to Section 1 of this Canon, then the last Standing Committee elected shall continue to perform the duties of the office until a new election takes place.

SEC. 5. Whenever application shall be made to the Standing Committee for their consent to an application to a Court for leave to sell or mortgage real property, which at the time of such application is used by a congregation for regular religious services, the Standing Committee shall not give their consent until it shall have been made to appear to their satisfaction that notice of the application has been given to the congregation.

SEC. 6. The Standing Committee shall annually report to the Convention for its information such of its completed official acts as do not pertain to the exercise of its functions as a council of advice to the Bishop.

CANON XV.

Of the Social Service Commission.

The Social Service Commission shall consist of four clergymen and four laymen, to be elected by ballot. Within thirty days after the adjournment of the Convention of 1911 the members of the Social Service Commission who shall be elected by that Convention shall divide themselves by lot into four classes, one clergyman and one layman in each class, to hold office for terms of one, two, three and four years respectively, and until the election of their successors, and shall notify the Secretary of the Convention in writing of the result of such division. If, after the expiration of forty days after the adjournment of the Convention, the members of the Commission shall have failed so to notify the Secretary, he shall at once proceed by lot to divide the members of the Commission into classes as aforesaid, and they shall respectively hold their offices accordingly. At each succeeding stated Convention one clergyman and one layman shall be elected to hold their offices for four years. All vacancies occurring in the said Commission shall be filled by the concurrent vote of its Clerical and Lay members until the next stated Convention, when the vacancy shall be filled for the balance of the term. Except in the case of members chosen to fill vacancies until the next stated Convention no member shall be eligible to the Commission for one year after the expiration of his term of service.

CANON XVI.

Of a Diocesan Board of Religious Education.

SEC. 1. There shall be a Diocesan Board of Religious Education, subject to the Convention, the duty of which shall be to promote moral and religious education in this Diocese.

SEC. 2. The members of the Board shall be the Bishop of the Diocese, the Bishop Coadjutor, or Suffragan, if there be such, ex-officio, three persons to be appointed annually by the Bishop, and six clergymen and six laymen to be elected by the Convention.

SEC. 3. The Board shall at its first meeting select of those thus elected two clergymen and two laymen to serve for one year, two clergymen and two laymen to serve for two years, and two clergymen and two laymen to serve for three years. Each Convention thereafter shall elect two clergymen and two laymen to serve for three years, to take the places of those whose terms of office shall have expired.

SEC. 4. The Board shall have power to adopt such measures as shall be necessary to the prosecution of the purpose for which it is created, and for co-operation with the General Board of Religious Education appointed by the General Convention.

SEC. 5. The Board shall report annually to the Diocesan Convention.

CANON XVII.

Of Vacant Parishes, and Clergymen without Cure.

SEC. 1. Whenever a Parish becomes vacant by the resignation or decease of the incumbent, or otherwise, due notice of the same shall be given by the Clerk of the Vestry or Trustees to the Ordinary, who, with the concurrence of the authorities of the Parish, shall take such measures as he may deem expedient for the temporary maintenance of religious services in such Parish.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of the Vestry or Trustees of such vacant Parish to provide for the compensation of the Minister appointed under the preceding section.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the authorities of such vacant Parish to consult with the Bishop of the Diocese before proceeding to fill the vacancy.

SEC. 4. Any Clergyman without cure resident in, or visiting, this Diocese and desiring to take temporary or occasional service therein shall signify to the Bishop his wish to officiate in this Diocese. A list of such Clergymen as shall be licensed by the Bishop for such duty shall be kept at the Diocesan House. And no Rector or Parish shall employ the services of any Clergyman without cure for more than one day, unless he shall have the written license of the Bishop.

CANON XVIII.

Of the Establishment and Boundaries of Parishes and Mission Districts.

SEC. 1. The Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, may determine, and from time to time may alter, the boundaries of the parishes and mission districts of this Diocese, and may constitute new parishes and mission districts, and may erect mission districts into parishes; provided that not less than twenty days' previous notice of a time and place when the Standing Committee will hear any persons interested in the matter shall in each case be given to the incumbents of such parishes or mission districts as in the opinion of the Standing Committee may be affected by the proposed action. The Bishop's certificates of the determination or alteration of the boundaries of parishes or mission districts, of the constitution of new parishes or mission districts, and of the erection of mission districts into parishes, countersigned by the President of the Standing Committee, shall be delivered to the Secretary of the Convention, who shall record the same in a book to be kept by him for the purpose, to be called the Diocesan Register of Parishes and Mission Districts, and shall furnish a copy thereof, in the case of a parish or of a mission district forming part of a parish, to the Rector of the parish, who shall cause the same to be recorded in the Book of Minutes of the Vestry; or, in the case of a mission district assigned to a chapel or mission maintained by the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society, to the Society, who shall cause the same to be recorded in its Book of Minutes; or, in the case of any other mission district, to the Archdeacon within whose jurisdiction the district shall be situated, who shall cause such copy to be recorded in the Book of Minutes of his Archdeaconry.

SEC. 2. Wherever a chapel or a mission is maintained by a parish, if it be included within the parish boundaries assigned to the parish church, no separate district shall be assigned to it; but if it be not included within the parish boundaries assigned to the parish church, a separate district shall be assigned to it, which shall form part of the parish.

SEC. 3. Where in any town within this Diocese there is but one parish or mission, the limits of the town shall constitute the boundaries of the parish or mission district, and shall be so certified by the Bishop, unless upon the application of the Rector and Vestry of the parish, or of the Archdeacon in charge of the mission district, the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, shall otherwise determine. The boundaries of a parish or mission district may include more than one town or parts of more than one town.

SEC. 4. When the boundaries of a parish or of a mission district shall have been determined by the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, the territory so bounded, in the case of a parish, including a mission district forming part of a parish, shall constitute the parish or cure of the Rector thereof; in the case of a mission district assigned to a chapel or mission maintained by the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society, shall constitute the parochial cure of the Superintendent for the time being of that Society; and in the case of any other mission district shall constitute the parochial cure of the Archdeacon within whose jurisdiction the mission district is situated; and such Rector, Superintendent, or Archdeacon, as the case may be, shall be deemed the incumbent of such parish or mission district; provided that nothing in this Canon shall be taken to prevent such Rector, Superintendent, or Archdeacon from conferring upon the Minister in charge of any mission district such authority in respect thereto as he may think fit.

SEC. 5. In any town or borough in which a parish or a mission district shall have been constituted, a new place of worship (unless upon the site of a former one) shall not be established, nor shall a new congregation be gathered, nor shall a congregation remove from one site or place of worship to another site or place of worship, unless and until the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, shall have issued his license therefor; provided that the Standing Committee shall communicate a copy of the Bishop's proposed license, by mail or otherwise before they act upon it, to the incumbent of the parish or mission district within which it is intended to establish such new place of worship or to which such congregation proposes to remove, and to the incumbents of the three parishes or mission districts nearest to the site of the proposed church, chapel, or other place of public worship, and to the applicant for such license, with not less than twenty days' notice of the time and place at which the Standing Committee will hear any person interested in the matter.

SEC. 6. Tentative missionary work, authorized by the Bishop and the Board of Managers of the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society may be prosecuted at any place they may designate, after conference with the incumbents of the three parishes or mission districts whose places of worship are nearest to the proposed site; but such work shall not be continued more than one year unless with the license of the Bishop, nor shall any building for such work be erected unless and until the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, shall have issued his license for the establishment of a new place of public worship, or shall have constituted a new mission district or a new parish, for the continuance of such work.

SEC. 7. Nothing contained in this Canon shall be taken to restrict the power of the Bishop to license private chapels or chapels connected with institutions, nor to affect such chapels so licensed.

CANON XIX.

Committee on Diocesan Finances.

SEC. 1. (1) At every Annual Convention the Bishop shall appoint four laymen and two clergymen, who shall hold office until their successors are appointed, and who with the Treasurer of the Diocese, ex-officio, shall constitute a Committee on Diocesan Finances. Vacancies in said Committee, except in the case of the Treasurer, shall be filled by a majority vote of the members of the Committee.

(2) Every motion, resolution or recommendation calling for a contribution or an assessment of money for any purpose shall be referred to this Committee, which shall consider the same and report thereon to the Convention.

(3) The Committee shall exercise general supervision of the financial affairs of the Convention, and shall endeavor to secure simplicity and certainty in the collection of funds and co-operation between the various trusts and boards of the Convention; and after consultation with the various agencies receiving appropriations from the Convention, it shall prepare an annual budget of Diocesan Expenditures to submit to each annual Convention for its approval and adoption. It shall keep a record of its meetings, and shall report to the Annual Convention.

(4) The Treasurer of the Diocese, acting under the direction of the Committee, shall annually make an assessment on the Parishes, Missions and Congregations of the Diocese for the total of the amounts fixed by the Convention for the following objects, respectively:

(a) The Episcopal Fund.
(b) The Diocesan Fund.
(c) Diocesan Missions.

(5) The Treasurer, also, under such direction, shall make an apportionment among the Parishes, Missions and Congregations of such a sum as will be sufficient to meet the amount apportioned to the Diocese for Domestic and Foreign Missions.

Sec. 2. (1) The assessment for the objects named in Section 1 (paragraph 4) shall be based upon the current expenses of each Parish, Mission or Congregation, as shown by its Annual Report.

For the purposes of determining the basis of assessment, current expenses are hereby defined to include all ordinary expenses for the objects following, viz.:

Salaries and wages.

Lighting, heating, insurance, repairs and maintenance of buildings used for church purposes, supplies, and the support of services.

The notification to each Parish, Mission or Congregation of its annual assessment shall indicate the amount assigned to it for each of the objects for which the assessment is laid.

The Treasurer shall classify the Parishes, Missions and Congregations according to the amount of the current expenses of each of them, and shall make assessments based on such classification.

(2) The annual report of each Parish, Mission or Congregation shall be presented on the first day of the Annual Convention, or in default thereof its current expenses may be estimated by the Treasurer.

(3) The Treasurer shall prepare an assessment roll based on the current expenses as so reported or estimated, and shall fix the rate of assessment. A notice of the amount of the current expenses and the assessment in the case of each Parish, Mission or Congregation shall be sent to the corporate authorities thereof before the first day of December, which notice shall invite said Parish, Mission or Congregation to appear before the Board of Adjustment and show cause, if any, why said assessment should be modified or corrected.

(4) The assessment so laid by the Treasurer shall be deemed to be confirmed unless before the first day of February, the Board of Adjustment shall take action modifying or correcting the same.

The amounts of such assessments shall be charged by the Treasurer of the Diocese against the Parishes, Missions or Congregations severally and respectively, and each of them shall make payment of its assessment to the Treasurer in two equal installments, one on the first day of February, and the other on the first day of August next ensuing; and it shall be the duty of the Treasurer to attend to the collection of the same. It shall be the further duty of the Treasurer to report to the Secretary of the Convention the names of all the Parishes, Missions or Congregations that for two successive years shall have failed to pay the sums assessed against such Parishes, Missions or Congregations for Diocean purposes.

(5) The apportionment among the Parishes, Missions or Congregations of the amount to be raised for the Diocese for Domestic and Foreign Missions shall be made on the basis of the current expenses as above defined, and the same classification of Parishes, Missions or Congregations shall be adopted as in the case of the assessment for Diocesan purposes. The provisions for the modification, confirmation and adjustment herein prescribed for the Diocesan assessments shall be observed also in respect of such apportionments, except that they shall be paid to the Treasurer of the Board of Missions, and not to the Treasurer of the Diocese.

Sec. 3. There shall be a Board to be known as the Board of Adjustment, consisting of the Committee and the Archdeacons, ex-officio.

It shall be the duty of the Board of Adjustment to receive and to consider any petition or request regarding the assessment upon any of the Parishes, Missions or Congregations of the Diocese, and after due consideration to adjust the same at such amount as the Board shall deem to be equitable and fair. The Board of Adjustment shall certify the amount so determined to the Treasurer of the Diocese by the first day of February in each year, and thereupon the Treasurer shall cause his books to conform with the action of the Board and notify any Parish, Mission or Congregation if any change has been made in its assessment by the Board of Adjustment.

It shall be the duty of the Board of Adjustment also to make such adjustments as it shall deem to be proper in respect of the apportionment of any Parish, Mission or Congregation, for Domestic and Foreign Missions upon a written request from it for such action, and the Board shall certify to the Treasurer any change that it may make in any apportionment made by him.

Sec. 4. The Committee shall fix the character and amount of security to be furnished by the Treasurer of the Diocese, and by any other Treasurers over whom the Convention may have jurisdiction.

Whenever the Committee on Diocesan Finances shall deem advisable it may confer with the Standing Committee, the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund, the Trustees of the Parochial Fund, the Trustees of the Estate and Property of the Diocese, the Trustees of the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund, and with any other Trustees of Boards of the Convention, and with the Treasurers of any organization under the jurisdiction of the Convention, for the purpose of harmonizing and simplifying the financial affairs and methods of the Convention and of the Diocese.

CANON XX.

Of the Episcopal Fund.

SEC. 1. The fund for the support of the Episcopate in this Diocese, now provided, together with that which may be hereafter contributed or acquired, and any accumulation accruing from the investment thereof, shall be intrusted to the corporation entitled "The Trustees of the Episcopal Fund for the Diocese of New York," incorporated by an Act of the Legislature of the State of New York, passed May 14, 1845. The Trustees composing said corporation shall be five in number, who shall be appointed by and shall hold their offices during the pleasure of the Convention, and all vacancies occurring in their number shall be filled by the Convention.

SEC. 2. The Treasurer of the Episcopal Fund shall make known each year to the Convention the amount required by assessment for the support of the Episcopate, said assessment to be made by the Treasurer of the Diocese in accordance with Canon XIX.

SEC. 3. All moneys belonging to the said fund shall be loaned by the said Trustees upon security of real estate, or invested in stocks of the United States, or of any of the States, or of the City of New York, at their discretion, and also in such other securities as may be recommended unanimously by the Trustees and approved by a vote of the Convention. And all securities and investments shall be taken or made in their corporate name above mentioned, and they shall have power, from time to time, to change such investments. A statement exhibiting the condition of the said fund and securities, together with all receipts and disbursements, shall be reported to the Convention at every stated meeting thereof, signed by the Trustees, or a majority of them.

CANON XXI.

Of the Diocesan Fund.

SEC. 1. The Treasurer of Convention shall make known each year before the close of the Convention the amount required for Diocesan purposes, and such amount shall be raised by assessment, in accordance with Canon XVIII.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer of the Convention to retain annually out of this fund one dollar for each Clergyman in the Diocese. The moneys thus retained shall be paid by him to the Treasurer of the General Convention at each meeting of the same.

CANON XXII.

Of Contributions for Church Objects.

SEC. 1. In every Parish of the Diocese provision shall be made whereby its members may make offerings, by collections and otherwise, as often as the needs of the Church shall require, for the support of its objects, particularly its missionary work at home and abroad, the education of young men for the sacred Ministry, and those other religious and charitable objects which have been commended to the care of the Church by the General Convention, or by the Convention of the Diocese; and it shall be the duty of the Clergyman in charge to give due notice to the congregation of the time and purpose of such offerings, and also to call their attention to the importance and claims of the respective objects to which the offerings are to be applied.

SEC. 2. The business of distributing all funds that may be raised under this Canon, for the education of young men for Holy Orders, is hereby committed to the incorporated society styled "The Protestant Episcopal Society for Promoting Religion and Learning in the State of New York," which shall make a full annual report to the Convention of the application of all moneys paid into its treasury under the provisions of this Canon, or by the Treasurer of the Convention from any source.

SEC. 3. So far as relates to the offerings or contributions of Parishes within the City of New York, it is hereby declared that the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society and the Seamen's Church Institute of New York are to be reckoned among the Church charities for which provision is to be made, so that each congregation in the City of New York shall make annual contributions to one of these societies.

CANON XXIII.

Of the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society.

SEC. 1. All members of the Church in this Diocese shall be considered as constituting the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society.

SEC. 2. (1) The Missionary and Church Extension work of the Diocese shall be conducted by the Diocesan Board of Missions and Church Extension.

(2) The Convention shall be the Diocesan Board of Missions and Church Extension, and as such shall sit as often as the business of the Board may require.

(3) The Bishop of the Diocese shall be ex-officio President of the Board.

(4) The Treasurer of the Diocese shall be ex-officio the Treasurer of the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to receive all funds for the Missionary and Church Extension work of the Diocese and to disburse the same under the direction of the Board of Managers.

SEC. 3. (1) a. There shall be a Board of Managers of the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society, which Board shall be also the Missionary Committee of the Diocese of New York, consisting of the Bishop (who shall be Chairman ex-officio), the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be such, the Suffragan Bishop, the Archdeacons, the Treasurer of the Diocese, three Presbyters and three Laymen to be elected annually by the Diocesan Convention as members at large (of whom at least two Presbyters and two Laymen shall be residents in the County of New York), and one Presbyter and one Layman from each of the nine other counties of the Diocese, to be elected as hereinafter provided.

b. No member of the Board of Managers elected as a representative from one of the counties shall be eligible for re-election for one year from the expiration of his term. Members elected by the Diocesan Convention shall be eligible for re-election.

c. If there be any failure to elect the above representatives, or if from any other cause a vacancy shall occur, the power to fill this vacancy shall reside in the Board of Managers.

(2) It shall be the duty of the Board of Managers:

a. To maintain and strengthen the Mission and Church Extension work of the Diocese;

b. To hold missionary councils and to issue missionary literature;

c. To plant the Church in new communities and among people of foreign tongues, subject to the provisions of the Canon "Of the Establishment and Boundaries of Parishes and Mission Districts";

d. To create and carry out an efficient Church extension policy in all parts of the Diocese;

e. To preserve all reports received from the Archdeacons and Missionaries;

f. To make grants to poor parishes under such regulations as the Board may prescribe for the increase of inadequate clerical salaries, to the end that in this Diocese each unmarried clergyman in charge of a parish in union with the Convention of the Diocese may receive a salary of not less than $1,200 a year or $1,000 a year and a residence, and each married clergyman in charge of such a parish not less than $1,200 and a residence;

g. To meet monthly except in March, July, August and September, and at other times upon the call of the Chairman;

h. At its October meeting to audit the accounts of the treasurer and to adopt and deliver to the Board of Missions and Church Extension an annual report containing the following items:

1. A statement of the missionary work done since last report.
2. The names of the Missionaries and stations.
3. An account of receipts and expenditures.
4. A list of the parishes contributing and of the sums contributed by each parish to the Diocesan Missions.
5. An estimate of the amount of funds needed for the Missionary and Church Extension work of the Diocese for the ensuing year.
6. Such other matters as may be deemed necessary.

i. To exercise during the recess of the Diocesan Board of Missions and Church Extension all the powers of the Board.

(3) Seven members of the Board of Managers, one of whom shall be the Bishop, the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be such, or the Suffragan Bishop, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. In the absence of the Bishop and the Bishop Coadjutor, the Suffragan Bishop shall preside.

SEC. 4. (1) There may be two Archdeacons of the Diocese of New York, whose separate fields for their official terms shall be assigned them by the Bishop.

(2) Said Archdeacons shall be nominated by the Bishop and with the advice and consent of the Convention of the Diocese appointed by him for a period of five years, and shall be eligible for reappointment. No Archdeacon, while acting as such, shall be Rector or settled Minister of any Church or Congregation.

(3) It shall be the duty of each Archdeacon:

a. To search out the religious needs of his territory and to conduct Missionary and Church Extension work within its limits.

b. To collect and preserve careful statistics of population, of the condition of communities, and of missionary work;

c. To make full and regular reports to the Bishop and Board of Managers.

d. In consultation with the Bishop, to divide his field into such Archdeaconries as may be most convenient for the conduct of business and the awakening of local interest.

e. To provide for one or more meetings annually in each Archdeaconry, at which reports shall be made of mission work undertaken in the same and plans for further development presented and discussed.

f. In the absence of the Bishop, the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be such, and the Suffragan Bishop, to preside at all meetings of the Archdeaconries in his territory.

Sec. 5. (1) Each Archdeaconry shall organize in accordance with its own by-laws, and shall elect its own Treasurer and such other officers as it may deem necessary.

(2) At its first meeting after the Diocesan Convention at which this Canon shall become operative, each Archdeaconry shall elect one Presbyter and one Layman from each of the Counties of which it consists to serve as its representatives in the Board of Managers of the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society, until the annual meeting in the year following: Thereafter at its annual meeting to be held prior to the Diocesan Convention, it shall elect one Presbyter and one Layman from each of the Counties of which it consists as its representatives in the Board of Managers of the above named Society, who shall each serve for a term of two years.

(3) Each Clergyman or Layman receiving a stipend or other regular assistance from the Missionary funds of the Diocese shall semi-annually, on blanks to be provided by the Board of Managers, make a report of his work to the Archdeacon, who shall submit the same to the Archdeaconry at its next regular meeting. Monthly reports may also be required.

(4) It shall be the duty of each clergyman unless prevented by grave and reasonable cause to attend each meeting of his Archdeaconry.

SEC. 6. (1) The appointment and removal of all missionaries shall be vested in the Bishop and their stipends determined by the Board of Managers.

(2) a. Every application to the Bishop for the establishment of Mission Districts under the provisions of the Canon "Of the Establishment and Boundaries of Parishes and Mission Districts" shall be accompanied by the approval of the Board of Managers.

b. Any Mission Station designated by the Board of Managers may be organized by the Bishop, upon the application of residents in its neighborhood, and under the conditions laid down by the Canon "of the Establishment and Boundaries of Parishes and Mission Districts."

c. The form of application shall be as follows:

To the Right Reverend.....
Bishop of New York.

We, the subscribers, baptized persons, residents in the Town of....., in the County of....., New York, respectfully request that we be duly received as a mission, under the authority and direction of the Diocese of New York, to be known as..... Mission, in the Town of .....

And we do hereby promise conformity to the authority of the Diocese, and to the Constitution and Canons, and the Doctrine, Discipline, and Worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States and in the Diocese of New York, and we further pledge the sum of $..... to the support of the Minister for the first year.

(3) a. Any parish seeking aid from the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society shall make written application therefor, stating the number of contributors and the amount pledged or secured in the parish or station for the support of the Minister and all other facts necessary for a full understanding of the case.

b. Any Minister receiving assistance from the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society may be required by the same to perform compensating duty.

CANON XXIV.

Of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergy.

SEC. 1. Five lay Trustees shall be appointed annually by the Convention, who, with the Bishop, shall constitute a Board to be called the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen.

SEC. 2. Vacancies occurring in the number of the above-named five lay Trustees, by death, resignation, or otherwise, during the recess of the Convention, may be supplied by the remaining Trustees.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the said Trustees to assume the management and care of the following funds:

1st. The fund now provided for the relief of Aged and Infirm Clergymen of the Diocese, together with that which may hereafter be contributed or acquired, and any accumulation accruing from the investment thereof.

2nd. A fund to be hereafter contributed or acquired for the relief of Widows and Children of Deceased Clergymen of the Diocese, together with any accumulation accruing from the investment thereof.

SEC. 4. It shall be the further duty of the said Trustees to receive applications for relief or assistance from any persons entitled to receive aid from either of the funds above mentioned, and to apply such relief or assistance as follows:

1st. As to the fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, to apply such relief or assistance on the principles of, and subject to, the limitations indicated in the report of the Special Committee made to the Annual Convention of 1841,* and subject also to such other rules and regulations as have since been adopted by this Convention, or as said Trustees, with the approbation of said Convention, shall from time to time adopt.

2nd. As to the fund for the Widows and Children of Clergymen, to apply such relief or assistance on the principles of, and subject to, the limitations laid down by the regulations adopted by the Annual Convention in 1886 in relation to said fund, and subject also to such further rules and regulations as said Trustees, with the approbation of this Convention, shall from time to time adopt.

SEC. 5. A collection shall be made annually in every congre-

*"(a) Legacies and donations to be invested as a permanent fund; the proceeds to be applied annually, if needed, under the direction of the Bishop and three lay Trustees, to be elected by the Convention at each stated meeting. If the whole or any part of the annual revenue of said fund be not needed, in any year, it might be considered thenceforth as part of the capital.

". . . (b) Another . . . source of income will be found, it is presumed, in annual contributions to be made by all the congregations in the Diocese, on some day previously notified.

"With regard to the limitations under which relief should be applied, your Committee are aware that much must be left to the discretion of the Trustees. . . . In regard to these limitations, the Committee would suggest:

"1. That relief should be confined to those whose circumstances are actually straightened, and who have been actively engaged in parochial or kindred labors during a large part of their ministerial lives.

"2. It should not be so administered as to supersede on the part of parishes the duty of making provision for the support of their pastor when too aged or infirm to continue his ministry; and should therefore be confined, in the case of parish clergymen, to cases in which the parish has signified, through the Bishop, its inability or indisposition to make such provision to an adequate extent.

"3. It should not be extended to clergymen who have near relatives in affluent circumstances, unless there be satisfactory evidence that such relatives are unwilling to discharge the duty of providing for those of their own household.

"4. In deciding between conflicting claims, preference should be given caeteris paribus to those who have been longest employed within the Diocese in ministerial duty."

gation in this Diocese, on the annual Thanksgiving Day, or on Christmas Day, or on the Sunday next before or next following either of those days.

This collection and all other contributions to these objects shall be transmitted to the Treasurer of the said Board of Trustees.

All donations and legacies received by said Treasurer shall, in the absence of the special designation of one or other of the said funds, be applied as the Trustees in their discretion may determine, subject, however, to any other or different appropriation by the Convention of any particular gift or legacy. The annual collection, herein provided for, shall, in the absence of special designation of any portion thereof by the donors, be applied by said Trustees to the fund for the Widows and Children of Clergymen. The Treasurer shall keep a separate account of each of the said funds, and all moneys not wanted for current use shall be invested and held in trust by the said Trustees.

Sec. 6. The said Trustees shall elect their own Chairman, Treasurer, and Secretary.

They shall meet at least twice in each year, and shall keep minutes of their proceedings, which shall be submitted to the Convention of the Diocese whenever called for.

CANON XXV.

Of the Trial of a Clergyman not being a Bishop.

Whenever any Minister of this Diocese, not being a Bishop thereof, shall become "liable to presentment and trial," under the provisions of any Canon of the General or Diocesan Convention, the mode of proceeding in this Diocese shall be as follows, viz.:

Sec. 1. The trial shall be on a presentment in writing, addressed to the Bishop of the Diocese, specifying the offences of which the accused is alleged to be guilty, with reasonable certainty as to time, place, and circumstances. Such presentment may be made by the major part in number of the members of the Vestry of any Church of which the accused is a Minister, or by any three Presbyters of this Diocese entitled to seats in the Convention, or as hereinafter mentioned. Whenever, from public rumor or otherwise, the Bishop shall have reason to believe that any Clergyman is under the imputation of having been guilty of any offence or misconduct for which he is liable to be tried, and that the interest of the Church requires an investigation, it shall be his duty to appoint five persons, of whom three at least shall be Presbyters, to examine the case, a majority of whom may make such examination; and if there is in their opinion sufficient ground for presentment, shall present the Clergyman accordingly.

SEC. 2. A presentment being made in any one of the modes above prescribed, the Bishop, if the facts charged shall not appear to him to be such as constitute an offense, may dismiss it; or if it allege facts, some of which do and some of which do not constitute an offense, he may allow it in part and dismiss the residue, or he may permit it to be amended. When it shall be allowed in whole or in part, the Bishop shall cause a copy of it to be served on the accused, and shall also nominate twelve Presbyters of this Diocese, entitled to seats in the Convention and not being parties to the presentment, and cause a list of their names to be served on the accused, who shall, within thirty days after such service, select five of them and notify their names in writing to the Bishop; and if he shall not give such notification to the Bishop within the said thirty days, the Bishop shall select five, and the Presbyters so selected shall form a Board for the trial of the accused, and shall meet at such time and place as the Bishop shall direct, and shall have power to adjourn from time to time, and from place to place (but always within this Diocese), as they shall think necessary.

SEC. 3. A written notice of the time and place of their first meeting shall be served at least thirty days before such meeting on the accused, and also on one of the persons making the presentment.

SEC. 4. If, at the time appointed for the first meeting of the Board of Presbyters, the whole number of five shall not attend, then those who do attend may adjourn from time to time; and if, after one adjournment or more, it shall appear to them improbable that the whole number will attend within a reasonable time, then those who do attend, not being less than three, shall constitute the Board, and proceed to the trial, and a majority of them shall decide all questions.

SEC. 5. If a clergyman presented shall confess the truth of the facts alleged in the presentment, it shall be the duty of the Bishop to proceed to pass sentence; and if he shall not confess them before the appointment of a Board for his trial, as before mentioned, he shall be considered as denying them.

SEC. 6. If a clergyman presented, after having had due notice, shall not appear before the Board of Presbyters appointed for his trial, the Board may nevertheless proceed as if he were present, unless for good cause they shall see fit to adjourn to another day.

SEC. 7. When the Board proceed to the trial, they shall hear such evidence as shall be produced, which evidence shall be reduced to writing, and signed by the witnesses respectively; and some officer, authorized by law to administer oaths, may, at the desire of either party, be requested to administer an oath or affirmation to the witnesses that they will testify the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, concerning the facts charged in the presentment. If, on or during the trial, the accused shall confess the truth of the charges, as stated in the presentment, the Board may dispense with hearing further evidence, and may proceed at once to state their opinion to the Bishop as to the sentence that ought to be pronounced.

SEC. 8. Upon the application of either party to the Bishop, and it being made satisfactorily to appear to him that any material witnesses cannot be procured upon the trial, the Bishop may appoint a Commissary to take the testimony of any such witness. Such Commissary may be either a Clergyman or a Layman, and the party so applying shall give to the other at least six days' notice of the time and place of taking the testimony. And if the person on whom the notice shall be served shall reside more than forty miles from the place of examination, an additional day's notice shall be given for every additional twenty miles of the said distance. And both parties may attend and examine the witness, and the questions and answers shall be reduced to writing and signed by the witness, and shall be certified by the Commissary, and enclosed under his seal, and transmitted to the Board, and shall be received by them as evidence. A witness examined before such Commissary may be sworn or affirmed in manner aforesaid.

Sec. 9. The Board having deliberately considered the evidence, shall declare, in a writing signed by them, or a majority of them, their decision on the charges contained in the presentment, distinctly stating whether the accused is guilty or not guilty of such charges, respectively, and also stating the sentence which in their opinion should be pronounced; and a copy of such decision shall be, without delay, communicated to the accused, and the original decision, together with the evidence, shall be delivered to the Bishop, who shall pronounce such canonical sentence as shall appear to him to be proper, provided the same shall not exceed in severity the sentence recommended by the Board; and such sentence shall be final. Before pronouncing any sentence the Bishop shall summon the accused, and any three or more of the Clergy, to meet him at such time as may in his opinion be most convenient, in some church to be designated by him, which shall for that purpose be open at the time to all persons who may choose to attend, and the sentence shall then and there be publicly pronounced by the Bishop. But the Bishop, if he shall be satisfied that justice requires it, may grant a new trial to the accused, in which case a new Board of Presbyters shall be appointed, the proceedings before whom shall be conducted as before mentioned.

Sec. 10. All notices and papers contemplated in this Canon may be served by a summoner or summoners, to be appointed for the purpose by the Bishop, and whose certificate of such service shall be evidence thereof. In case of service by any other person, the facts shall be proved by the affidavit of such person. A written notice or paper delivered to a party, or left at his last place of residence, shall be deemed a sufficient service of such notice or paper.

Sec. 11. The defendant may have the privilege of appearing by counsel; in case of the exercise of which privilege, and not otherwise, those who present shall have also the like privilege.

CANON XXVI.

Concerning the Dissolution of the Pastoral Relation by Reason of Disability of a Minister.

Whenever it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Bishop, on competent medical testimony, that by reason of incurable mental or physical disability a clergyman has become incapable of discharging the duties of his cure, it shall be competent for the Bishop, on the application of the Vestry or Trustees of the Church, and upon reasonable notice to all the parties concerned, to dissolve the pastoral relation between such clergyman and his church.

CANON XXVII.

Concerning Alterations in the Canons and Additions thereto.

No proposed alteration of, or addition to, the Canons shall hereafter be considered by the Convention, unless at least one day's previous notice be given thereof in open Convention; nor, unless by unanimous consent, until such alteration or addition shall have been referred to and reported upon by a Committee of at least two Presbyters and two Laymen. Nor shall such alteration or addition be adopted, during the same Convention, if two-thirds of the votes of both orders, taken separately, shall not concur therein; but in such case the same (unless negatived by a majority of the members present) shall lie over for consideration until the next annual meeting of the Convention.

CANON XXVIII.

Repealing Former Canons.

All former Canons of this Convention are hereby repealed.

RULES OF ORDER.

I. Every Convention shall be preceded by the Celebration of the Holy Communion and the Annual Address of the Bishop, or a Sermon, as the Bishop shall appoint; after which, the Bishop or, in case of his absence or disability, the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one; or if there be none the Suffragan Bishop, if there be one, or if there be more than one, the senior in point of consecration, or in case of his absence or disability, the next in order of consecration shall take the chair; but if there be no Suffragan Bishop present and able to act, the Convention shall elect a President.

II. The Secretary of the last Convention in giving notice of the Annual Convention shall request members and delegates to file with him in writing, within ten days after the receipt of such notice, any business they desire to bring before the Convention. He shall thereupon prepare a calendar of such business in the order of its receipt and shall cause the same to be printed and distributed among the members and delegates on or before the date of the Convention.

The Secretary of the last Convention also, or, in case of his absence, some other person appointed by the Chair, shall call the names of the Clergy entitled to seats.

III. He shall call the names of the Lay Delegates whose election has been certified in pursuance of Canon II., Section 10.

IV. The Chair shall then appoint a Committee of three persons, to whom shall be referred the credentials of the Lay Delegates, who shall report upon the correctness of the roll made by the Secretary.

V. A quorum being present, the Chair shall declare the Convention organized for business, which shall proceed in the following order:

1. The election of a Secretary, who shall have power to appoint three Assistant Secretaries.

2. The election of a Treasurer.

3. The appointment of members of six Standing Committees following, each of which Committees shall be composed of the number of clerical and lay members specified:

(a) On the Incorporation and Admission of Churches, two Clergymen and two Laymen, which Committee may report at any time during the session of the Convention;

(b) On the Diocesan Fund, two Clergymen and two Laymen, besides the Treasurer of the Convention, ex-officio;

(c) On the Treasurer's Report, three Laymen;

(d) On Canons, four Clergymen and four Laymen;

(e) On Miscellaneous Business, four Clergymen and four Laymen.

Any Standing Committee may meet during the intervals between Conventions, and may report to the succeeding Convention.

The members of the Committees on the Incorporation and Admission of Churches, on the Diocesan Fund, on the General Theological Seminary, on Canons, and on Miscellaneous Business, who shall be appointed at the Convention in 1911, at their first meeting, and within thirty days after the adjournment of the Convention, shall divide themselves by lot into classes of one Clergyman and one Layman in each class, one class to serve one year, and the others two, three and four years respectively, according to their number, and until the appointment of their successors and shall notify the Secretary of the Convention in writing of the result of such division. If after the expiration of forty days after the adjournment of the Convention the members of any Committee shall have failed to notify the Secretary, he shall at once proceed by lot to divide them into classes as aforesaid, and they shall respectively hold their offices accordingly. At each succeeding stated Convention the President shall appoint as members of each of the said Committees so many Clergymen and so many Laymen as those whose terms are expiring, to hold office for as many years as there are classes in such Committee. All vacancies occurring in the said Committees shall be filled by the concurrent vote of their Clerical and Lay members until the next stated Convention, when the vacancy shall be filled for the balance of the term. Except in the case of members chosen to fill vacancies until the next stated Convention no member shall be eligible to the same committee for one year after expiration of his term of service.

4. Reference to Standing or Special Committees of such business as shall have been filed with the Secretary and appears on the calendar.

5. Introduction and Referring of resolutions and motions not on the calendar but which shall be added thereto in the order of their introduction.

6. Four Inspectors of Election not members of the Convention, shall be appointed by the Bishop and the Standing Committee at least two weeks before an election. They shall receive and canvass all votes cast at any election which is required to be by ballot, and, when such canvass is completed, shall immediately report its result to the Convention. They shall serve during the pleasure of the Convention, and shall be compensated for their services as the Bishop and Standing Committee may direct.

7. Election of the Standing Committee, the Deputies and Provisional Deputies to the Provincial Synod of the Second Province and the Deputies and the Provisional Deputies to the General Convention provided that the election of Provisional Deputies be not held till after the names of the Deputies elected shall have been announced.

8. The Receiving and Referring of Reports, as follows:

(1) Report of the Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Churches, and the Admission of Parishes into Union with the Convention.
(2) Report of the Standing Committee.
(3) Report of the Committee on Finance.
(4) Report of the Trustees of the Estate and Property of the Diocesan Convention of New York.
(5) Report of the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen.
(6) Report of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund.
(7) Report of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund.
(8) Report of the Standing Committee on the Treasurer's Report.
(9) Report of the Standing Committee on the Diocesan Fund.
(10) Report of the New York City Mission Society.
(11) Report of the Seamen's Church Institute of New York.
(12) Report of St. Stephen's College.
(13) Report of the Board of Religious Education.
(14) Report of the Social Service Commission.
(15) Report of the Standing Committee on General Theological Seminary.
(16) Report of the New York Training School for Deaconesses.

These reports shall be presented by Title only unless otherwise ordered by the unanimous vote of the Convention.

9. Appointment and election of Trustees of the Boards named in the preceding Section.

10. Calendar of the day.

VI. On the second day, the order of business, after Holy Communion or Morning Prayer, shall be:

1. Reading and approving of the Minutes.
2. Receiving certificates of Lay Delegates not present before.
3. Calling the names of members not present on the first day.
4. Introduction and reference of business not on the calendar but which shall be added thereto in the order of introduction.
5. Unfinished calendar, if any, of previous day.
6. Report of the Missionary Committee of the Diocese.
7. Report of the Committee on Canons.
8. Reports of Special Committees.
9. Calendar.

VII. On the third day and any subsequent day, the order of business, after Morning Prayer, shall be:

1. Reading and approval of the Minutes.
2. Receiving the certificates of Lay Delegates not present before.
3. Calling the names of members not present before.
4. Calendar.

VIII. The address of the Bishop and of the Bishop Coadjutor shall be in order at any time.

IX. Before the rising of the Convention, the Minutes of the last day's proceedings shall be read and approved.

X. The Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church, Clergymen belonging to this Diocese, but not entitled to seats in this Convention, Clergymen of other Dioceses, Professors and Students of Theology in the Protestant Episcopal Church, and all persons holding any office or trust under the Convention, if not members, shall be admitted to the sittings of the Convention.

XI. The hours of each day's session shall be from 10 a. m. to 1 p. m., and from 2 p. m. to 5 p. m., and, when ordered by the Convention, from 8 to 10 p. m.

XII. The mode of conducting the stated elections by ballot shall be as follows:

The Clergy and the Lay Delegates of the Parishes entitled to vote shall present their several ballots for each office to be filled to the inspectors, whose duty it shall be to take charge of the same, keeping a poll list of the votes, and, as soon as practicable, to canvass the same, and report the result thereof to the Convention. If, on any such report, it should appear that no valid election has been made in respect to all or any of the offices to be filled, the poll shall again be opened, for the purpose of filling those which may remain vacant; and if such second vote shall not result in an election, further votes shall be taken until all the offices are filled or until the Convention shall otherwise order.

XIII. All new business introduced, except such as may accompany and form a part of the report of a committee, shall be in the form of a motion or resolution and shall be in writing. Such new business shall be at once referred without debate by the President to an appropriate committee and shall be entered upon the calendar in the order of introduction. Action shall be only on the report of such Committee unless by two-thirds vote.

XIV. No member may speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the Convention, nor more than once in any case until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

XV. Every member present shall vote whenever a question is put, unless excused by the Convention on account of his being personally interested in the result, or for other cause.

XVI. Votes shall be taken by ayes and noes, and by orders, whenever called for by five members.

XVII. In taking a vote by orders, it shall be the right of any member of a delegation who may dissent from the vote of the majority of the delegation to have the fact of his dissent recorded on the Minutes.

XVIII. All Special Committees shall be appointed by the President, unless otherwise ordered.

XIX. Any rule of order may be suspended by the vote of not less than two-thirds of the members present. Any new matter introduced during such suspension may be explained by the mover in a statement of not more than five minutes, but otherwise shall not be subject to debate or action until after report from the appropriate committee. No rule of order shall be changed or rescinded without one day's previous notice of a motion to that effect.

XX. Whenever in the Rules of Order provision is made for action by the Bishop, such action, in case of the absence or disability of the Bishop, shall devolve upon the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, but if there be none, or in case of the absence or disability of the Bishop Coadjutor, shall devolve upon the Suffragan Bishop, if there be one, or if there be more than one, shall devolve upon the senior in point of consecration, or in case of his absence or disability, shall devolve upon the other Suffragan Bishop in the order of their consecration, and shall devolve upon the Standing Committee or other authority or person in cases where provision is made for their action in the place of the Bishop, only in the event of the absence or disability of the Bishop or the Bishop Coadjutor, and the Suffragan Bishop or Bishops, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate.

XXI. The general procedure of the Convention shall be governed by the rules of the parliamentary practice as set forth in "Cushing's Manual."

APPENDIX J

EXTRACTS FROM THE LAWS OF NEW YORK

RELATING TO

PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCHES

CHAPTER LI OF THE CONSOLIDATED LAWS.

(As amended to date.)

The Religious Corporations Laws.

ARTICLE I. Provisions Applicable to Religious Corporations Generally:

§ 12. SALE, MORTGAGE AND LEASE OF REAL PROPERTY OF RELIGIOUS CORPORATIONS.—A religious corporation shall not sell or mortgage any of its real property without applying for and obtaining leave of the court therefor pursuant to the provisions of Article four of the general corporation law. The trustees of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Church shall not vote upon any resolution or proposition for the sale, mortgage or lease of its real property unless the rector of such church, if it then has a rector, shall be present, and shall not make application to the court for leave to sell or mortgage any of its real property, without the consent of the Bishop and standing committee of the Diocese to which such church belongs; but in case the See be vacant, or the Bishop be absent or unable to act, the consent of the standing committee with their certificate of the vacancy of the See or of the absence or disability of the Bishop shall suffice. The trustees of an incorporated Roman Catholic Church shall not make application to the court for leave to mortgage, lease or sell any of its real property without the consent of the Archbishop or Bishop of the Diocese to which such church belongs, or in case of their absence or inability to act, without the consent of the Vicar-General or Administrator of such Diocese. The petition of the trustees of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Church or Roman Catholic Church shall, in addition to the matters required by Article four of the general corporation law to be set forth therein, set forth that this section has also been complied with. But lots, plats, or burial permits in a cemetery owned by a religious corporation may be sold without applying for or obtaining leave of the court. No cemetery lands of a religious corporation shall be mortgaged while used for cemetery purposes. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter in respect to a religious corporation of a specified denomination, any solvent religious corporation may, by order of the supreme court obtained as above provided in proceedings to sell, mortgage or lease real property, convey the whole or any part of its real property to another religious corporation, for a consideration of one dollar or other nominal consideration; and for the purpose of applying the provisions of Article four of the general corporation law, a proposed conveyance for such consideration shall be treated as a sale, but it shall not be necessary to show, in the petition or otherwise, nor for the court to find, that the pecuniary or proprietary interest of the grantor corporation will be promoted thereby; and the interests of such grantor shall be deemed to be promoted if it appears that religious or charitable objects generally are conserved by such conveyance; provided, however, that such an order shall not be made if tending to impair the claim or remedy of any creditor.

If a sale or mortgage of any real property of any such religious corporation has been heretofore or shall be hereafter made and a conveyance or mortgage executed and delivered without the authority of a court of competent jurisdiction, obtained as required by law, or not in accordance with its directions, the court may, thereafter, upon the application of the corporation, or of the grantee or mortgagee in any such conveyance or mortgage or of any person claiming through or under any such grantee or mortgagee, upon such notice to such corporation, or its successor, and such other person or persons as may be interested in such property, as the court may prescribe, confirm said previously executed conveyance or mortgage, and order and direct the execution and delivery of a confirmatory deed or mortgage, or the recording of such confirmatory order in the office where deeds and mortgages are recorded in the county in which the property is located; and upon compliance with the said order such original conveyance or mortgage shall be as valid and of the same force and effect as if it had been executed and delivered after due proceedings had in accordance with the statute and the direction of the court.

But no confirmatory order may be granted unless the consents required in the first part of this section for a Protestant Episcopal or Roman Catholic church have first been given by the prescribed authority thereof, either upon the original application or upon the application for the confirmatory order. This act shall take effect immediately.

ARTICLE III. Special provisions for the Incorporation and Government of Protestant Episcopal Parishes or Churches:

SECTION 40. The meeting for incorporation.
41. The certificate of incorporation.
42. Corporate Trustees; Vestry; power and duties thereof.
43. Annual Elections and special meetings of incorporated Protestant Episcopal parishes.
44. Changing the number of vestrymen of Protestant Episcopal parishes hereafter incorporated.
45. Changing date of annual election, number and terms of office of vestrymen and terms of office of churchwardens in Protestant Episcopal Churches heretofore incorporated.
46. Changing the qualifications of voters and the qualifications of wardens and vestrymen.

§ 40. THE MEETING FOR INCORPORATION.—Notice of a meeting for the purpose of incorporating an unincorporated Protestant Episcopal parish or congregation, and of electing the first churchwardens and vestrymen thereof, shall specify the object, time and place of such meeting, and shall be made public for at least two weeks prior to such meeting, either by open reading of such notice in time of divine service, at the usual place of worship of such parish or congregation, or by posting the same conspicuously on the outer door of such place of worship.

Only men of full age who have been regular attendants at the worship of such parish or congregation and contributors to the support thereof for one year next prior to such meeting, or since the establishment of such parish or congregation, shall be qualified to vote at such meeting.

The presence of at least six persons qualified to vote thereat shall be necessary to constitute a quorum of such meeting. The action of the meeting upon any matter or question shall be decided by a majority of the qualified voters thereon, a quorum being present.

The officiating minister, or, if there be none, or he shall be necessarily absent, any other person qualified to vote at the meeting, who is called to the chair, shall preside thereat. Such presiding officer shall receive the votes, be the judge of the qualifications of voters, and declare the result of the votes cast at such meeting.

The polls of the meeting shall remain open for one hour or longer in the discretion of the presiding officer, or, if required, by a vote of a majority of the voters present.

The meeting shall decide whether such unincorporated parish or congregation shall become incorporated. If such decision be in favor of incorporation, such meeting shall decide upon the name of the proposed corporation; what secular day of the week, beginning with the first Sunday in Advent, shall be the date of the regular annual election; whether the vestrymen thereof shall be three, six, nine, twelve, fifteen, eighteen, twenty-one or twenty-four; and shall elect by ballot from the persons qualified to be voters thereat, who have been baptized, one-third of the number of vestrymen so decided upon to hold office until the first annual election to be held thereafter, one-third of such number to hold office until one year after such annual election, and one-third of such number to hold office until two years after such annual election; and shall elect from such qualified voters who are communicants in the Protestant Episcopal Church, two persons to be churchwardens thereof, one to hold office until such annual election, and one to hold office until one year after such annual election.

§ 41. THE CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.—If such meeting shall decide in favor of incorporation and comply with the next preceding section, the presiding officer of such meeting and at least two other persons present and voting thereat, shall execute and acknowledge a certificate of incorporation setting forth:

1. The fact of the calling and holding of such meeting;
2. The name of the corporation as decided upon thereat;
3. The county, and the town, city or village, in which its principal place of worship is, or is intended to be, located;
4. The day of the week, commencing with the first Sunday in Advent; upon which the annual election shall be held;
5. The number of vestrymen decided upon at such meeting;
6. The names of the vestrymen elected at such meeting and the term of office of each;
7. The names of the churchwardens elected at such meeting and the term of office of each.

On filing such certificate in the office of the clerk of the county, so specified therein, the churchwardens and vestrymen so elected and their successors in office, together with the rector, when there is one, shall form a vestry, and shall be the trustees of such church or congregation; and they and their successors shall thereupon, by virtue of this chapter be a body corporate by the name or title expressed in such certificate, and shall have power, from time to time, to adopt by-laws for its government.

Such corporation shall be an incorporated church, and may be termed also an incorporated parish.

§ 42. CORPORATE TRUSTEES; Vestry; powers and duties thereof.

No meeting of the vestry or trustees of any incorporated Protestant Episcopal parish or church shall be held unless either all the members thereof are present, or three days' notice thereof shall be given to each member thereof, by the rector in writing either personally or by mail, or, if there be no rector or he be incapable of acting by one of the churchwardens; except that twenty-four hours' notice of the first meeting of the vestry or trustees after an annual election, shall be sufficient; provided such meeting be held within three days after the election.

To constitute a quorum of the vestry or board of trustees there must be present either:

1. The rector, at least one of the churchwardens, and a majority of vestrymen; or,

2. The rector, both churchwardens and one less than a majority of vestrymen; or,

3. If the rector be absent from the Diocese and shall have been so absent for over four calendar months, or if the meeting be called by the rector and he be absent therefrom, or be incapable of acting, one churchwarden and a majority of the vestrymen, or both churchwardens and one less than a majority of the vestrymen.

But if there be a rector of the parish, no measure shall be taken, in his absence, in any case, for effecting the sale or disposition of the real property of the corporation, nor for the sale or disposition of the capital or principal of the personal property of the corporation, nor shall any act be done which shall impair the rights of such rector.

The presiding officer of the vestry or trustees shall be the rector, or if there be none, or he be absent, the churchwarden who shall be called to the chair by a majority of the votes, if both the churchwardens be present; or the churchwarden present, if but one be present.

At each meeting of the vestry or trustees each member thereof shall be entitled to one vote.

The vestry shall have power to fill a vacancy occurring in the office of a churchwarden or vestryman by death, resignation or otherwise than by expiration of term, until the next annual election, at which, if such vacancy would continue thereafter, it shall be filled for the remainder of the unexpired term.

If vacancies exist in the offices of churchwardens or vestrymen in such number that a quorum of the vestry or board of trustees is not in office at any time, the rector shall forthwith call a special election for the filling of such vacancies. If there be no rector, the churchwarden longest in office shall call such special election. Notice of such special election shall be read by the rector, or if there be none, or he be absent, by the officiating minister or by one of the churchwardens, on the Sunday next preceding such election, in the time of divine service. If for any reason the usual place of worship of the parish be not open for divine service on such Sunday, such notice shall be posted conspicuously on the outer door of the place of worship for one week next preceding the election. Such notice shall conform to that required for an annual election. The provisions of section forty-three of this chapter, relating to annual election, shall apply to such special election, except as inconsistent herewith. Such vacancies shall be filled at such election for the remainder of the unexpired term.

The vestry may, subject to the canons of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, and of the Diocese in which the parish or church is situated, by a majority vote, elect a rector to fill a vacancy occurring in the rectorship of the parish, and may fix the salary or compensation of the rector.

§ 43. Annual Elections and Special Meetings of Incorporated Protestant Episcopal Parishes.—The annual election of a Protestant Episcopal parish, hereafter incorporated, shall be held on the secular day in the week commencing with the first Sunday in Advent, designated in its certificate of incorporation. The annual election of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal parish or church heretofore incorporated shall be held on the day fixed for such annual election, by or in pursuance of law, or if no such date be so fixed, then on the Monday next after the first Sunday in Advent.

Special meetings of any Protestant Episcopal parish or church heretofore or hereafter incorporated may be held on any secular day fixed by the vestry.

Notice of such annual election or special meeting shall be read by the rector of the parish, or, if there be none, or he be absent, by the officiating minister or by a churchwarden thereof, on each of the two Sundays next preceding such election or special meeting, in the time of divine service, or if, for any reason, the usual place of worship of the parish be not open for divine service, the notice shall be posted conspicuously on the outer door of the place of worship for two weeks next preceding the election or special meeting.

Such notice shall specify the place, day and hour of holding the election or special meeting. The notice of the annual election shall also specify the name and term of office of each churchwarden and vestryman whose term of office shall then expire, or whose office shall then be vacant for any cause, and the office for which each such officer is to be then elected. The notice of a special meeting shall specify the matter or question to be brought before such meeting, and no matter or question not specified in such notice shall be acted on at such meeting.

The presiding officer of such annual or special meeting shall be the rector of the parish, if there be one, or if there be none, or he be absent, one of the churchwardens elected for the purpose by a majority of the duly qualified voters present, or if no churchwarden be present, a vestryman elected in like manner. Such presiding officer shall be the judge of the qualifications of the voters; shall receive the votes cast; and shall declare the result of the votes cast. The presiding officer of such annual or special meeting shall enter the proceedings of the meeting in the book of the minutes of the vestry, sign his name thereto, and offer the same to as many qualified voters present as he shall think fit, to be also signed by them.

Only men of full age belonging to the parish, who have been regular attendants at its worship and contributors to its support for at least twelve months prior to such election or special meeting, or since the establishment of such parish, shall be qualified voters at any such election or special meeting. The action of an annual or special meeting upon any matter or question shall be decided by a majority of the qualified voters voting thereon. The polls of an election shall continue open for one hour, and longer in the discretion of the presiding officer, or, if required, by a vote of a majority of the qualified voters present and voting.

The churchwardens and vestrymen shall be elected by ballot from persons qualified to vote at such election, and no person shall be eligible for election as churchwarden, unless he be also a communicant in the Protestant Episcopal Church, nor be eligible for election as vestryman, unless he shall have been baptized.

At each annual election of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal parish hereafter incorporated, one churchwarden shall be elected to hold office for two years; and one-third of the total number of vestrymen of the parish shall be elected to hold office for three years. At each annual election of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal parish or church heretofore incorporated, two churchwardens and the total number of its vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for one year thereafter, unless the term of office of but one churchwarden or of but one-third of its vestrymen shall then expire, in which case one churchwarden shall be elected to hold office for two years, and one-third of the total number of its vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for three years. Each churchwarden and vestryman shall hold office after the expiration of his term until his successor shall be chosen.

§ 44. Changing the Number of Vestrymen of Protestant Episcopal Parishes Hereafter Incorporated.—If the vestry of a Protestant Episcopal parish hereafter incorporated, shall, by resolution, recommend that the number of vestrymen of such parish be changed to either three, six, nine, twelve, fifteen, eighteen, twenty-one or twenty-four vestrymen, notice of such recommendation shall be included in the notice of the next annual election of such parish, or in the notice of a special meeting to be held not less than six months before the time fixed for holding the next annual election thereafter, and be submitted to such annual or special meeting. If such recommendation be ratified by such meeting, the presiding officer thereof, and at least two qualified voters present thereat, shall execute and acknowledge a certificate setting forth such resolution of the vestry, the fact that notice thereof had been given with the notice of such annual election, or with the notice of such special meeting as the case may be, that the meeting had ratified the same; and the number of vestrymen so decided on. Such certificate shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county in which the original certificate of incorporation is filed and recorded, and such change in the number of vestrymen shall take effect at the time of the next annual election thereafter.

If the number of vestrymen be thereby increased, then, in addition to the number of vestrymen to be elected at such annual election, one-third of such increased number of vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for one year thereafter; one-third of such increased number shall be elected to hold office for two years thereafter, and one-third of such increased number shall be elected to hold office for three years thereafter.

If the number of vestrymen by such change be reduced, such reduction shall not affect the term of office of any vestryman duly elected, and at such next annual election, and at each annual election thereafter, one-third of such reduced number of vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for three years.

§ 45. Changing Date of Annual Election, Number and Terms of Office of Vestrymen and Terms of Office of Churchwardens in Protestant Episcopal Churches Heretofore Incorporated.—If the vestry of a Protestant Episcopal parish, heretofore incorporated, shall, by resolution, recommend that the date of the annual election be changed to a secular day in the week beginning with the first Sunday in Advent, or that the number of vestrymen be changed to three, six, nine, twelve, fifteen, eighteen, twenty-one or twenty-four, and that the terms of office of the churchwardens be changed so that one warden shall be elected annually, notice of such recommendation or recommendations shall be included in the notice of the next annual election of such parish, or in the notice of a special meeting to be held not less than six months before the time fixed for holding the next annual election thereafter, and be submitted to such annual or special meeting. If such recommendation be ratified by such meeting, the presiding officer thereof and at least two qualified voters present thereat, shall execute and acknowledge a certificate setting forth such resolution of the vestry; the fact that notice thereof had been given with the notice of the annual election, or with the notice of the special meeting as the case may be; that such meeting had ratified the same; the date determined upon for the annual election of the parish; the number of vestrymen so decided on; and the fact that the meeting determined to thereafter elect churchwardens, so that the term of one warden shall expire annually.

Such certificate shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county in which the original certificate of incorporation is filed and recorded. If the meeting determine to change the date of the annual election, the next annual election shall be held on the day in the week beginning with the first Sunday in Advent, determined on at such meeting, and the terms of the vestrymen and churchwardens which, pursuant to law, would expire at the next annual election shall expire, and their successors shall be elected on such day.

If the meeting determine to change the number of vestrymen and manner of electing wardens and vestrymen, there shall be elected at the first annual election thereafter, one-third of the number of vestrymen so determined on, to hold office for three years; one-third thereof to hold office for two years; and one-third thereof to hold office for one year; and one churchwarden to hold office for one year, and one to hold for two years; and thereafter at the annual election there shall be elected one-third of the number of vestrymen determined on at such meeting and one churchwarden. Any Protestant Episcopal parish, heretofore incorporated, which has changed the number of its vestrymen and the manner of electing wardens and vestrymen pursuant to the provisions of this section, may make further change in the number of its vestrymen in the manner provided in section forty-four of the act (Laws 1906, ch. 525).

§ 46. CHANGING THE QUALIFICATIONS OF VOTERS AND THE QUALIFICATIONS OF WARDENS AND VESTRYMEN.—If the vestry of a Protestant Episcopal parish, heretofore incorporated, shall, by resolution, recommend that the qualifications of voters and the qualifications of wardens and vestrymen be changed to conform in both cases to the requirements of section forty-three of this chapter, notice of such recommendation shall be included in the notice of the next annual election of such parish, and be submitted to the meeting. If such recommendation be ratified by such meeting, the presiding officer thereof and at least two qualified voters present thereat shall execute and acknowledge a certificate setting forth such resolution of the vestry, the fact that notice thereof had been given with the notice of such annual election, and that the meeting had ratified the same.

SESSION LAWS OF 1904.

CHAP. 689.

AN ACT to exempt the real estate of religious corporations in the City of New York, as now constituted, from assessment for public improvements.

ACCEPTED BY THE CITY.

Became a law May 9, 1904, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1.—The real estate owned by any religious corporation located in the City of New York, as now constituted, actually dedicated and used by such corporation exclusively as a place of public worship, shall be exempt from all assessments for public improvements which are now levied and assessed against such real estate.

SEC. 2.—This act shall take effect immediately.

SESSION LAWS OF 1907.

CHAP. 135.

AN ACT to amend chapter six hundred and ninety-six of the laws of eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, entitled "An act to provide hospitals, orphan asylums and other charitable institutions in the City of New York with water and remitting assessments therefor," in relation to exempting real estate owned by religious corporations in New York City from all charges, liens and assessments for the use of water.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1.—Section one of chapter six hundred and ninety-six of the laws of eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, entitled "An act to provide hospitals, orphan asylums and other charitable institutions in the City of New York with water, and remitting assessments therefor," as amended by chapter four hundred and ninety-two of the laws of eighteen hundred and ninety, as amended by chapter six hundred and seventy-two of the laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-four, as amended by chapter four hundred and fifty-nine of the laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-five, as amended by chapter eight hundred fifty-two of the laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-six, as amended by chapter six hundred and five of the laws of nineteen hundred and two and by chapter four hundred and forty of the laws of nineteen hundred and six, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 1. The several hospitals, dispensaries, orphan asylums, homes for the aged, houses or homes for the reformation, protection or shelter of females, day nurseries or corporations or societies for the care and instruction of poor babies and needy children, and industrial homes, and any benevolent or charitable corporation owning or maintaining public baths, for free school societies or free circulating libraries or veteran firemen's associations and any social settlement, whether incorporated or unincorporated, which shall own or lease for a term not less than three years, a building or buildings devoted exclusively to the purposes of such social settlement, now existing or hereafter established in the City of New York, or the real estate owned by any religious corporation located in the City of New York as now constituted, actually dedicated and used by such corporation exclusively as a place of public worship, are hereby exempted from the payment of any sum of money whatever to said city, for the use of water taken by same from said city, and water shall be supplied to the same by said city, in sufficient quantity for all purposes for which it is now used by said corporations, societies and institutions, or which may be necessary to be used by the same, free of all charge whatsoever, and the real estate necessarily used for any hospital, dispensary, orphan asylum, home for the aged, free school or free circulating library, veteran firemen's association, house or home for reformation, protection or shelter of females, day nurseries or corporations or societies for the care and instruction of poor babies and needy children, or industrial homes, or social settlement, or occupied for such public bath, owned or leased for a term of not less than three years, or held under any renewal or extension of such lease by any such corporations, societies and institutions aforesaid, or the real estate owned by any religious corporation located in the City of New York, as now constituted, actually dedicated and used by such corporation exclusively as a place of public worship, is hereby released, discharged and exempted from all lien and charge for water heretofore used or which may hereafter be used by any such institutions, society or corporation.

§ 2. Section two of said act as amended by chapter four hundred and ninety-two of the laws of eighteen hundred and ninety, as amended by chapter four hundred and fifty-nine of the laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-five, as amended by chapter eight hundred and fifty-two of the laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-six, as amended by chapter six hundred and five of the laws of nineteen hundred and two and by chapter four hundred and forty of the laws of nineteen hundred and six, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 2. The real property situated in the City of New York, necessarily now in use, or which may hereafter necessarily be used and devoted to any hospital, dispensary, orphan asylum, home for the aged, house or home for the reformation, protection or shelter of females, day nurseries or corporations or societies for the care and instruction of poor babies and needy children, industrial home, public baths, free school or free circulating library, or veteran firemen's association, or society which has among its objects either the care, support or education of orphans, or of the sick, the infirm or aged, free education or free circulation of books, or social settlement, or the real estate owned by any religious corporation located in the City of New York, as now constituted, actually dedicated and used by such corporation exclusively as a place of public worship, shall be and hereby is declared discharged and exempt from all assessments laid or made for use of water and sales thereunder, and from all such assessments hereafter, so long as the same shall be owned or leased for a term of not less than three years, or held under any renewal or extension of such lease, by any such corporation, society or institution aforesaid, and used for the purposes herein mentioned, and whenever a sale and [any] conveyance thereof shall be made to any person, association or corporation, other than those mentioned in this act, or the same shall cease to be held under lease as herein provided, thereupon the real estate so sold and conveyed, or ceasing to be so held, and not so used, shall be thereafter subject to assessment in the same manner as other real estate situated in the City of New York.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

LAWS OF NEW YORK, 1909.

CHAP. 388.

AN ACT to amend the Greater New York charter, relative to the powers of the commissioners of the sinking fund of the City of New York, in their discretion, to cancel and annul taxes, assessments, Croton water rents, et cetera, in certain cases.

Became a law May 18, 1909, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

ACCEPTED BY THE CITY.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1.—The Greater New York Charter, as re-enacted by chapter four hundred and sixty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and one, is hereby amended by adding after section two hundred and twenty-one thereof a new section to be section two hundred and twenty-one-a. to read as follows:

SEC. 221-a. The commissioners of the sinking fund of the City of New York, upon the written certificate of the comptroller of said city approving the same, with whom such application for relief under this section shall be filed, may in their discretion and upon such terms as they may deem proper, by a unanimous vote cancel and annul all taxes, assessments and Croton water rents and sales to said city of any or all of the same which now are or may hereafter become a lien against any real estate owned by any corporation, entitled to exemption of such real estate owned by it from local taxation under article one, section four, subdivision seven of the tax law, which was the actual owner of such real estate and entitled to such exemption, during the time when the taxes, assessments or Croton water rents from which it asks relief accrued and became liens thereupon. The comptroller of the City of New York shall mark the city's books and rolls of taxes, assessments and Croton water rents in accordance with the determination of the said commissioners of the sinking fund in every case in which action shall be taken under the provisions of this act.

SEC. 2.—This act shall take effect immediately.

TAX LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

BEING CHAPTER LX OF THE CONSOLIDATED LAWS.

Article 1, Section 4, provided for exemption from taxation.

Subdivision 7 provides that the real property used exclusively for religious, etc., purposes shall be exempt, and also its personal property shall be exempt.

> "All dwelling houses and lots of religious corporations while actually used by the officiating clergymen thereof, but the total amount of such exemption to any one religious corporation shall not exceed two thousand dollars. Such exemption shall be in addition to that provided by subdivision seven of this section."

(NOTE—In order to get the benefit of this exemption it is necessary that one of the officers of the Church should go to the tax office each spring before the end of March and make an affidavit stating that the rectory is used by a clergyman, etc.)

Subdivision 11 provides as follows:

"The real property of a minister of the gospel or priest who is regularly engaged in performing his duties as such, or permanently disabled by impaired health from the performance of such duties, or over seventy-five years of age, and the personal property of such minister or priest, but the total amount of such exemption on account of both real and personal property shall not exceed fifteen hundred dollars."
